Westerner in Trouble Several Times During Day's Play but Sank Excellent Putts.

Nayatt, R. I., Sept. 6.—Mrs. Doro-thy Campbell Hurd, Merian Cricket club, won the women's national golf championship here today when she defeated Miss Mary K. Browne, Loc Angeles, 7 and 6, in the 36-hole final at the Rhode Island country club.

Mrs. Hurd was far too steady for Miss Browne. She played a fine morning round of $1, and by so doing established a lead of five holes. Miss Browne's play was spotty. She played many good shots, but too many bad ones to cope with Mrs. Hurd.

The battle was one of putters. Miss Browne gained a hole on he very first hole when she sank a 12-foot

First blood was drawn by the Call fornia girl at the second hole, where, after again putting her approach into a bunker, she exploded to the green and ran down a sidehill putt of 18 feet. She was bunkered again on the third and Mrs. Hurd squared the

Mrs. Hurd took the lead at one up on the sixth with a 25-foot putt for a winning three. Miss Browne was again in trouble on the seventh and eighth holes and lost them, making Mrs. Hurd three

On the eighth Miss Browne found a brick in a sand trap and after playing out, tossed the brick into a nearby pond with some show of anger. Miss Browne trapped her tee sho mound and pitching afterward within three feet of the cup, and was two down as they turned the first nine

Miss Browne dropped another hole when Mrs. Hurd sank a three on the She was 4 down when Mrs. Hurd also won the 11th, the longest hole on the course. Miss Browne failed to sink a five-foot putt for a 6 to halve the hole.

Miss Browne again was in a trap on the 12th and conceded the hole after using two strokes to get out. This made Mrs. Hurd 5 up and she made it 6 when she took the 13th when Miss Browne again conceded a hole without the formality of
