

Two Noted Champions Will Usher in Winter Boxing Season in East This Week

Mickey Walker to Meet Barrett in Main Bout

"Kid" Sullivan, Junior Lightweight, and Phil McGraw Fight at Detroit Tomorrow Night.

JUST two of the eight reigning world champions of pugilism will inaugurate the winter indoor boxing season this week but by no stretch of the imagination can one be led to believe that either man is in imminent danger of being relieved of the crown that adorns his brow and nets a neat sum annually. Mickey Walker, king of the welterweights, and "Kid" Sullivan, leader of the comparatively new junior lightweight division, are the headliners. The former meets Bobby Barrett in Philadelphia Tuesday night, while Sullivan takes on Phil McGraw, a native of Detroit, in "Ty Cobb's" stronghold, Monday night.

While this does not seem to be a heavy attraction, glances at the pugilistic schedule for the week reveals that fact that there are many bouts, some of which are being staged by promoters who have come out flat footed and announced that they will no longer pay big guarantees to champions, preferring to entertain their patrons with bouts of lesser importance and at a price that will fill the pocketbook of the fan and customer far better and furnish him with more for his money.

Recent experience of Tex Rickard in promoting pugilistic enterprises of a supposed gigantic nature, have convinced the "ace of promoters" that it is not always conducive to the health and general welfare of the bankroll to pay enormous sums to foreign hulks and American near-champions or champions. Thus he has ordered that it be stopped and to prove that he means business he is opening Madison Square Garden, New York, Friday night with an all-star card with Luis Vicentini, champion lightweight of Chile, in that means anything, and George K. O. Chaney, a veteran from Baltimore, in the main event.

Earlier in the week Rickard is performing a similar stunt in the promotion of his last outdoor show of the year on Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, when he will put on some 10-round bouts, in which Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, will meet K. O. Phil Kaplan and Paul Berlenbach, the knockout king, will clash with Johnny Gill as the main attractions.

But to get back to the two champions who headline the bill, they are merely taking on opponents they feel reasonably certain of beating in order to get ready for more important engagements in New York later in the campaign.

Mickey Walker finally has been able to start after considerable tussling with the boxing commission in New York. Walker was to have fought Benny Leonard and on the pretense of an injured hand the lightweight champion pulled out of the match. Walker was told what he could and could not do by the commission, whereupon he asked that the commission take his championship and give it to someone else as he considered it a handicap if he has to listen to the dictation of that organization every time he turned around.

He tried to schedule a match with Barrett and the commission interfered. Finally, after a lot of argument, the commission withdrew its protest and Walker will now be allowed to go about the business of making a living without having to ask the commission's permission every time he wants to pull a pair of padded mittens over his salary knuckles.

Coach Roper in Search of Punter for Tiger Eleven

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 27.—Coach Roper has inaugurated a search for a punter to replace Howell Van Gerbig this fall. Murry Gibson, who did some of the punting last fall; Single, Weeks, Williams and Sidney Le Gendre all were given a long drill in booting, with Van Gerbig and Keene Fitzpatrick coaching them. Their efforts were fairly good, with Gibson and Single averaging a little better than 40 yards.

The new type of kick-off, necessitated by the change in the rules which forbids tees, also was tried out. Hills and Gates, two Olympic stars; Ted Drews and Charley Caldwell all got their distance, but were unable to get much height to the placement kicks now in vogue. Sam Ewing and Stagle also had a drill in drop kicking.

Clarinda High School Organizes Athletic Teams

Clarinda, Ia., Sept. 27.—Junior High school will again have organized play, and the four groups for soccer, volleyball, basketball and eighth grade will admit every seventh and eighth grade kid who wants to come out for athletics. Lloice Hubbard, Marvin Sheller, Harold Pennington and Harlow Olson have been chosen captains. They will select their own teams. The soccer field has been laid out, ready for practice. Hubbard will meet his twin, Lloyd Hubbard, on a freshman team. Both are swift, all-around athletes. Last year's Junior High basketball team won from the freshmen, the High school seconds, and the Junior college.

Coach Roper Figures on Better Showing With Tigers

New York, Sept. 27.—Princeton, which lost to Notre Dame, Harvard and Yale last year and tied the Navy, believes that it cannot do any worse and is likely to do a great deal better. Bill Roper has started on his last year's best coach at Princeton and in 1925 will give way to his assistant—very likely Herb Treat.

Bellevue Athletic Club Team Has Good Record

The Bellevue Athletic Club team, consisting of 15 players, has a record of 10 wins and 2 losses. The team is coached by William Trent, who is also the manager. The players are: Donavan, hard hitting backstop; Lee, or "Slippery" Benson, who won every game he pitched for Bellevue. In the picture, front row, left to right: N. Bressman, first; Wall, second; Frank Langheine, center field; Captain (Ross, catcher; "Chip" Bressman, third; Back row, left to right: "Jap" Clarke, pitcher; Allen, utility; George Langheine, third and right field; Jackson, shortstop; Alvy Graves, left field; Karl Langheine, center field; Andy Graves, pitcher; William Trent, manager.

Gopher Eleven to Greatly Miss Services of Veteran Martineau

Minneapolis, Sept. 27.—A line intact from tackle to tackle but without the services of experienced ends, as well as star backfield men, including the great Martineau—that briefly is the situation at the University of Minnesota as Coach Bill Spaulding opens his third and final year under his present contract as football mentor.

