Dodgers Defeat Cards Twice and Advance to Within Half Game of Giants

Wheat's Homer in 12th Inning Wins Opening Game

Doak Has Better of Dickerman, Dyer in Second Contest-Robins Bunch . Hits to Win.

ROOKLYN, Sept. 18. —Brooklyn won both games of a d o u b l e-header with St. Louis here today, 7 to 5 and 4 to 2; and advanced to within half a game of the lead when the Giants split with the Cincinnati Reds. The first game was a 12-inning ers emerging ictorious after a see-saw session. Zach Wheat won the game for the Dodgers with a home run in the 12th, his 14th of the season, with Mitchel on base. Bill Doak outpitched Dickerman and Dyer in the second game, Dickerman being taken out after the Dodgers had gained a two-run lead. The Cardinals bunched two singles and a triple for their two runs in the seventh while the Dodgers bunched four hits in the third and two each in the fifth and eighth.

Joe Joe raced head and head with the leaders until rounding the last turn where he drew out into a long lead to win with consumate ease. Helen Major made a fast finish and out-stayed Duc De Guise. The latter was hard ridden and ran his race. Fox's Choice did his best. Pokey Jane tired. Foul Weather, after showing early speed, stopped to a walk.

Seth's Ak-Sar-Ben, showing food speed, wrested the lead from Kilkare after leaving the back stretch and, coming wide in the best going, made a determined finish and barely managed to ward off the challenge of Miss Spears. The latter closed with a rush and would have won in another stride. Kilkare set the early pace and tired. Cannonball did his best. Huzzas had no excuse.

Bill's Luck was saved until rounding the last turn where she was hard ridden and, answering to urging, passed the leader in the final seventy yards and was going away fast at the end. Ella Wood tired after racing into a clear lead entering the stretch and was barely able to save second place. Bond ran a good game race. Orleans Girl met with no mishaps and had no excuses. My Rose quit.

Canny Lady set the pace from the start and, finishing gamely while tiring, warded off the closing challenge of Mess Kit. The latter finished fast and was rapidly wearing the winner down at the end. Chicken moved up while rounding the last turn, but tired in the final drive. Rungeorge was never a serious factor. Needy stumbled at the start.
