

Stock Market to Establish Record, Claim

Receipts May Total 9,013,524 Head for Year Against 8,428,889 in 1923.

Omaha's livestock market will establish a new high record of receipts this year, according to estimates based on a comparison of receipts for the first nine months of 1923 and 1924.

Should the Omaha market receive only the same number of head of live stock in October, November and December this year as in those months of 1923, the 1924 receipts will be $8,750,472 head as compared to $4,288,889 head last year.

Big Liquor Plot Revealed, Claim

Dry Agents Capture Vessel With Half Million Dollar Rum Cargo.

New York, Oct. 4.—Prohibition officials claimed to have uncovered a gigantic Anglo-American liquor conspiracy, with $10,000,000 involved when they towed into harbor today the twin screw British steamer Frederick B.

Five special government agents, under leadership of William A. Walker of Washington, general field superintendent of the dry forces, made the capture after they had, according to Mr. Walker, dickered for the purchase of 25,000 cases of whiskey from the vessel's master, paying $100,000 in currency and checks for the contraband.

The federal operatives said they were convinced the Frederick B. was one of four rum ships operated by a band of international rum smuggling conspirators. Three other ships of the "rum line," they said, have landed between 75,000 and 100,000 cases of whiskey and other liquors in the United States in the last seven months.

4 Planes Ready for Air Classic

New Record Sought in Pulitzer Race at Dayton This Afternoon.

By Associated Press.

Dayton, O., Oct. 4.—The 1924 international air races will be concluded here today with the Pulitzer high speed race as the chief event. Four army airplanes will take off this afternoon in an effort to better the mark of 243.67 miles an hour set last year by Lieut. A. J. Williams of the navy in winning the trophy.

The army had counted on the late Lieut. Alexander Pearson, who was to have flown the same Curtiss ship that Williams used last year, setting a new high record. Pearson died in a crash a month ago when the wings of his plane collapsed while he was traveling at an estimated speed of 260 miles an hour.

Captain Elskeel of Selfridge field will fly one of the Curtiss racers and Lieut. Wendell H. Brookley of McCook field will pilot the other. Both planes are equipped with D-12 Curtiss engines which develop about 30 or 40 more horsepower than the D-12 motors which were used last year.

Lieut. Rex K. Stoner of Langley field qualified for the race yesterday. Lieut. H. H. Mills of Wilbur Wright field is the fourth entrant and he will pilot a Verville-Sperry racer, designed at McCook field, and which was started in the last two Pulitzer races, but did not finish.

The Dayton Bicycle club trophy race is the first event on today's program. There will be two sets of prizes, one for speed and one for efficiency. First award in the former is $1,500 in Liberty bonds and for the latter $800 in Liberty bonds.

The Pulitzer race carries a first prize of $5,000 in Liberty bonds, second prize of $2,500 in Liberty bonds, and $1,500 and $1,000 in bonds for third and fourth prizes.

CHINESE RAILWAY CHIEFS ARRESTED

By Associated Press.

Tientsin, Oct. 4.—Following the conclusion of an agreement between Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian leader, and the soviet government, M. Ostromoff, the chief engineer of the Chinese Eastern railway, and M. Gondatti, the chief of the land department of the railway, have been arrested. The reasons for the arrests are not known. Chang last year attempted to take over control of the land department.

Woodrough Inheritance Tax Case Ruling Clarifies New Law and Is of National Importance

The opinion filed by Federal Judge J. W. Woodrough in the case of Heinrich Pohlman, deceased, which was heard at Norfolk recently, is of national influence, according to local revenue officers.

The government against claims of the seven heirs of Pohlman for the return of the federal tax on the estate. Judge Woodrough ruled that the contention that the transfer of certain properties to the children was not made in contemplation of death, was not properly an issue in the case, since the heirs could not have gone into court and made demand upon the father for the property.

