He'll Be Independent When He's 45 Years Old

An Omaha man with a small business, about 18 months ago bought a piece of Omaha business property, consisting of six small stores in an outlying neighborhood.

He is paying for them by the month, with money he receives from rents.

He is now 38 years old. By the time he is 45, the property will have paid for itself, and will pay him from $450 to $600 per month.

"When this property is paid for," he said, "I can then guit work or not, just as I choose. My Omaha Real Estate will keep me and my family for the rest of my life.

"I never felt absolutely safe about the future until I bought that property."
