Prohibition Director Elmer Thomas eclared that the municipal courts ed to take advantage of every echnicality in favor of the liquor la

The ire of the two officers was aroused during the hearing of the case of Charles Hutter, former Sarpy county sheriff, 4429 South Eighteenth street, arrested by Phillips, Fee and Wright of the sheriff's morals squad, August 14. Three gallons of alcohol and a quantity of home brew are alleged to have been seized at Hutter's Pleads With Holmes.

Charges and counter charges were limit of the warrant had expired at The warrant was issued July 26. Judge George Holmes sustained the attorney stat-ing that a four-day time limit had been set on warrants at a recent conference of the municipal judges. Hutter's attorney charged that Phillips had committed perjury by swearing to the warrant when no booze was Director Thomas strode to the bar and pleaded with Holmes for a longer time limit on search warrants. "It is the purpose of the court to aid in law enforcement. But it seems to be a tendency amoung municipal judges to obstruct the enforcement of the prohibition law by taking advanof every technicality."

Charge Is Dimissed.

"There is a leak in the court and police department," exclaimed Phil-"Bootleggers are warned as soon as a warrant is issued for their ar-rest. I have learned that Hutter was informed by a policeman that a war-rant had been issued for his arrest."
"Do you mean to infer that this court and the police department are co-operating with bootleggers?" de-manded City Prosecutor A. J. Brun-

"No," returned Phillips. "But I do say that Hutter has relations and friends on the police force." The charge against Hutter was dis-
