Sirens Roar as Caravan Enters City

Coolidge-Dawes Campaigners Parade Streets; 100 Decorated Cars Escort Cross-Country Tourists. Members Are Optimistic

The Coolidge-Dawes caravan, which is one of the most unique innovations of the presidential campaign, reached Omaha Thursday afternoon in a blaze of glory.

At least 100 automobiles, gaily decorated with the national colors and Coolidge-Dawes pennants, were parked on the Omaha side of the Douglas street bridge awaiting the arrival of the Vermonters.

The caravan proper consists of five touring cars and a truck, the latter having on its sides huge pictures of the president's birthplace at Plymouth, Vt.

Thousands watched the caravan as, with hundreds of horns sounding, it wended its way through the business streets, in a similar way these republican boosters from Coolidge's home town have come from town to town and city to city from the shady Green mountains of their native state to the Missouri river.

Curran Asks Firpo Case Be Dropped

Commissioner Charges New York Newspaper Was Behind Prosecution of Fighter; Criticizes Chase. Advised Firpo to Leave

New York, Oct. 2.—Immigration Commissioner B. H. Curran today recommended to Secretary of Labor Davis that the deportation proceedings instituted against Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine heavyweight, be discontinued.

Ellis island officials said that this would entitle the pugilist to remain in the country, provided the commissioner's recommendation is not overruled by Secretary Davis.

A New York newspaper was said by Curran today to have been the figure behind the Firpo prosecution. The commissioner declared that Canon William S. Chase, who appeared as the ostensible prosecutor, had testified at a recent hearing before an immigration board that he had waged his fight at the instigation of the newspaper.

The clergyman, Curran said, had refused to give the name of the newspaper that had backed his crusade, nor did he name the sum paid for the drive for the same.

Canon Chase charged that Firpo had brought a woman to the United States for immoral purposes at the time of his fight with Harry Wills. The special board of inquiry that heard the case concluded "that there is no established position which a recommendation to the secretary of labor to order deportation of the alien."

"Five of us have been through the case with the greatest care," Commissioner Curran said, "and each of the five has separately come to this opinion. I have sent to the secretary of labor my recommendation that the warrant of arrest be canceled and the deportation proceedings dropped."

Agriculture Swinging to Prosperity

Federal Economist, After Tour of Country, Says Conditions Better Than During Last Five Years. Farmer Now Hopeful

Washington, Oct. 2.—The Department of Agriculture made public today a report from A. B. Genuin, agricultural economist for the department, declaring that agriculture is swinging toward par and not in five years has the United States presented so nearly a picture of balanced prosperity as now.

"Go into the south this fall and you will be impressed with its prosperity," Mr. Genuin said. "Last year went a long way to wipe out the pressing burden of indebtedness. Another cotton crop bringing $1,500,000,000 cash plus a fairly good season for truck crops, potatoes, and small fruits, will put the south into a very comfortable position."

Davis Chosen by Machine, Howell Tells Audiences

Say McAdoo Real Choice of Rank and File; Smith Put Forward to Defeat Him.

Staff Correspondent of The Omaha Bee. Loup City, Neb., Oct. 2.—The rank and file of the democrats wanted McAdoo, "the boys" fixed up a big sham battle and after they had fired out the convention put over John W. Davis. This in effect is the outline of the situation confronting the democratic voters, as explained by Senator R. B. Howell in an address here.

The senator referred to the rank and file of the democratic and republican parties as the "stockholders." Concerning the situation at the democratic national convention, he said: "No one will urge that Mr. Davis was the choice of the stockholders of the democratic party. Unquestionably, Mr. McAdoo was."

"As the convention progressed it became very evident to no less a personage than W. J. Bryan that Mr. Davis was the real choice of the big stockholders of the democratic party, and that it was their intention, by strategy or otherwise, to put him over. Mr. Bryan did not think that Mr. Davis was the proper man to be elected president. He made the following statement respecting him: 'He is a man of charming personality and admitted intellectual capacity, but there are two arguments against him, either one of which would prove fatal in this campaign. One of these arguments is his professional relationship with the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan. Nothing but an irreparable reform record could save such a candidate from defeat, and Mr. Davis' record is not such as to protect him from the suspicion aroused by his business connections.'"

The senator pointed out the utility of Bryan's protest. He charged that the Al Smith candidacy was not an issue, that it was put forward solely to defeat McAdoo. He also charged that the Klan issue, which almost wrecked the convention, was built up for the same purpose.

The senator further charged that Bryan brought about the nomination of Charles W. Bryan to placate William J. Of Davis as president, he said: "The official who is the beneficiary of associates, may be convinced of a right line of conduct, but to no avail. Sometimes he will be frank enough to tell you, 'I know you are right, but I cannot do it, the boys wouldn't stand for it.'"

Senator Howell, who is campaigning this week with Adam McMullen, republican candidate for governor, to defeat McAdoo.

"Keep Your Shirts on," His Advice

This Admonition of Baseball Czar Is for Ban Johnson and Others Who Urge Cancellation of Games.

By Universal Service. Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—The world series will be played according to schedule, in spite of charges of attempted bribery by members of the New York Giants, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, declared tonight.

The New York players accused by Jimmy O'Connell, young outfielder, who has been suspended from baseball for attempted bribery, of being implicated with him, will be in the lineup against Washington, the commissioner added.

Persons who have no responsibility in the matter were advised by Landis to "keep their shirts on." This admonition was directed against Ban Johnson, president of the American League; Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and others who suggested cancellation of the series on account of the scandal in connection with the two suspended New York players, O'Connell and "Cozy" Dolan.

"There was an attempt to bribe a player to throw a game," the baseball czar said. "It failed, and the game was played on its merits. So, why call off the series?" Judge Landis refused to comment on charges made by O'Connell, that the outfielder had been made a "goat" for Young, Frisch and Kelly, apart from his statement that the men would play in the series.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Ban Johnson, president of the American Baseball league, said tonight the world series should have been called off as quick as evidence of attempted bribery was secured.

"It would appear that we were handed a championship club to compete with that is talented in the things it represents," he said. "In view of the public statements, the world series should have been called off."

Johnson said he had no personal information on the matter, but insisted that he would demand a most searching investigation.

"We must know all the facts and bring to the surface all the individuals who have been guilty of this misconduct and who are a positive menace to the integrity of baseball," he said.
