

Thinking Men Will Vote for Coolidge Says Ex-Nebraskan

Former Boone County Man Says Europe Has Proved Evils of Socialistic Government.

An analysis of the issues, men and parties in this national campaign will lead thinking men and women to vote for Coolidge and Dawes, is the opinion of William C. Gregg of Hackensack, N. J., who has been on a speaking tour in Nebraska.

Mr. Gregg was here for a few hours Wednesday afternoon, on his way to Minneapolis. In Nebraska he spoke at Neligh, Central City, Columbus, Albion and other towns, under the direction of the republican state central committee.

"I have been to Europe four times since the armistice," said Mr. Gregg, "and I observed that socialism has done overseas. I rode 100 miles on a government-owned railroad for 6 cents. We don't want La Folletteism in this country. La Follette wields the red flag. His election would result in business chaos."

Investigates in Wisconsin.
In a recent issue of his publication La Follette stated that "Wisconsin is the best self-governed state in all of the world." Mr. Gregg recently visited Wisconsin to obtain evidence, if possible, of that claim. He said he found taxes higher in Wisconsin than in adjoining states. He found no better conditions on account of state supervision of all public utilities.

"Omaha has lower electric rates than are charged in Milwaukee," Mr. Gregg stated. "General conditions in Omaha are comparable with conditions in Milwaukee. I failed to find the boasted improved conditions in Wisconsin."

Mr. Gregg formerly lived in Boone county, Nebraska, and is now engaged in the manufacture of railroad equipment for the export trade. He classes himself as an independent in politics, but during this campaign he is speaking for Coolidge and Dawes because he believes the best interests of the nation will be conserved by retaining Coolidge and obtaining Dawes at the November election.

Eastern Farmer Suffers.
"I have been telling the Nebraska farmers that they are not alone in encountering problems which seem to be particularly identified with agriculture," the New Jersey man added. "The farmers of the east have had their troubles."

Mr. Gregg had an article in Sep-

Citizen Officers Are Admonished

Judge Patrick Tells Traffic Men to "Use Heads" in All Cases.

"Use your heads," is Judge Robert Patrick's advice to volunteer traffic officers.

Judge Patrick gave this admonition as he reprimanded William Vaughn, citizen officer, for the arrest of Mrs. Dave Bolker, 2108 Sherman avenue, after she had struck another car while chasing a speeder at the officer's order.

Judge Patrick dismissed the reckless driving charges against Mrs. Bolker and J. A. Nelson, Seventh street and Avenue K, East Omaha, whose car she hit Tuesday night at Sixteenth and Corby streets.

"This sort of thing is the limit," declared City Prosecutor Brungardt in police court Wednesday. "This officer jumps on the running board of this woman's car, orders her to chase a speeder, and then arrests her when she hits another car."

"You fellows ought to get your brains moving," he told Vaughn. Vaughn explained that Mrs. Bolker and Nelson had been unable to agree about the payment of damages, and that he was told to arrest both of them, when he called the police captain for advice.

McMullen Scores Bryan Road Work in District Tour

Says No Highway Contracts Let Until Recently, and Then to Make a Showing to Voters.

By P. C. POWELL.
Staff Correspondent The Omaha Bee.

Central City, Neb., Sept. 24.—The republican invasion of the Third congressional district under the leadership of Adam McMullen, candidate for governor, continued today. Audiences have been increasing in size daily as the country and townspeople realize that in Adam McMullen they have a candidate who stands for a return to truth in state politics.

The energetic E. C. Houston, candidate for congress, and L. B. Johnson, candidate for secretary of state, continued to travel with Mr. McMullen and will remain with him until the Third district tour is completed Saturday at Fremont.

The itinerary of the candidates today included Genoa, St. Edwards, Cedar Rapids, Belgrade, Loreto and Albion where a night meeting was held under auspices of the Boone county republican central committee.

Miss Lunch to Hear McMullen.
The reception accorded the candidates at St. Edward was extraordinarily cordial. The St. Edward band, stationed in the middle of the street, struck up a lively air. Despite the fact that the candidates were behind schedule and arrived exactly at noon fully 300 men and women forswore their dinners and listened for an hour to the addresses. George Williams, a member of the republican state central committee, and H. F. Lehr, Boone county chairman, met the candidates at St. Edward and escorted them on the remainder of the day's trip.

Those in charge of the St. Edward meeting were L. V. Styles, Bruce Webb, A. A. Smith, Howard Chamberlain and former State Representative Aubrey Brown.

At Genoa, the first stop, George Rose introduced the speakers. Fully 200 were waiting to meet the candidates when they arrived in Genoa.

At Cedar Rapids R. D. Hadley, F. D. Burgess, Jr., H. L. Robinson, G. A. Rine and C. A. Storrs formed a reception committee which introduced the speakers to a large crowd waiting at a street corner to meet them.

Pupils Dismissed.
Students of the Cedar Rapids high school had been displeased to listen to the addresses and Mr. McMullen deviated from a political discussion to explain intricacies of state government to the pupils.

Former State Senator B. J. Ainlay and E. R. Brock were in charge of the meeting at Belgrade. From Belgrade the candidates drove 33 miles to Loreto, and then back to Albion, arriving at the latter town two hours behind schedule, due largely to the extent and warmth of the reception accorded them during the day.

Mr. McMullen, in his speeches today, stressed the importance of maintaining roads in Nebraska which already represent millions of dollars in investment. He pointed out that in the last year and a half the road maintenance department at the state house had been entirely wiped out and practically no road building had been done in that time until in the last month when numerous contracts were awarded just before election.

Houston Active.
Such procedure is poor economy, he said, and cannot be followed for any reason except for the purpose of making a false showing. Mr. Houston continued his energetic campaign during the day. His talks are brief and pointed. Before a meeting is concluded he has met and shaken hands with every man on the streets. Despite Mr. Houston's 60 odd years he runs around with as much agility as a young man of 25.

After he concluded his speech from a wagon at St. Edward he didn't stop to clamber down as the others did. He leaped from it the same as a boy does. The principal plank in Mr. Houston's campaign for congress follows: "If elected I pledge my best efforts to place agriculture on an equal basis with all other industries and will support any legislation that will bring about this result."

VOTE BOOSTER TO ADDRESS NURSES

Mrs. Halleck Rose of the speakers' bureau of the "ret out the vote" committee will address a joint meeting of the Nurses Central club and registry and the members of the second district of the Nebraska State Nurses' association at 2 p. m. Thursday at the nurses' club rooms, Twenty-fourth and Harney streets.

New Pastor Will Preach to Three Congregations

Laurel, Neb., Sept. 24.—Rev. H. Niederwimmer, with Mrs. Niederwimmer and their three daughters, has arrived and will take charge of the Lawn Ridge Lutheran church. The new pastor will preach to the German Lutheran congregations at Laurel and Hartington also. Mr. Niederwimmer came to the Lawn Ridge church from Syracuse, Neb.

Tall Corn on Display.

Shenandoah, Ia., Sept. 24.—Iowa is living up to its reputation as the state "where the tall corn grows." J. P. McQueen, farmer, has brought to Shenandoah some 12-foot stalks and leaned them up against the First National Bank building entrance as could husk the corn without a step fairly well developed. Mr. McQueen's advertisements. No ordinary man ladder. Each stalk has two ears, has 10 acres of this tall corn.
