

Minister Scores Demo Platform

Sailing Would Be Easier If Leaders Put Some Christianity in It, Says Pastor.

The democrats would have easier sailing this fall if only the democratic leaders had inserted a bit of Christian nature into their platform. These words were stressed by Dr. W. F. Sheldon, one of the educational experts in Nebraska, in addressing the Methodist conference Friday at the First Methodist church.

Mr. Sheldon asserted that he had merely brought the political question into the limelight in order to present to the congregation a specific example. In the course of his speech, Sheldon classified socialism as a "big bubble."

Poverty No Bar to Education.
Mr. Sheldon declared that when a boy or girl received a degree from any university, they were merely being repaid 100 times as much as they had paid to go through their regular university course.

"The Christian college offers a better opportunity than any other institution in the world can hope to offer," said Bishop Titus E. Lowe. "Money is not an absolute necessity to enable a boy or girl to go through college," he said. "True it is that money helps a great deal, but the actual grinding that a student makes is what counts at the end. It has been previously proved that poor students sometimes acquire more knowledge by going through universities than do the sons of rich men."

Musical Program.
In dwelling on the subject of education, Bishop Lowe claimed that in the near future an adequate women's building would be built at the University of Nebraska. It will be very long before the University of Nebraska will have a real gymnasium, he said.

Bishop Frank M. Eriston of Washington, D. C., who was scheduled to deliver the main address at the conference meeting, was unable to attend.

Dr. I. E. Schreckengast, chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan, presided at the meeting.

Ex-Convict Slays His Benefactor

Little Girl Sees Mother Slain by Man They Befriended.

Parsons, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Clifton R. Hunn, wife of a wealthy Chicago business man, is dead here, the victim, police say, of an ex-convict she once befriended and who last night returned her kindness by beating her brains out with a hammer, shooting her through the heart, and looting her apartment of gems valued at $20,000.

The man sought as Mrs. Hunn's slayer is Harry Connor, alias Harry Garbutt, who according to detectives was released from an Illinois prison through her influence after serving part of a sentence for robbery and who was added with her money to start life anew after leaving his cell.

Lodged in Bathroom.
F. R. Gibson, a cousin of the slain woman, was in the apartment when Connor called yesterday and was invited to stay for dinner. He warned her that he was in the bathroom and then had turned on his hostess and killed her.

Gibson said he finally managed to escape from the bathroom by crawling out of a window and dropping to the ground, but reached the front door only in time to find Mrs. Hunn's body on the threshold and to see her slayer fleeing down the street.

His story was corroborated by Virginia Hunn, 8-year-old adopted daughter of the murdered victim, who witnessed the killing.

PROWLER SLUGS ROOMER, FLEES

A prowler who entered the room of William Sneed, 233 R street, struck him on the head with a piece of lead pipe, he told police early Saturday morning.

Mrs. A. Jensen, landlady, called police, who took Sneed to the South Omaha police station for emergency treatment. Sneed received a slight scalp wound. Nothing was stolen from his room.

President's Wife Attends Meeting Unaccompanied

Washington, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge Friday made her first appearance at a political gathering in the present campaign unaccompanied by her husband.

Leaving the president at the White House, Mrs. Coolidge attended a meeting of the Republican Women's club of Montgomery county, Maryland, which was held at Chakrabhat, the country estate of Charles I. Corby of Washington.

Mrs. Coolidge listened to several political speeches in which her husband's record was highly praised, shook hands with all present and returned to the White House for dinner. She made no remarks.

Farmers Sowing Rye.
Beatrice, Sept. 20.—A number of farmers in Beatrice county are planting rye, but will not sow it until about a week later, or until more rain falls. The ground is very dry and farm work is behind on that account.

Republican City Couple Wed 47 Years

Mr. & Mrs. John Stotts

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Republican City, Neb., Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. John Stotts, pioneer residents of Republican City, were guests of honor at the dinner given by their friends on September 6, their forty-seventh wedding anniversary. A purse of silver was presented to the aged couple following the dinner.

Stotts, including many who were among early settlers of this region, were present at the dinner given in the church parlors.

