DE VALERA BACK IN IRISH POLITICS

Republican Leader Declares Dublin Must Bow to Central Parliament.

By EDWARD ALDEN JEWELL. (Written Especially for International News Service.

Dublin, Sept. 30 .- Eamonn De Vaera, leader of the Irish republicans, n an exclusive interview with International News Service today delared that Ulster must come under the jurisdiction of a supreme Irish parliament at Dublin. This is the first nterview granted by De Valera since his release from prison and it comes at a timely moment, as the English parliament met at London today to take up the free state-Ulster bounlary dispute.

De Valera claims that a republic al eady exists in Ireland. All Ireland. se said, must be one soverign state. 'We will not admit that any part of the territory of this nation can be off from the national state," said the republican chieftain. "The position of the republican cabinet always has been this. We are willing to grant Ulster a parliament for its own local affairs with as large a measure of autonomy as is consistent with unity and the sovereignty of the Irish state. We are willing to give similar parliaments to Munster, Leinster and Connaught if the people of these

"But all must accept and operate under the sovereign jurisdiction of one supreme parliament to which will reserved certain well-defined national powers. There can be only Irish treaty and all that has flowed from it is illegal," continued De Valera. "The republic is the sole legitimately established state in Ireland We deny the right of foreign-derived authority in this country. With a republican majority we would ignore such authority and resist every effort at interference by foreigners."

De Valera said the republicans elected to the Dail Eireann would refuse to take the oath. He declared

John Brock, no address, was arrested by special officers for the Burlington railroad at Twenty-sixth and Martha streets Monday night. He is charged with breaking and entering a freight car.

Prisoner's Dash for His Liberty Through Field Ends in Creek Bottom

A "dash for liberty" failed Sun-day night when sheriff's deputies refused to play tag.

Deputies O. A. Kinsell and L. H.

Bird arrested Chester Smith, 601 South Twenty-first street, Council Bluffs, when they found him at a dance kall in Honey Creek, Ia., in possession of four pints of alleged liquor. Two companions were arrested with him.

Smith was placed in Kinsell's car to be taken to jail, but while the deputy's buck was turned he jumped from the car and ran into a

The deputies knew Smith's home ddress and did not trouble to chase him. The waited, however, and 15 minutes later he came back. "I thought you had gone," he told the deputies when they rear-rested him. "I fell in a creek at the other end of the cornfield." He was taken, dripping wet, to the county jail. He was released Monday on $100 bond. His comanions were not held.
