

Chop Suey Is American Dish, Layman Says

Presbyterian Missionary to Speak at Synod Here, October 20.

During my long residence in China I searched diligently for the delectable dish known as chop suey, but I did not discover it there.

Thus Gilbert Lovell, Presbyterian missionary, punctures the American idea that chop suey is a Chinese dish. Mr. Lovell returned to the United States on account of his ill health. He speaks at the synod of Nebraska at Omaha October 20.

"PERFECT LOVE" IS BACK AT DESK

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Frederick W. Hart, the "other man," in the now famous Hall-Quest "perfect love" case, returned to his desk in a Chicago office today pending the removal of the last obstruction to marriage to Mrs. Shirley Iva Knox Hall-Quest.

The law offices of Howard and Malcolm Baldrige offer considerable material of interest to the visitor as well as to the owners. A framed letter from President Theodore Roosevelt reads:

"I thank you for the telegram. Of the two boys whom you were with that day, one has been killed and one badly crippled in the fighting in France."

A photograph of the United States supreme court justices, showing William Howard Taft in center of the front row, bears this inscription: "Dear Mac—With best wishes. Wm. H. Taft." The former president formed several lasting friendships during his various visits to Omaha.

Another photograph is of the famous Philadelphia lawyer, Brewster, who was attorney general of the United States under President Arthur.

When Howard Baldrige was embarking on his career as a lawyer he applied at Brewster's office for a position. Learning that the applicant was a son of his old friend, Malcolm Baldrige, Brewster engaged the youth and gave him a start.

Picture Shows Notable Group. A group photograph in the office of Malcolm Baldrige shows the members of his club at Yale. One of the group is Trubee Davison, son of H. P. Davison who was head of the Morgan banks and also head of the American Red Cross.

There is an autographed photograph of Cardinal Gibbons, signed "James Card Gibbons." Howard Baldrige went to Ireland for the cardinal in connection with the Walsh estate in Nebraska.

Another photograph prized by Howard Baldwin shows a Yale-Harvard football game, attended by 90,000 people. His son, Malcolm, was in the contest.

Mayor J. C. Dahlman's office has the appearance of a small art gallery. A photograph of unusual clearness

Want a Job? Janitor or Diplomat? This Man Finds Them for Hundreds

Civil Service Board Secretary Has Been in Bureau Quarter-Century.

This man carries the title of secretary of the local civil service examination board and as such hunts up men and women who desire to enter the civil service of our government.

The secretary, A. R. Eychaner, 3326 Boyd street, has been for a quarter of a century in the government service. For five of these years he has been secretary of the examination board.

Eychaner praises the civil service. He knows that the service offers opportunities better than many private business enterprises.

"The civil service is the recruiting branch of the civil government," said Eychaner. There are many attractive features connected with this service. There is the security of employment, the retiring system and vacations.

It is the duty of the secretary to find applicants for various positions, if he knows of any. Eychaner posts up bulletins on jobs ranging from janitor to scientists.

As many as 100 men and women have made applications to Eychaner for a single position. It is his business to give them the proper information, inform them whether they possess the fact, judgment and fitness for the job they seek.

Eychaner has charge of all examinations. He holds over 1,000 examinations every year.

WOMAN AIDED SLAYING, CLAIM

Norfolk, Neb., Oct. 11.—The state has issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. John Bowers, charging her with being an accessory in the fatal wounding of Clyde Herrington, 18, by John Bowers, former Norfolk policeman and peace officer.

Herrington was shot by Bowers during a quarrel at a dance hall here several weeks ago, and died of his wounds Thursday. Bowers is held in the county jail at Madison, awaiting trial on a charge of murder.

For serving tea at the mah-jongg party there are silver tea balls of mah-jongg characters. The perforations on the sides in no way detract from the beauty of the Chinese designs.
