

Yde Requested to Appear Before Landis With Information on Baseball Scandal

Pirate Player May Furnish Some Startling Facts

Commissioner Anxious to Hear Any Information That May Clear Up Dolan-O'Connell Affair.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Published accounts of statements attributed to Emily Yde, Pittsburgh national pitcher, that "something more sensational may be sprung shortly" in connection with the baseball scandal of the New York Giants, led Baseball Commissioner Landis today to request Yde to appear before him with any information he may have.

"I am anxious to receive any information from any source which will develop whether the O'Connell-Dolan affair has been cleared up by their expulsion from baseball, or whether there are trails which lead elsewhere," said Landis, "but I have no information so far such as Yde is quoted as giving, that Sand was not the only Philadelphia player to be approached, or that any one else was involved."

"There are several probabilities in this case and I am working on them," said the commissioner, who returned to his office today after finishing up the world series details. "I welcome any such information as is attributed to Yde, or any facts that any one else can bring out, to help clear this up."

"The baseball public can feel sure that I am not concealing anything I have discovered in relation to this attempt to throw a game. I am not trying to cover up anything and I am not trying to shield anyone. But I still lack evidence that the scheme involved others than O'Connell and 'Crazy' Dolan."

"I have encountered scores of fans who still feel that there is more to the story than the attempt of O'Connell, at Dolan's instigation, to bribe Heinie Sand. If there is, I have as yet been unable to trace it, but I am still trying."

The gray-haired commissioner jumped from his chair to pace the floor and re-enact the situation when Dolan was confronted with O'Connell and the story of the attempted bribe brought out. Nothing involving any one beyond those two has been discovered, the commissioner said, but he expressed eagerness to see Yde and hear his story.

"No one was more pleased than I at the dramatic finish to the series," he said, "and the glory won by Walter Johnson in that seventh game, when the eyes of the country were upon him, after his failure in two previous games. The strain on that great veteran was reflected in the tense faces of the 35,000 spectators. I felt much the same position when, on the eve of a tremendously interesting series, this mess was laid in my lap. That I am right in the action I have taken so far, I feel confident."

Giant Outfielder Becomes Benedict

ROSS YOUNG WEDS.

Ross Young, splendid outfielder of the pennant winning New York Giants, was one baseball player who really wasn't so keen about the late lamented world's series, because it forced him to postpone his marriage to Miss Dorothy Peincke of Brooklyn, N. Y. However, when the series ended, he hurried to Brooklyn for the wedding. Here is the bridal party: Left to right are Dodd Coster, best man, Mr. and Mrs. Ross M. Young and Mrs. J. Robert Fisher, matron of honor.

FREMONT HIGH TO PLAY YORK FRIDAY

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 16.—Fremont High's undefeated grid squad will make its bid for recognition as a contender for the state interscholastic title when Coach Jimmie Johnston's proteges line up against the York High eleven here Friday afternoon. The Fremont lads barely succeeded in keeping their state clean when they played at Grand Island last week and cosed out the Queen City team by a score of 14 to 13. This will be the first time in more than 20 years that football teams of Fremont and York have met on the gridiron.

RICKARD TO MATCH FULTON, FIRPO

New York, Oct. 16.—Although watching the outcome of legal proceedings in which Luis Firpo is involved, Tex Rickard is going ahead with plans for a match at Madison Square Garden in November between Firpo and Fred Fulton, the Minnesota plasterer. The promoter is desirous of staging the contest on November 1 or 28.

Quintin Romero of Chile probably will appear on the same card with Jim Maloney of Boston as an opponent in the semi-final match.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE SAYS: Each man is entitled to his rights and the rewards of his service but they ever so large or ever so small.

RITOLA TO RETURN TO UNITED STATES

New York, Oct. 16.—Willie Ritola, Finnish-American distance runner star who scored several notable triumphs for his native land in the Paris Olympics, is returning soon to the land of his adoption. It was learned today. He intends to resume his residence here here for 10 years prior to last January.

The return of Ritola, who was rated as this country's premier long distance performer in 1922 and 1923, will add fresh interest to the coming indoor track campaign as the sturdy Finn undoubtedly will return to competition under the colors of the Finnish-American Athletic club here, with the prospect that his famous countryman, Paavo Nurmi will invade this side in quest of further laurels during the winter, they may resume the keen rivalry that marked their racing in the Olympics.

PAT M'GILL MAY WRESTLE CHAMP

Chicago, Oct. 16.—A wrestling match between "Pat" McGill, Nebraska heavyweight, and Ed (Strangler) Lewis, world's heavyweight champion, will be held here October 30, providing McGill wins his match tomorrow night with Howard Cantonwine of Iowa, promoters announced.

