Pit Notes.

Sentiment in the wheat trade has been quite changeabel of late, but at the moment favors the buying side. The bulk of the winter movement has been fairly well taken, and the milling demand is broadenire. The American and Canadian spring wheat run is not far distant, but judging from the manner in which Europe is buying these days it begins to look as though the need of supplies aboard are much greater than has been genate much greater than has been genate much greater than has been genate when greater than has been grown as though the need of supplies aboard are much greater than has been genate when greater than has been genated as a greater than has been grown greater than has ben grown greater than has been grown greater than has greater than
