Quaver was saved under slight restraint until entering the stretch where he was urged into a commanding lead then weakened and barely lasted to win. Bronston closedwith a great rush and would have wen in another stride. White Haven made up ground. Lady Lillian, after being a distant follower, moved up fast entering the stretch and closed courageously. Tableau de Honor, and The Colonel showed good searly speed bift gave way in the stretch. Flaxy Mae was prominent for a half then retired.

faced the locals and after getting away to a bad start because of an error by Bluege, settled down and had little trouble holding the Eversmen. It was the 14th consecutive game won by the Senators' ace. He also fanned five men, giving him a season's total of 154 and a life time

Harris started the league leaders victory when he singled to left. evengros was unable to stop the attack and retired after Bluege had sent his club ahead with a double which scored two runs. Johnson was given sensational support, the work of McNeely in center and Manager Harris at second base being outstanding. Peck led the batting attack for the Senators with four hits while Sam Rice ran his string of