Robert Lincoln Lowe, from 1893 until 1898, was classed as one of the hardest hitters in the game. It was when facing such hitters as Amos Rusie, J. D. Steinfeld, Bill Hutchinson, Theodore Tilton, Cy Young, Clark Griffith, Frank Killeen and other brilliant hitters that he won recognition as a great batsman.

AT THE THEATERS

Many people have asked Dainty Marie, the perfect figured aerialist at the Orpheum this week, why it is that her wrists have not thickened and her figure grown hard and muscular through years of such strenuous work. Her answer is an odd one. "I have always liked to look at statues of beautiful women," says the aerialist, in all seriousness. "I have learned most of my poses from statues in museums. I have always visualized myself as one of those perfect women that the Greeks modeled. And I think my mind has controlled my body to such an extent that it has never grown heavy or coarse."

De Mar's five unique melody combination and Ben Nee One, world's only Chinese comedian and entertainer headline the new six-act vaudeville bill at the World tomorrow. The Rose Kress four offer one of the speediest and most attractively staged skating acts in the vaudeville. Markell and Hay, are whirlwind dancers. Art and Lucille Davids call their act "Saying It By Wire." Ed and Mae Robinson introduce a laughable melange of chatter and song.

Amateurs are a special added feature at the Empress this evening. A special added attraction will be seen on the same program in the stage debut of the "Tech Quintet," an all girl musical organization from Tech High, starting tomorrow the favorite Empress Players offer their most pretentious production, "The Western Girl."

There is one thing about the modern woman" says Ruth Rosemond, dainty dancer with the "Red Pepper Revue" company at the Gayety theater this week, "which has not changed with suffrage, and all the other advanced ideas of the sex, and that is their interest in clothes." The "Red Pepper Revue" carries on the payroll two women who do nothing but look after the sumptuous array of clothes. As Miss Rosemond says, it is proving a magnet to local women, who are attending matinee in large numbers.

"Bringing Up Father" comes to the Brandeis theater for an engaging second of three nights beginning Sunday with a Tuesday matinee. This is the 10th consecutive season of the "Bringing Up Father" series and the entire production is absolutely new every year. Irresistible girls, entrancing music, alluring dances and always a beautiful scenic production will be found with this attraction.

Stewart and French will present a dainty and amusing comedy, "Meet the Wife," with Mary Boland, Charles Dalton, Ernest Lawford, Patricia Calvert, Humphrey Bogart, Ralph

Glover and other players of unusual excellence, at the Brandeis theater, commencing next Thursday night. Lynn Starling wrote the play which was an instantaneous success and has not been presented outside of New York. Mary Boland has made of the part of Mrs. Lennox one of the most delightfully funny presentations of a modern woman who believes herself capable of governing the lives and fortunes of her family, her neighbors and all the members of the many clubs she has joined herself into.

Peck and Kolb's attraction, third in the "Hippity Hop" series, is scheduled for the Gayety theater all next week with a ladies' matinee as a daily feature. There are 22 musical numbers to please the ear and 12 gorgeous stage settings to appeal to the eye. In the cast of excellent players are Reynolds, comedian, in the featured member, while in his support are Grace Cameron, Kay Norman, Lora Carol, Lew Lewis, Duke Rogers, Lui Ring, Haik Preists, Thad DeMonico, Thelma Leonard and Kanuis Hawaiians.

Burke to Fight Rojas.

Minneapolis, Oct. 16.—Martin Burke, New Orleans heavyweight who recently defeated Fred Fulton at St. Paul, today was matched to meet Quintin Romero Rojas, heavyweight champion of Chile in a 10-round bout here on October 24.

"KID" SULLIVAN KAYOES BALLERINO

New York, Oct. 16.—Steve "Kid" Sullivan retained his junior lightweight title in a manner befitting a champion by knocking out Mike Ballerino in the fifth round last night. Ballerino was knocked down three times from rights to the jaw before the count was finished.

Auto Race Driver Killed.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 16.—Ernie Ansterberg, world famous automobile racer was killed late today on the new Charlotte speedway when he lost control of his car while trying to re-track, struck the upper rail and went over it. He died on the way to a hospital.

Ansterberg arrived here this week from Los Angeles with a number of other racers for the inaugural races at the speedway, October 25. He held the world's record for the fastest lap on a mile and a quarter board track, having made this record at Alhambra last summer. Ansterberg was married and his wife is said to be in Los Angeles.

Ed Delehanty of the Philadelphia National, two years ago, duplicated the feat, but not to the letter, for "Big Ed" didn't make his four homers in successive times at bat, but all his hits were of a tremendous character. No batter living or dead, of the old school or of the new, have been able to duplicate these records created by Delehanty and Deive of long ago.
