

Knife to Save Beauty of Car Crash Victim

Roberta Trimble Undergoes Operation to Remove Scars Suffered in Accident Following Ak-Sar-Ben Ball.

Surgery was resorted to Saturday morning in an attempt to preserve the beauty of Roberta Trimble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trimble, 106 South Fifty-fifth street, and popular Omaha society girl, whose face was deeply cut when her car overturned at 2 a. m. at Thirty-third street and Bedford avenue.

Miss Trimble's injuries are not serious, according to Dr. E. C. Henry, her attending physician. Ben Cotton, Jr., and Baldwin Sinclair, who were riding in the car with her, were only slightly cut and bruised.

Miss Trimble was cut deeply above the right eye and on the neck. Dr. Henry performed an operation at 10 a. m. Saturday in an attempt to avoid permanent scars following the injuries. He expressed doubt, however, whether the scars would disappear completely.

Forced Into Ditch.

Miss Trimble's car was overturned when she was forced into a ditch by blinding headlights on a passing car. Her car rolled over twice. She and her two companions were able to walk to Swedish Mission hospital, where it was first believed that she might have been injured internally. A later examination did not confirm this fear, however, and attendants said she was resting easily Saturday morning.

Miss Trimble and her companions had been riding following the Ak-Sar-Ben ball.

Recalls Hoagland Crash.

Miss Trimble's injury is similar to that of Miss Helen Hoagland, sister of the new queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident in November, 1922. Miss Trimble suffered a gash above the eye as did Miss Hoagland. The accident in which Miss Hoagland was injured was also at night, but on a dark road near Tekamah, Neb.

Miss Hoagland was driving with Mr. and Mrs. William Latta and Ellison Vinsonhaler. Vinsonhaler was killed instantly.

The Lattas escaped serious hurts, but Miss Hoagland for many weeks lay in the hospital in Tekamah. Since her recovery Miss Hoagland has submitted to several operations for plastic surgery at St. Louis.

Save Norton! Cry of Demo Leaders

Throw Everything Else Overboard, Become Eleventh-Hour Slogan.

"Save Norton—throw everything else overboard." This is the slogan of democratic leaders in Nebraska. Word has been received in Omaha that confidential polls taken by the democratic national committee have revealed Davis as running third in this state. The campaign of Thomas for United States senator has flattered out. The result is a last minute desperate effort to save something out of the wreck, therefore the concentration on Norton.

Trades will be worked out chiefly with the La Follette forces in an effort to accomplish this result.

Last Minute Trades.

The La Follette leaders believe that if at the last minute they can work out trades of this character they can overcome the lead of President Coolidge in Nebraska and carry the state for the Wisconsin senator. They are therefore "open for trades." Socialist leaders in Nebraska, as in all other states are taking a prominent part in this trading scheme. The socialist following in Nebraska is negligible but they have some astute leaders who understand the art of trading. So long as these socialist leaders were working within the ranks of their own small numbers they were not able to accomplish much. Under present conditions, however, where they have at their hands both the La Follette and the democratic supporters their efforts are said to be proving effective.

Neither democratic nor republican leaders in Omaha would discuss the latest strategy of the democrats in co-operation with the La Follette and socialist followers but it was privately admitted that such a campaign of trading to save Norton was under way.

Davis Is Third.

The private polls of the democratic national committee support the straw votes being taken by magazines and newspapers in various sections of the country. The chief of these straw votes is that of the Literary Digest which reveals Davis as third in every state except the "solid south." Even the straw vote being taken by the Hearst newspapers which are favor-

Holzman, A. B. Vaughn, J. B. Watkins, Joe Kelly, B. F. Marti, Arthur Storz, C. Owens and W. E. Ellis. Holzman was recently appointed to the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce by the Associated Retailers to take the place of J. F. Dalley.

SECOND DAIRY TRAIN PLANNED

A second dairy train will leave Omaha Monday, sponsored by the Dairy Development society, to tour 30 counties in Nebraska. Purebred bulls will be carried on the train and will be traded to farmers for "scrub" bulls, said John W. Gillan of the Chamber of Commerce, who will leave for Seward and York on the train Monday.

Coolidge Will Win California

E. J. Henning, in Omaha, Expresses Belief in Western State.

California will go for President Coolidge in the impending national election by an enormous majority, in the opinion of E. J. Henning, secretary to James J. Davis, secretary of labor.

Mr. Henning stopped off at Union station Friday night en route for Washington, and spent a few minutes discussing politics with Robert Smith, clerk of the district court, and Edward L. Bradley, attorney. He has been in several western states and reports a strong, steady trend of sentiment toward Coolidge.

"Colorado will go for Coolidge, and I am confident Nevada, and several other of the western states with small populations will do likewise," declared Mr. Henning. "The present situation indicates that Coolidge will receive the largest popular vote in the history of the country, and he is getting stronger every day."
