LOKEN WINS BOXING TROPHY. Albion, Neb., Sept. 5.—Matt Loken of Albion, brought back from the training camp at Fort Snelling a gold medal as champion boxer of the camp.

AT THE THEATERS. The Four Hamel Sisters and Stross, the latter feature cornet soloist with Sousa's band, are one of the three headline features at the World today. Other top liners of the new six-act vaudeville bill include the Three White Kuhns and Frank Stafford and company. Completing the show are Eastman and Moore, North and South, Winnie and Dolly and Arthur Hayes. The bill comes here highly recommended as entertainment of unusual quality.

Johnny Berkes, dancing partner of dainty Rose Doner at the Orpheum this week, was formerly of the dancing team of Grace and Berkes, who played for six years with Al Johnson in "Sinbad," "Robinson Crusoe, Jr.," and in "The Passing Show of 1921," with the Howard brothers. He is an expert foil for the grace and beauty of Miss Doner, while they are both able dancers.

Sid Gold, juvenile with Lena Daley's "Miss Tabasco" at the Gayety, has returned to Columbia Burlesque after three seasons in big-time vaudeville. His last appearance locally was in the Ben Veld show. The strong act of Miss Tyana is causing no end of comment, especially her feat of lifting a live elephant. The engagement closes with today's two performances.

The ever-increasing clientele of women who attend the matinees at the Gayety, has an optical treat promised for next week when Ed E. Daley's new edition of his popular "Runnin' Wild" will be the lure. All of the women principals, Edythe Bates, prima donna; Babe Healy, soprano; Mildred Holmes, ingenue; and Audrey McVay, the dancer and entertainer, have been outfitted by the act. Mr. Daley with a wardrobe that comes under the head of regal. Regardless of the charm of beautiful womanhood, there must be comedians to make a burlesque offering complete, and in this particular "Runnin' Wild" will not be lacking. There will be, as the leading funster, Billy Fox, well known and popular; John O. Grant, the cleverest "straight" in burlesque, so they say, and Sam Micola to assist Foster in the meriment. The engagement opens tomorrow matinee.

Miss E. L. Frisco Breaks Record for 3-Year-Olds at State Fair Races

$1,000 purse, winning the 2:15 trot in straight heats. Ivan Echo, a Lincoln owned bay stallion, captured second money in this race. Reeves, piloting Rags, the roan gelding which carried off first money in a pace Thursday, was entered in this trot and won third money. Fourth money went to Dixie Archdale, owned and driven by B. A. Negus of Lincoln.

The most unsettled race of the day was the 2-year-old trot. The colt race was undecided until the last moment, the youngsters breaking at the most unexpected times. E. G. McKillop, the brown filly owned by the Midway stock farm of Kearney, took first money from the Nebraska Racing commission's purse of $300 in straight heats. Triumph, Jr., the yearling roan gelding belonging to R. W. Lowry of Lincoln, took second money.

Racing here this year attracted more fans than for several years, and some point it out as a proof that the turf pasture is not dying out.