With the 1923 machine built around Earl Martineau, flashy halfback of All-American fame, the Gopher grid chief is working out an entirely new set of plans for the heavy program of games, the most pretentious schedules in the recent history of Minnesota.

Fourteen "M" men, 13 of them veterans of the 1923 squad, and the other a 1922 casualty reported when the Big Ten practice began September 15. This in addition to some promising young material from Minnesota high schools.

Eight hard games in a row—one game a week—is the program for the best teams of Omaha and vicinity. The above picture does not show Donovan, hard hitting backstop; Lee, or "Slippery" Benson, who won every game he pitched for Bellevue. In the picture, front row, left to right: N. Bressman, first; Wall, second; Frank Langheine, center field; Captain 1924 Minnesota eleven. Six of these, including two scheduled western conference games, will be played in Minnesota's new $700,000 stadium which has a seating capacity of 55,000 persons. Minnesota plays away-from-home games with Iowa and Wisconsin, but Michigan and Illinois will visit the new Gopher stadium which will be dedicated at the Illinois game, November 15.

North Dakota comes here October 4, for the first game, and the last game will be Vanderbilt here November 25. Meanwhile the Gophers will sandwich in contests with Ames and the Haskell Indians.

Malcolm Graham, youthful quarterback, who showed to good advantage last year until injuries at the Michigan game overcame scholastic difficulties by attending summer school and Minnesota fans expect his playing to go far toward plugging the gap left by the graduation of Martineau.

Popillon and Gretna will settle an old grudge this afternoon when the Michigan team will invade the field of a large side bet. Following the game both teams will tussle with a large chicken dinner.

Now that we have discovered that Bob McLaughlin is a demon on the telephone, we are trying to locate about three more amateur players who can perform in a piano, cornet or drum. Then we may organize an amateur bill players orchestra.

Pawnee City Wins

Humboldt, Neb., Sept. 27.—The southeastern Nebraska baseball championship was won by the Pawnee City team from the Auburn team in a hotly contested game by a score of 6 to 2. The batteries for Auburn, Davis and Dennison; Pawnee City, Johnson and Thornburg. Umpire, Fairbanks. Game was played at Humboldt.

Dempsey Followers Can't See Why Wills Should Get Chance at Title

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Supporters of Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, are throwing a cold water on the long-deferred match with Harry Wills, negro challenger, who tamed Luis Firpo in Jersey City recently, says an expert. The Dempsey continent hold that because Wills didn't stop Firpo inside of the 12-round limit there is no earthly reason for a battle between the champion and the brown panther.

Dempsey won his title by knocking out Jess Willard in four rounds at Toledo five years ago. What has the champion done in the ring since that one-sided affair. The late Billy Mike was put away in three rounds in September, 1920, and three months later Dempsey took nearly 12 rounds to flatten the late Bill Brennan in Madison Square Garden.

Wills has been belittled for his failure to put Firpo down for the full count in 12 rounds, yet Dempsey couldn't stop Brennan until 11 rounds had been fought, and didn't knock Gibbons off his feet once in 15.

Erwin Bige Wins Norfolk, Neb., Sept. 27.—Erwin Bige of Omaha won a decision over Jack O'Toole of Sioux City here last night in 10 fast and furious rounds. Harry Reed of Lincoln was referee. John Blaza, Omaha, won in 10 rounds from Frank Patitz of Bassett. "Kid" Ray defeated "Red" Charlton of Grand Island in six rounds.

Grid Season Opens New York, Sept. 27.—Today heralded the opening of the football season on a score of eastern gridirons. Many of the leaders of past seasons will play today though the Big Three, Harvard, Yale and Princeton, and the service rivals, Army and Navy, like their Big Ten contemporaries in the west, will not start until later.

Wins Golf Title Atlantic, Ia., Sept. 27.—Claude Williams, local golf enthusiast, won the city championship by defeating Ralph W. Cockshott, runner-up. J. H. Peacock, another local star, won the director's flight, with Earl Britton, a runner-up. The Atlantic flight was won by Dr. Hupp, with F. K. Johnson runner-up.

Chalks Up Golf Record Shenandoah, Ia., Sept. 27.—A new course record for the Southmoreland country club was set when Oscar Butts, club "pro," shot the course in 35. His total score for the 18 holes was 73, a 28 out and 35 in. His best record previously was two 37s.

Ostrich Races to Be Inaugurated in Gay Paree

Paris, Sept. 27.—In French sporting circles much interest has been shown in a suggestion to inaugurate a series of ostrich races here. This new form of excitement has already been experimentally tried in Berlin, where it has proved an unqualified success from the point of view of the public. In the German capital ostrich races take a form very similar to that adopted in American trotting matches, where the jockeys are seated on pulkies, which for all practical purposes consist of a pair of high wheels surmounted by a seat.

Ten ostriches usually take part in each race, and so far the directors of part mutual booths have had every reason to be satisfied with the betting public.

BELMONT IN NEED OF NEW COURSE

New York, Sept. 27.—The management of Belmont park, having been forced into a clear infraction of the rule of racing by permitting 29 horses to start for the Futurity stakes, on a track that would hold a maximum of 25 if those rules were observed, faces the absolute necessity of constructing a new seven-furlong course before the bugle sounds for another Futurity.
