Beal Examining Big Oil Swindle

Thousands Cheated in Selling Game; Prosecutions May Follow.

County Attorney Beal is drawing the net about several men and a company alleged to have swindled thou sands of persons by an oil selling scheme worked in many communities in eastern Nebraska and South Dakota in the last two years. "They would go into a community and sell some of their oil and grease to half dozen well known citizens,' said Beal. "They collected in advance and shipped the oil in due time. "Later, they would go into the same community with high-powered sales men and sell a large quantity of their oil and grease on the pay-in-advance and ship-later plan.

"Doubters were referred to local men who bought before and got the goods. They corroborated this when asked and so the salesmen cleaned up and the oil was never shipped."

Beal says he will go into other counties and sign complaints if neces-
