Omaha Importer Exhibits Rare Art Collection at Library for National Picture Week Observation

ILTON DARLING, Eighteenth and Farnam, has collected some rarely beautiful pictures during his last several trips abroad—treasures which many other importers have failed to obtain through lack of entree among those artistic on foreign shores. Among the exquisitries exhibited by Mr. Darling will be a collection of 18 Simon etchings in color, Parisian and French scenes, 16 in color and two in black and white. One of the limited number of copies of the etchings in soft ground is "Dens Le Costume De Musette," which took the prize in the Salon des Artistes Francais of 1923, by Raoul Serre. Two dry point etchings in color by Icart, the greatest of dry point etchers in color, and several by Hardy promise a treat to the trained eye. In the Darling collection will also be some of the best French etchings in color, Jourdain; two orientals by Serre and Latenay, and a lovely Charlet-a Dutch interior. A very unique exhibition in color by famous Belgian etchers includes 12 products by such artists as van Santen, Codron Celos and Alf van Neste. All of these etchings are made in limited editions of from 50 to 300. "Never before was an exhibition of such etchings hown in America," to quote Milton Darling, Omaha's importer.
