CREDIT MEN HOLD FIRST MEETING

Seventy-five members of the Omaha Association of Credit Men were present at the first monthly dinner-meeting of the season in the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.
 Rev. Arthur Atack, pastor of the Hanscom Park Methodist church, spoke on "The Constitution of the United States," pointing out that it is the basis of the credit of this country and a foundation on which rests the credit of the business concerns.

 E. P. Trussell, credit manager of Armour & Co., and vice president of the association, presided. The board of directors met before the dinner. Negotiations are going on, it was announced, for speakers of national reputation to address the meetings this winter.

LENIENCE DENIED IN POLICE CASES

A courtroom crowded with defendants who had appealed their cases from police court met little mitigation of their fines and sentences from District Judge Day, Thursday.
 The judge reprimanded a lawyer who had signed a bond for a client in municipal court, ordered a capias issued for a woman who was not present and whose lawyer said he "thought the case had been continued" and doubled some of the fines imposed in the lower court.

High Pupils in Play.
 "A Roman Wedding," a Latin play, will be given by Central High students for the Latin section of the state teachers' convention, which is to be held in Omaha, November 5, 6, 7 and 8.

35 PERSONS HURT IN CAR COLLISION

New York, Sept. 12.—Thirty-five men and women were injured, two perhaps fatally in a collision of two surface cars near the heart of the "Gay White Way" today.
Beg Your Pardon.
 It was erroneously reported in yesterday's Evening Bee that Morris Finkelstein, Omaha grocer, had been fined $25 in police court for a violation of the Sunday closing law. A. Stoler, 1114 North Twenty-fourth street, was named as the complaining witness.
 Mr. Finkelstein was the complaining witness and Stoler was fined.
Don't Soap Tops.
 It is permissible to rub soap on the feet of stockings while washing them but you should not do so with the tops.
