

Pioneers Relate Early Struggles

Hundreds of Hamilton County Early Settlers Attend Reunion at Aurora.

Aurora, Oct. 10.—With fine weather and a tremendous crowd, Aurora's Pioneer day was the most successful celebration ever held in Hamilton county. Hundreds of pioneers were in attendance from all parts of the United States. The afternoon exercises at the First Presbyterian church were both interesting and pathetic. Presided over by Judge A. W. Agee of Oden, Utah, many old pioneers told of early struggles for existence when Hamilton county was young. At the close the aged people stood and sang "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," with such feeling that there was not a dry eye in the audience. Many had the feeling that they were seeing their old friends for the last time. Judge Agee was introduced by F. E. Edgerton and responded with an eloquent address, reciting his early experiences in Hamilton county. He then called upon T. B. Johnson of Aurora, N. P. Wilcox of Cozad, Mrs. Robert Miller of California, Mrs. F. C. Mather of Aurora, J. H. Grosvenor of Aurora, J. W. Hewitt of Hordville. Many other pioneers spoke briefly. Later Judge Agee spoke briefly from the platform on the street to a large crowd. He was followed briefly by Judge L. S. Hastings of David City. Secretary A. E. Sheldon of the State Historical society brought to the reunion a large collection of historical relics of Nebraska. Every store window in town was filled with old articles of interest.

ITALIANS ABANDON COLUMBUS PARADE

Italians of Omaha will not hold the customary street parade on "Columbus day, Sunday, according to announcement made Friday by officials of El Progresso, Italian newspaper. The day will be observed by the Italians with a large mass meeting Sunday afternoon at the Brandeis theater. E. G. Maggi of Lincoln, attorney, will be the speaker of the day. National Italian songs will be sung. The Italian Dramatic society of young men will present a play Sunday at 8 p. m., at the Brandeis theater.
