World President

Miss Anna A. Gordon

Miss Anna A. Gordon, world and national president of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, who will speak in the First Christian church at 3 o'clock Sunday, October 13, represents more than 1,000,000 women, members of the White Ribbon organization. The W. C. T. U. is now organized in 49 countries.

When the list of America's 10 most illustrious living women was prepared some months ago, Miss Gordon's name was among the chosen.

Miss Gordon, who is noted for her quick and able penmanship, is a musician and a poet as well as a writer. Born in Boston and educated at Mt. Holyoke college, she gradually became interested in temperance work through association with Frances E. Willard, founder of the National W. C. T. U.

Miss Gordon's home is at Rest Cottage, Evanston, Ill., which was once the home of Miss Willard.

National League Voters.

The National League of Women Voters is outlining an intensive schedule of activities for 1924-1925. The sixth annual convention will be held in Richmond, Va., April 15-22, 1925.

Mrs. Francis Whitley of Webster City, Ia., for the last four years general Federation of Women's clubs' chairman of conservation, will be honor guest at a luncheon Monday, October 13, at 12:30 in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium.

Mrs. Whitley will speak on the conservation of Nebraska's resources.

Presidents of the 13 clubs in the second district will form a reception committee.

Mrs. Whitley will be the only speaker at the affair. She will be introduced by Mrs. Horace J. Holmes, chairman of conservation for the second district and the Omaha Woman's club.

The public is invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Edgar H. Allen, or Mrs. James E. Rednar.

Following luncheon a party will motor to Nebraska City for a tour of Arbor Lodge which has been closed for the season, but will be opened by special arrangement with the Nebraska City Commercial club.

Catholic Confederation Meets.

Miss Mary McGrath, delegate of the Sacred Heart High School Alumnae association to the sixth biennial convention of the International Confederation of Catholic Alumnae, will leave Wednesday for Washington, D. C., where she will spend a few days before going to Philadelphia.

The convention will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel in Philadelphia. Delegates from Canada, Ireland, France, Italy and Spain will be present; also many internationally known women.

Lee Forby Auxiliary.

Kensington Lee Forby Auxiliary No. 1, U. S. W. V., will meet at the home of Mrs. William Scott, 3907 North Seventeenth street, Luncheon, 10 o'clock.

Christmas Seal Story Contest

A story writing contest will be conducted by the Nebraska Tuberculosis association open to seniors in Central, Technical, South and North High schools.

An award of $5 will be made to one pupil in each high school for the best manuscript.

The subject must be "Christmas Seals." These seals are sold each year at the holiday season to raise funds for the fight being waged against tuberculosis. Stories must run from 500 to 600 words in length and must be written on one side of the paper only. Name of pupil and school must appear on each manuscript. Contest opens October 15 and closes November 15. A group of teachers will act as preliminary judges and will select the four best stories in each school for final decision to Mrs. Myrtle Mason, president of the Omaha Woman's Press club, Dr. H. Von W. Schulte and Mrs. F. W. Carmichael.

Awards will be announced in December. The four winning manuscripts will be broadcast from the WOAW station, one each week during the month of December.

Music Department of Woman's Club

The music department of the Omaha Woman's club presented a check for $300 to the building fund Monday at the first fall meeting from the proceeds of the opera "Pinafore" given last spring with a cast composed of local talent and the club chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Florence Basler Palmer, leader, Robert Cusden, conductor, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. George Henderson, ticket committee.

Society of Fine Arts.

Interest in the opening lecture of Omaha Society of Fine Arts to be given at the Hotel Fontenelle on Friday, November 7, at 4 o'clock, by Norman Angell, is resulting in a substantial increase in the membership of the society.

Mr. Angell, who for the past 10 years has been closely associated with the men who are at the helm of Britain's ship of state, is coming to interpret the latest development of the big social movement in Europe—more particularly the effects of a labor administration upon English life and government.