The other issues in the administration of the inheritance tax law which were clarified were: Executed family agreements as to the disposition of property reciting that transfers were made for services rendered shall not stand in the way of a government inquiry to determine whether property was actually transferred in contemplation of death, that where children have moved upon properties and are paying an inadequate rental to the decedent and making improvements with moneys which represent the difference between adequate and inadequate rental, no deductions will be made for such improvements in determining the fair market value of the property; that on the question of real estate values where it has been shown that the commissioner has made a finding of fact as to the values and that every fair, reasonable and businesslike effort has been exerted to place before the commissioner complete information as to values and no oppression has been practiced, nor obvious error made by government agents in arriving at their recommendations, the court will not disturb the findings of the commissioner.

About 40 witnesses were heard in the trial, which consumed four days. Special Attorney T. H. Lewis of Washington, D. C., prosecuted the case, which was based on the findings of Chief Estate Tax Officer J. H. Sherlock and Revenue Agents Todd W. J. Johnson and M. F. Laycock of Omaha.

Heinrich Pohlman died at Stanton, Neb., October 20, 1919. On September 23, prior to his death, a conference of all members of the family is alleged to have been held and a written agreement was entered into whereby he disposed of farm lands and city property valued at $250,000.

to his children. The government contended that the transfer was made in contemplation of death.

CONVICT ADMITS OMAHA SLAYING

The mystery of the death of William Smith, whose headless body was found on September 11, 1921, in a patch of weeds beside the Missouri Pacific tracks in South Omaha, is believed to have been solved by the alleged confession of Clyde Finan, 21, who has just completed a three-year sentence in an Oklahoma reformatory for a forgery charge.

Governor Trapp of Oklahoma signed requisition papers for Finan, Friday, and detectives will leave Omaha Saturday evening to return him to this city.

According to Finan's alleged confession, he and Ray Asher of Omaha killed Smith to get $40, which they knew he had on his person. Asher died several months ago, according to Omaha police.

Finan's reported confession declared that he and Asher killed Smith with a blow from a lead pipe. This is confirmed by the fractured skull, found in the weeds near Smith's decapitated body.

Police Ambulance Spoils Druggist's Swooze, Face Down, on Floor of Shop

Leo Hort, proprietor of a drug store at Sixteenth and Leavenworth street, was so sleepy Friday afternoon that he took 40 winks of shuteye in a chair beside the stove in the rear of the store.

A customer who came in found him lying face down on the floor, and called police.

When police picked him up to put him in the ambulance, Hort awakened and demanded to know what was going on. He had just been asleep, he protested.

Police insisted that he examine the cash register, and Hort found that it held more money than before he went to sleep. Customers had apparently served themselves and left the money.

NASH

Nash Leads the World in Motor Car Value

A National Tribute to Nash

7,800 Cars Oversold Despite Record-breaking Output

Drama in the motor car industry is unfolding before your eyes.

The group of new Nash models has touched spark to the torch of a nation's enthusiasm.

At a time when the industry as a whole is well below the peak of business—

—at a season of the year ordinarily not the best sales period

—and though Nash production is at the highest level ever attained

—still the demand from every section of the country for these new Advanced Six and Special Six models has swept sales to a point so far beyond the best previous mark that unfilled orders total 7,800 cars.

Nothing that we might say or do could add the weight of a straw to this undeniable and irrefutable evidence that men and women everywhere do see clearly in these new cars an excellence, a distinction, and a value that beggar precedent and own no parallel.

If this were not so would anyone prefer to wait for a Nash?

Yet in every community leading citizens are doing just that.

Happily, with increased output unreasonable delay is eliminated for those who act with promptitude in placing orders.

And deliveries will be made on the rotation basis which is fair to all.

In honor of the record-breaking success of the new Nash models the week of October 5th to 12th is national Nash Oversold Week and we are staging a special exhibition composed of samples of both the Advanced Six series and the Special Six series of Nash cars.

Your attendance is cordially urged.
