

All Grain Prices Break Sharply; Weak at Winnipeg Market Closes at Bottom as Liquidation is Renewed; Corn Shows 10-Cent Loss From Recent High.

By CHARLES J. LEYDEN
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.
Chicago, Aug. 22.—Liquidation was renewed today in grain prices for the first time since the market broke sharply last week. Wheat and corn were the main losers, with wheat down 10 cents and corn 10 cents from their recent highs.

Wheat prices were the main losers, with wheat down 10 cents and corn 10 cents from their recent highs. The market was characterized by liquidation and a general decline in prices. Corn prices were also affected, with a 10-cent loss from their recent high.

Stocks of wheat are accumulating in all markets. The primary movement is heavy and is expected to get to the market in the next few days. There has been no distinct change in the wheat market since the break in prices some time ago.
