

Safety Council Organization Is Now Under Way

Temporary Office Located; Formation to Be Completed Wednesday Night.

Temporary offices of the Omaha Safety Council will be opened Monday morning at 117 South Sixteenth street. Harry Wolf of the H. A. Wolf company has donated the room temporarily.

The organization committee, consisting of S. A. Houser, chairman; S. S. Kent, C. E. Foster, R. A. Lentsler, F. T. B. Martin, A. B. Waugh and H. E. Dickinson, met Friday and nominated a board of control of 65 men and women, representing 65 groups of business and civic activities. The nominees' names are to be presented to a mass meeting at the city hall council chamber Wednesday evening at 8.

Bylaws were drawn up at Friday's meeting and will be recommended for adoption Wednesday night. President, first vice president, second vice president, third vice president, treasurer and secretary-manager will be elected. An executive committee of 15, chosen from the board of control, will be elected by the board. The executive committee will have active direction of the work.

Standing committees will be appointed by the new president as follows: Statistics, children's activities, publicity, traffic planning, motor transportation, legislation and enforcement, speakers and meetings, steam railroad, women's committee, industrial, fire prevention, membership and finance.

All citizens interested in the safety movement are invited to attend Wednesday night's meeting.

HARRY A. ADAMS ON SAFETY BOARD

Harry A. Adams, 3105 Dewey avenue, assistant to the general manager of the Union Pacific railroad, has been appointed to the executive committee of the National Safety Council, according to a telegram received Saturday morning by George Carey, one of the organizers of the Omaha Safety Council.

The appointment was announced at Louisville, Ky., at the national convention from which Mr. Carey has just returned.

Mr. Adams is in charge of safety work at the Union Pacific, and has been active in the organization of the local safety council.

Baby Performs for Great Grandparents

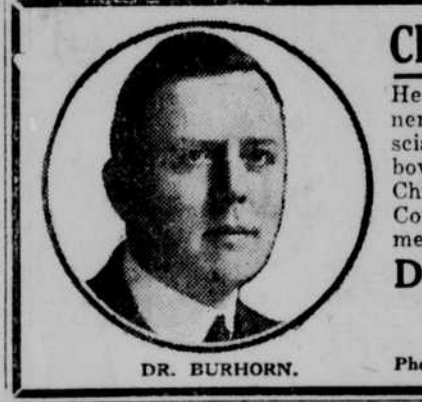

Margery Lee Schultz, year-and-a-half-old girl, is shown here standing balanced upon the hand of her daddy, E. G. Schultz, 2713 North Forty-eighth avenue. In the group also are Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter of Burlington, Ia., Margery Lee's great-grandparents.

The baby has performed for relatives repeatedly since she was 3 months old by balancing upon her father's hand.

Omaha Credit Men Banquet a la Schedule

To Meet Thursday Evening; Singing and Speaking on Program.

Dining according to a schedule as exact as a railroad time table will be an innovation at the dinner of the Omaha Association of Credit Men at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening. According to the secretary, any speaker who talks beyond his allotted time, will be cut off in the middle of a sentence.

The schedule is as follows: Six p. m., food; 6:30 p. m., songs by Harry Christensen, tenor; 6:45 p. m., community singing; 6:55 p. m., talk by James Cunningham, president; 7 p. m., talk by Bert Wilcox; 7:20 p. m., address by Frank E. Helvey; 8:30 p. m., dismissal.

Mr. Helvey, who is publicity director for the Insurance Federation of Nebraska, will speak on fire prevention week. Mr. Wilcox will tell of the meeting of the directors of the National Credit association at Atlantic City.

Gang of Thieves Plunders Danbury General Store

Danbury, Neb., Oct. 4.—Thieves entered I. D. Horton's general merchandise store Thursday night and stole goods to the amount of $500.

Woman, 75, Is Feted.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, 6212 Lake street, was feted by 26 members of the George H. Custer Women's Relief corps Friday in honor of the 75th anniversary of her birth. Songs were sung, games were played and a surprise lunch was served by the visitors.
