White—Becoming in all textures.

Black-Small quanities in combination with white or color; large masse of transparent material fairly good.

Gray—Light gray best.

Brown—To be avoided except in small color. Very light, dull brown, like ecru, sand, etc., good because dull enough to enhance the hair by analogy and the eyes by contrast without unduly bringing out the purple in the skin.

Yellow-Only light, pinkish yellow cod. Bright yellow brings out purple in the skin unpleasantly. Red—Fair; dulled, rose-reds better than orange reds. Pink—Rose-pinks good. Pale, yelpinks, fair; deep yellow-pinks be avoided. Purple-Sometimes makes the skin p. m. Members will present their look very pale.
