Youngest Queen in History Takes

Miss Emma Hoagland in Gorgeous Gown Makes Unforgettable Picture at Ball Friday Night.

Ak Sar-Ben's youngest queen, Miss the throne Friday night as royal consort of John L. Kennedy

Miss Hoagland, 19, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hoagland, and the granddaughter of Her mother was Miss Florence of Los Angeles. Boothroyd of Colorado. Both the queen's maternal grandparents are come to Omaha for the coronation.

Miss Hoagland has a sister, Miss to take a place among the entrants in ensemble Helen, whose maid of honor she will the horse show. The queen is also an be when Helen is wed to Loring excellent swimmer. Elliott on October 22, and a younger

During the past week Miss Hoagland's family moved from 510 North the league's membership. Forty-eighth street, the family man-University of Omaha school of cook sion occupied by her grandfather un-Patrician Slenderness. Queen Emma has a patrician slenderness and height. A brunette. her locks have never beer shorn, and out it's traditional charm are worn, slightly waved in a conservative fashion, softly outlining the shape of her head.

Her eyes, which are unusually crystals covered the entire gown. large and brown, flash brightly when with four rows of inch-wide crystal

When she took her place in one of skirt. the two chairs reserved for her and The hemline, cut 16 inches from the king, she made an unforgettable the floor, was finished with a six-inch

This winter she is enrolled in the lovely enough to conjure with, bore

It was fashioned of white crepe without a suggestion of a helt, over silver lace. A Persian pattern of fringe completing the design on the

The present queen, despite her At the right side of the gown a long treated very rudely. But there had youth, has twice been honored by fringe of crystal and brilliants, drip-been no one on whom to use that lit Ak-Sar-Ben. A year ago she figured ped dewily from a low waistline and the scent gun of his, and so he hadn't as a duchess in Queen Eleanor's on the left uncurled white ostrich, used it. It didn't take him more than down until it gently came to rest or Place Beside King as a duchess in Queen Eleanor's on the left uncurred white each filmy feathered frond tipped a minute to find out that he was just its side. first inaugurated the custom of with a rhinestone, cascaded from hip as much a prisoner in that barrel as hastily backed away and waited.

Emma Hoagland, her aunt, and is a The straight coronet of rhinestones well known figure of mercy in local set in silver, with its six-inch dia as a gentleman. A philosopher is one hospitals, where she goes on Thurs- dem in front, sparkled over Queen who believes in making the best days with her mother, as a member Emma's glowing eyes. The necklace, of the Emma Hoagland flower mis- with its pendant and the two brace

Miss Hoagland's aunt, Mrs. David Miss Hoagland wore the traditional court train of silver cloth boardered to live, was a princess of Ak-Sar-Ben which Mrs. Willard Millard wore for when she was Miss Helen Hoagland. the first time three years ago, and in Miss Hoagland Mudied at Bradford which Miss Gertrude Stout and Miss the late George W. Hoagland, one academy in Haverhill, Mass., and is Eleanor Burkley have since appeared. of Omaha's most influential pioneers, a graduate of the Marlborough school It has great dignity and grace cut with a V neck and fastened on the straight shoulders of the graceful still living. They were unable to come to Omaha for the coronation.

at Ak-Sar-Ben field this afternoon stone buckles completed the royal her escort, John Reed, were guests of Miss Hoagland is the first queen. Miss Josephine Schurman at supper since the organization of the Junior at the Omaha club, where Miss Hoagleague, who has been chosen outside land's sister, Helen, and Mr. Elliott

Burgess Bedtime Stories

A Perfect Gentleman. ovoked when he was caught in that picture against the crimson velvet fringe of rhinestones and crystals, He had been still more provoked when rel. He pulled off the blanket from curtain, which suspended from a gold through which gleamed silken ankles, he had been dropped out of it into a over the top. Then with the rake he barrel. He felt that he had been reached out and got hold of the edge At the right side of the gown a long treated very rudely. But there had of the barrel between the teeth of the he had been in the box trap. You see

Now, Jimmy is a philosopher as well

A little gentleman, if there ever was one," said Farmer Brown's Boy as he watched Jimmy.

get out of that barrel, but he could A little way beyond the barrel h quite a while, and so it happened that and calmly went on about his busi he was asken when Farmer Brown's ness. Could you have seen him you Boy tiptoed up and threw a blanket wouldn't have guessed that anything over the top of that barrel. Then, unusual had happened. ried it outdoors. He carried it some it was Jimmy who was under that had been picked it up, he set it down.

He went back to the barn and got out. He wasn't afraid to go out. He didn't run out of that barrel, as some of his more timid neighbors would have done. He walked out of that parrel slowly and in a dignified way. His big, plumey, black-and-white tail was held high, a sign that he was ready to use that little scent gun or his if there was cause to use it. Outside the barrel he stopped to look No one was in sight but Farmer

Brown's Boy, grinning at him a short listance away. Jimmy knew Farmer Brown's Boy. He knew him as friend. He didn't know that Farmer Brown's Boy had been the cause of his recent troubles, but he felt pretty sure that Farmer Brown's Boy had helped him out of those troubles Jimmy lowered his big tail. without hurrying in the least and act usual had happened, he walked away for a nap. So that is what stopped, dug down into the grass He was left undisturbed for roots, pulled out a white grub, ata

Then, as gently as he bad Billy Possum." And to this day Farm re Brown's Boy doesn't know just hov it happened that he caught Jimmy a rake. Then he returned to the bar | Skunk instead of Unc' Billy Possum

for your OLD VACUUM CLEANER

A generous tradein help. And convenient terms that put this splendid new cleaner within reach of all.

Let us show you this wonder cleaner in your own

These Convenient Terms With or Without Attachments

Walls, draperies, fur-niture, lamp shades, rugs, pads, pillows and mattresses are in need of a thor-ough cleaning now. The Premier Duplex

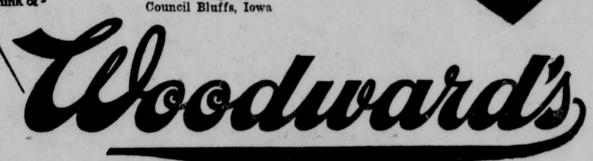

Down

Nebraska Power C.

were selected, and such a gift is MORE than acceptable by such a royal personage as Her Majesty, the Queen of the Mighty Kingdom of

JOHN G. WOODWARD & CO. "The Candy Men"

Inner-Circle Candies

CLOTHING VALUES BEYOND COMPARE

Men's and Young Men's

One and SUITS

OVERCOATS

Featured in Three Big Groups

Clothes with a value appeal that no thinking man will allow to pass unheeded. Clothes that are crowded with good style, just the very sort of clothes you need and want. The Palace has them at prices that defy all competition.

Open Saturday Evenings 9 o'Clock

Cleaning.

Troubles

Shirts of fancy extra quality madras, neckband or collar attached, all sizes; buy several at this low price.

Heavy Coat Style SWEATERS

Shawl collars, sizes 34 to 46; shown in gray and navy, an extra special value

MEN'S SOX

Absolutely fast color, tars and blacks, a real Saturday bargain ... 8 Pairs, $1.00

Cotton Flannel

GLOVES

Extra weight cotton 25c Heavy Ribbed

UNION SUITS

Cotton union suits, sizes 36 to 48. Better $100 supply your needs Sat-

& H. Green Trading Stamps