YOUNG PERSONS PROCRASTINATE

"Hundreds of splendid, hard-working young men and women in Omaha are wasting a valuable career by being satisfied to hold inferior and poorly-paying positions," says H. B. Boyles, president of Boyles College. "If these young people only realized that to learn more they must know more and apply themselves to specialized study, they would not only increase their earnings but multiply their usefulness to society.

GOOD TEACHERS IN BIG DEMAND

"Anyone who has studied the relation between industry and education will agree that industry is demanding more and more that education shall furnish industrial recruits a practical training.

VAN SANT SCHOOL IS OPPORTUNITY

Any woman who wishes to secure a training which will serve as a guaranty of employment in office work, who wishes to be self-supporting, should investigate the Van Sant school. Miss Duffy, owner and manager, says students are paying the modest sum of 12 1/2 cents an hour for instruction from women who are not only experienced teachers, but experienced business women as well.

O. S. U. Graduates Omahan.
