

Seven Days May Conclude Trial

One More Alienist Will Be Offered by State—Probably Will Reserve Decision.

By Universal Service. Chicago, Aug. 16.—Sane and fully accountable for their acts. That was the verdict Friday of the state's alienists who examined Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb after the college youths had killed Robert Franks.

Dr. Rollin T. Woodruff and Dr. H. Douglas Singer were the alienists to give their testimony today. Doctors Hugh T. Patrick and Archibald Church testified yesterday.

The state has one more alienist to offer—Dr. William O. Krohn. He may not be called before Monday.

The cross-examination of Dr. Singer is expected to consume most of the time tomorrow.

Dr. Krohn, in some respects, is regarded as the strongest witness the state has to prove that Leopold and Loeb are not mentally deranged. He is expected to corroborate all that the other four experts of the state have said to offer conclusions of his own.

After Dr. Krohn has given his testimony one or two other witnesses may be put on the stand, but their testimony is not expected to be of great moment or require much time.

May Conclude in Week. Allowing a day for the examination of Dr. Krohn and two days each for the state and the defense to submit arguments, the case should be in the hands of Judge Caverly for decision by a week from tomorrow.

How long it will be after the arguments are completed before Judge Caverly will be ready to pronounce sentence is a matter that rests with him alone. He may announce his finding immediately from the bench, or he may take a few days to "think it over."

The chances are he will take the matter under advisement for a few days.

As the trial approaches the end interest increases in what the sentence of Judge Caverly will be.

Will he send Leopold and Loeb to the gallows to be hanged? Or will he commit them to some penal institution or asylum? He doesn't know yet, for evidence isn't all in, and the lawyers have not made their plea for or against the young slayers.

Cannot Give Freedom. One thing is certain—he will not give them freedom for they have pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree. They cannot be admitted to the bond in this state after pleading guilty to murder in the first degree.

Leopold and Loeb were very serious-faced young men when they were led from the courtroom to their cells in the county jail after court recessed tonight.

The alienists who had testified for the state brought them no comfort. They saw their "drama world" shattered and themselves described as perfectly normal young men mentally and physically.

In other words not beyond the gallows because of any mental derangement.

PUPILS NEED 10 HOURS SLEEP. "Every grade school pupil should have at least 10 hours each day in bed to develop efficiency," said Charlotte Townsend, supervisor of health in public schools, speaking Friday noon to the Continental club in Hotel Fontenelle.

She explained that her department is enlisting juvenile leaders in every block in the city to promote the "early to bed and early to rise" idea.

Miss Townsend stated that in 1919 a survey of Omaha grade school children showed that 65 per cent had lost one or more of their permanent molars, while in 1924 that percentage had been reduced to 29 per cent.

ROBBER DIES FROM WOUNDS. Kimball, Neb., Aug. 16.—Thomas Tillman, shot by Arlo Baker during an alleged attempt to rob the American bank at Eustis, Neb., last Tuesday, died early today. He maintained silence as to his companions. A letter found in his possession gave the name of a sister as Mrs. E. Eisenbach, St. Louis.

Robert Kelly and Robert Harris, who gave Lamont, Ill., and Detroit, Mich., as their respective addresses, were bound over to district court yesterday on charges of being implicated in the robbery attempt.

CADDIES SENT TO RIVERVIEW HOME. James and Walter Harper and Joe Castle, Lakoma club caddies, were sent to Riverview home by Judge Day in district court on a charge of stealing golf balls.

Bud Schoening, manager, testified that they hid in a gully on the eighth hole and stole balls when they alighted there. Schoening and several others, suspecting them, laid in ambush and caught them. Two dozen balls were introduced in evidence. The boys said they found them, but more than half the balls had the owners' names stamped on them.

Windshield Stickers Causes Man's Arrest. Berkeley, Calif., Aug. 16.—Fred de Mott was arrested here for having "stickers" on the windshield of his automobile. This Berkeley ordinance which holds that "stickers" obstruct the view of the driver. It is said that no other city in the state has this provision in its traffic laws.

Omahan, 75, Cooks Dinner for 26 Guests on 50th Anniversary Woman Says McCoy Not Mors Slayer

This large group of relatives of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Muller, helped celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of the elderly couple at their home, 1707 South Thirty-third street on Friday. First row, left to right, Joe Millard, Charles Doll, Fred Ottinger, J. J. Muller, John Edward Campbell, Mrs. J. J. Muller, Viola Doll, Hazel Doll. Second row, Mrs. Fred Ottinger, Mrs. George Campbell, George M. Muller, Third row, Mrs. J. N. Millard, Mrs. Gilbert Dietrich, John R. Muller, Mrs. C. F. Doll, Fourth row, Gilbert Dietrich, Claude Dietrich, Henry Dietrich and Charles Doll. Fifth row, Mrs. Ottinger, Tom Wallace and James Wallace. Sixth row, George Campbell, Ben Millard and Rev. L. M. Kuhns.

50 years ago in Denver, Colo. They have been residents of Omaha for 45 years. After dinner was served the evening was spent in dancing and other entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. Muller were married here in the winter, possibly December or January, or it could be held over until the spring of 1925, while the powers made up the program of the questions they intended to discuss.

In connection with the agenda, it was pointed out today that the restoration of more stable relations between France and Germany may make it possible for the question of land armaments to be discussed and an agreement reached for limitation.

