

Northern District of Lutheran Body Is in Convention

175 Pastors, Teachers and Lay Delegates Attend Opening of Synod Near Bancroft.

With 175 pastors, teachers, and lay delegates present the convention of the northern Nebraska district of the Missouri synod Lutheran church was opened Wednesday morning in the church of Rev. W. Harms, president of the district, near Bancroft Nebraska.

Rev. F. Photenhauer of Chicago, president of the Lutheran synod of Missouri, Ohio, spoke in the opening sermon on the divine calling and purpose of the church of Christ on earth namely to learn the heavenly truth and to teach it.

In the afternoon session Rev. Mr. Photenhauer reported that the Missouri synod Lutheran church is now composed of 23 district synods in the United States, Canada, and South America.

Two papers will be read at this convention, one on "The Christian Home," by Rev. G. W. Wolter of Arlington Nebraska, and "The Christian Living," by Rev. Ed. Oelschlaeger of West Point, Neb.

Separate Rites for Pair, Despite Request in Note

Same Minister for Principals in Suicide Pact; Buried Nine Miles Apart.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Wymore, Neb., Aug. 29.—Two funerals were held at Wymore today.

The principals, living together as neighbors, dying together in a suicide pact, and leaving a request that they be buried side by side, are mourned for on the same day.

Their funerals were preached by the same minister, but they were buried nine miles apart, services being held for Miss Bessie Neum, 15, shot to death in a lonely pasture south of Wymore Tuesday night.

HORSE KILLED AS AUTO HITS WAGON

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Atlantic, Ia., Aug. 29.—Believing that a team barely discernible in the dark, would turn out and give part of the road, Henry Cooper, truck driver for the Avoca Fruit and Grocery company, Avoca, crashed head-on into an empty hayrack Wednesday night when he was returning from Omaha with a truckload of produce.