The Stotts have three sons and five daughters. Two grandchildren and 143 nephews were present for dinner. A purse of silver was presented to the aged couple following the dinner.

Some time during the early hours of Saturday morning, R. R. Lee, 60, well-known resident of Omaha for 30 years, walked out of his home, 209 South Twentieth street, stepped across the street and inside the hedge around the Scottish Rite cathedral, held a .32 revolver to his right ear and pulled the trigger, ending his life.

Hundreds of persons, on their way to work, passed within a few feet of the body, concealed by the hedge. None saw it until S. C. Davis, 2924 Douglas street, came along. He notified police and coroner Paul Steinwender.

Retired August 1.
Lee was employed by the J. C. Reed Furniture company, 1267 Farnam street, until he retired August 1, on his 60th birthday.

"I had plenty of money," said Mr. Reed. "His health was bad. He had asthma and a poor heart. But he was one of the finest and cleanest of men. He was a bachelor. He liked all the women so much he couldn't pick one out for a wife. His relatives are dead, excepting a stepmother whose address I don't know."

Three notes were found in the dead man's pocket, written in pencil on the backs of lettershead. One said "Call Stack, the undertaker."

The others were as follows: "Dear Brother Elks: 'Please lay me away out on Elk hill. Forest Lawn, and my estate will take care of all bills. With best wishes to all. 'R. R. LEE.'"

"To My Friends: 'I know some will say I am insane, but I am not. 'All people that want to die are not insane. 'This is a wonderful old world, and I hate to give it up. I could live on for ever and enjoy life if I had good health. 'But my motto is 'Give me life or give me death. 'And in my case I have but one choice. I love Omaha, and all the good people in it. I have spent 39 years here and I would be only too glad to stay on and on forever. But Father Time has decreed otherwise and I must go. And in going I have but one regret to make and that is that I haven't been able to do more good in this old world than I have. 'There is a great opportunity in life for all to be happy by seeing how much we can do for others and a little less for ourselves. And I hope some day that everybody will live up to this Golden Rule. 'With love and best wishes to all. 'R. R. LEE.'"

He had been a member of the Elks only a few months.

BROADWAY STAR SAILS FOR EUROPE

New York, Sept. 20.—Inogene Wilson, Broadway beauty, sailed today for Europe to stay "forever—maybe." And Louis Frank Timney "perhaps."

That is, if she gets to Europe. Rumors have come from England that she may encounter trouble with the English immigration officials.

Miss Wilson recently broke into the front pages of newspapers when she was beaten by Timney and had the famous comedian arrested. Later they were "reconciled" and she said she still loved him.

La Follette in Court to Stop Filings

Chicago, Sept. 20.—A telegram announcing that preparations are being made to file distinct legal actions to stop the filing in the state of Washington of nominating tickets similar to the name of the La Follette-Wheeler tickets, and that Senator La Follette himself may be named as a plaintiff, was received today by Representative John M. Nelson, national La Follette campaign manager.

E. Ballaine of Seattle, head of the La Follette-Wheeler organization in Washington.

The message read: "Attorneys nearly ready to file three distinct actions to restrain the use of false La Follette tickets. Monday we probably will ask Senator La Follette for explicit authority to make him a party with the plaintiffs in these actions."

China Seeks to Recover Seat

Makes First Official Effort to Re-Enter League Council.

By Associated Press. Geneva, Sept. 20.—China made the first official effort to recover her lost seat on the council of the league of nations today when the league assembly reconvened after a week's suspension.

Peking's delegation introduced a resolution calling the attention of the assembly to the resolution of 1923, stating that it is desirable to elect permanent members of the council, bearing in mind the world's main geographical divisions, the various types of civilization and the chief sources of wealth. The new resolution was referred to the agenda committee.

Today's Chinese move created interest because it is understood the delegation has received instructions to withdraw from the league if China is not successful in regaining the council seat which went to Czechoslovakia last year.

President Motta told the delegates he would like to be able to promise that the assembly would be concluded by September 27, a week from today, but he was in no position to give such assurance because it was extremely undesirable to hurry the labors of the two commissions on arbitration and disarmament, the importance of whose work, he said, could not possibly be exaggerated.
