Saturday Bride

Miss Nette Roecker (NICKEL-C-8)

Wadsworth-Roecker Wedding.

One of the loveliest of summer weddings took place Saturday when Miss Nette Roecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Roecker, became the bride of John Wadsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth.

The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Paul Calhoun officiated. The church was a bower of beautiful flowers, the walls, the doors and windows were covered with smilax and wall pockets of pink roses, larkspur and gladiolus were used. An altar was formed which was banked with palms and ferns and two tall white poles, which were topped with a shower effect of flowers. Every other pew was decorated with a bouquet of the same combination of flowers and the lights had a show of ribbons and flowers.

The bride party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Misses Frances Riker and Carolyn Damon, as flower girls, were in yellow georgette over yellow tulle and carried arm baskets filled with roses, larkspur and gladiolus. Miss Hope Roecker, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and was in a powder blue crepe gown trimmed in silver lace, with a blue tulle hat and silver hose and shoes. The bouquet was a shower of opheleas, roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride entered with her father and was never more lovely, her bridal gown of ivory tulle and lace, with a long bodice made plain, with the drop shoulder line and sleeveless. The skirt was a two-tiered effect and her long and beautiful veil was of rose point lace, which was loaned by Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth, was in cap shape with orange blossoms and hung two and one-half yards below the hem of her gown with a foundation of white tulle.

Before the ceremony Mrs. J. W. Beardsley sang "Because" and during the ceremony she sang "Captive Memories," with Miss Marguerite Morehouse at the organ.

A most informal reception was held for the bride party and immediate family, and after an eastern honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth will be at home in Oakland Court.