Emma B. Nielsen asked the district court yesterday to order her husband, Andrew, into court to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt because he is far in arrears in alimony payments.

Nielsen was formerly a minister and is now an aviator.

She was awarded a decree March 2, 1923, with custody of their two children. He was ordered to pay $500 at the rate of $25 a month and also alimony of $75 a month. On August 2, 1924, she says he was in arrears to the extent of $1,983.60. She says he refuses to make payments and is contemptuous and insulting in his attitude toward the court.

She had him up in district court once before for failure to pay.

George Paterson to Conduct Services. Announcement is made by the Omaha Metaphysical Library that Rev. George P. Paterson will conduct services on Sunday at 11 in the library rooms at 289 Aquila court.

He spent two months at the Unity headquarters this year and during that time attended the second annual Unity conference.

Omahans Evade Tax. At the city council meeting Saturday morning Commissioner Dean Noyes stressed the fact that a number of Omaha automobile owners are operating with Iowa license plates, which enables them to evade the Omaha wheel tax, personal tax on their cars and the half-hour parking restriction downtown.

Omahans knowing of local automobiles operating with Iowa licenses are requested to notify the city clerk's office.

Roads Allow Special Rates for Picnics Here. Community picnics, which bring excursionists from 250 miles of here, are being run to Krug park. The Wabash and Rock Island railroads are co-operating with the park management and are making 1-cent a mile rates effective. More than 1,000 persons, 300 from Des Moines, took advantage of the low rate excursion to visit Krug park last Sunday.

The Wabash has extended excursion rates as far as Stanberry, Mo., and community picnics are being scheduled from Stanberry and intermediate points by Krug park representatives.

Who are these players? One is a famous Italian leading man. The other is a famous villain. They're easy to identify.

The other three will be published Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday in The Omaha Bee. Hold your solutions until the series is complete, and send them to "The Sea Hawk" Editor, The Omaha Bee. You may be one of the 75 winners.

Free tickets to the movies? How does that sound? Especially since the picture is "The Sea Hawk," one of the most sensational pictures ever filmed.

Perhaps you read "The Sea Hawk" when it ran serially in The Omaha Bee. Now the motion picture of Refaël Sabatini's thrilling story is coming to the Rialto theater for a 16-day engagement, beginning August 21.

The Omaha Bee is printing the photographs of five of the leading characters in the picture. To the first 75 persons sending in the names of these five players The Omaha Bee will give free tickets to the showing

New Angle in Death Probe May Exonerate Boxer—Saw Men Fleeing.

Los Angeles, Aug. 16.—An entirely new aspect has been given to the Theresa Mors shooting investigation, police announced today, by the testimony of a woman who says she heard and saw two men fleeing from the apartment occupied by Mrs. Mors and Kid McCoy, ex-pugilist, a few minutes after the shooting was heard that ended the life of the wealthy divorcee early Wednesday morning.

The new witness, police say, lived in the apartment directly under that in which the shooting took place and saw one of the fleeing men so clearly and at such close range that she was able to give detectives a complete description of him.

This man, she said, positively and repeatedly, was not Kid McCoy. She was able to furnish no description of the other man, whom she knew only as the dark, vague shape of a man running swiftly from the building.

Important. The testimony of the new witness, Mrs. Iva Martin, is of supreme importance for two reasons, police point out:

First, it fixes the time of the slaying at 12:05 a. m. Wednesday. Second, it completely disproves the suicide theory of Mrs. Mors' death.

Mrs. Martin was in bed, she said, when she was awakened suddenly by voices in the apartment above.

"Oh, my God, don't do that," were the first words she heard, she told investigators.

Twice more, in anguished tones, these words were repeated.

No reply was heard, only the sounds of a scuffle, and then again a woman's voice pleading.

Finally, said Mrs. Martin, came the last words she heard from the apartment that night:

"Oh, my God, don't do that! Oh, this will be terrible," a woman's voice screamed.

Then the sharp sound of a shot, a brief silence, the thump of some object falling to the floor; again silence.

"Someone was moving about stealthily on the floor above," continued Mrs. Martin.

"When the shot rang out, I jumped out of bed. I pushed the switch of the floor lamp and looked at the clock. It was exactly five minutes after midnight."

MAIL CLERK CITED; MEETS PRESIDENT. Washington, Aug. 16.—An introduction to President Coolidge and his cabinet and a citation from the Post-office department, accompanied by a check for $2,000, were the rewards bestowed Friday upon Eugene L. Stack, 23-year-old postal clerk of East Orange, N. J., for his bravery in defending mail bags from an attempt to rifle them on July 31.

The young postal clerk came to Washington at the request of Postmaster General New, who, in the presence of the four assistant postmasters general, presented him with the check and read the citation. Stack was taken to the White House and was immediately taken to the president, although a cabinet meeting was in session.

In defending the mail bags Stack engaged in a pistol battle with two highwaymen, one of whom, John Monroy, he killed. The clerk was wounded twice.

Look for the Word "Realtor" When Dealing in Real Estate

When you are dealing in Real Estate, selling or buying, you are in a business which requires expert advice.

If the firm with which you deal, is a "Realtor," you are assured of expert advice.

Before a man can become a "Realtor," he must know his business, and know it well.

When real estate deals are made without expert advice, they are frequently very costly, and generally very unsatisfactory, either to the buyer or seller, or to both.

Before selecting a man to direct your Real Estate deals, be certain he is a Realtor.
