Charlie Trimble Leaves for Eastern Tracks to Get Horses for Ak Races

Charlie Trimble, secretary of the Ak-Sar-Ben race meetings, left Omaha yesterday for Chicago where he will attend the running of the Hawthorne races and incidentally interest horsemen at the Windy City in the coming fall running race meet at Ak track which starts September 9 and continues until September 27, each day except Sundays.

After spending several days at Chicago, Secretary Trimble will hop a rattler and visit other eastern tracks. He will visit the southern tracks before returning to Omaha.

Charlie B. Irwin, Cheyenne (Wyo.) horseman, who is a prominent person at all the Ak-Sar-Ben running race meetings, arrived in Omaha yesterday from Chicago. Irwin has shipped his stable of eight runners to Ak field from Hawthorne. He will give his bang-tails a short rest and then start preparing them for the coming race meeting.

Prospects for another large list of runners for the Ak race meetings look mighty bright. Hardly a day passes but what Secretary Trimble receives reservations for stalls.

After quitting at the wire in the first two heats, Grace Direct set the pace in the 2:04 class pace and coming from behind won the third heat, forcing that event into four heats Logan Hedgewood, which led to far into the stretch, paced the first quarter in :30 seconds flat and the half in 1:00 4-5.

"Gee! Some Train," says JACKIE COOGAN

There was excitement and camera-clicking in the Grand Central Station in Chicago when Jackie Coogan "bought" the Capitol Limited.

With a critical eye he inspected the roomy observation-library car, modern sleeping cars, commodious club car, inviting diners and powerful locomotive.

Up in the cab he took the huge throttle and proudly hung out a sign, "Jackie Coogan, Owner and Chief Engineer."

"Gee! some train!" he said.

And Jackie's opinion is that of thousands of others who have travelled on this popular Washington train.

Its enviable record for service and dependability has made it the favorite train to the East.
