FIVE CENTS

Bryan Violated

State Code Law,

clares That Governor

Made False Statements

to Legislature.

desired.

procedure.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

CITY EDITION

VOL. 54-NO. 19.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1924.

CORNHUStand DOWN COLGATE, 33 TO 7

Mutz Fight Highly-Paid Ad Man Sails for England for Office Continues

Lawyer Goes to Football Game So Weary Justice Agrees to Hear Arguments Monday.

Hearing Is Tiresome

case of Mutz against Harrison.

Mutz against Harrison for the position of supreme leader of the La Follette party in the state of Nebraska; Mutz against Harrison, and both sides clawing at one another, while ist, Highest Paid Writer in the the La Follette campaign awaits the cessation of hostilities.

For three long hours in the tiny justice court this afternoon Otto Man Who Owns One" and "See Mutz, dismissed by Frank Harrison as chairman of the state central com mittee, marshaled his forces against Harrison in an effort to establish the Sugar Smugglers right of a writ of replevin which will give him the La Follette literature

He Fights On.

Mutz, whose fighting spirit remains undimmed by his many years, insisted that he is the duly elected chairman of the state central committee and cannot be deposed by Harri-

Harrison, regional director of six states, short, stubby, with a jaw that spells trouble for all who get in his path, countered with telegrams from the national La Follette headquarters at Chicago, proving to his of all he surveys at La Follette head- dollars monthly in revenue through

ed. But Mutz and his attorney, Frank Free state border.

ette's national campaign manager.

"I'm not doing this work for pay. I'm doing it because I want to see La Follette elected," Mutz shouted,

"I want that literature so that I can send it out where it will do some good, and not see it destroyed, 'Har rison countered. They were like two boys fighting to lick the stick of candy purchased in common. At last the clock hand slid around oward 5.

Why He's Working.

health."

treasurer of the headquarters, had dealers. sat uneasily on the stand for half an hour to tell the court that he en- northern officials. The driver selects University club. dorsed checks and put them in the the "unscheduled roads," which means ommon fund.

court shifted to a more comfortable open to automobile traffic. position and prepared to listen to a But there has been no confiscation short argument. But a Mutz attor- up to the present, and the smugglers ney was missing. Gone to the foot- trade goes merrily on. ball game, it was explained, with the expressed wish to Coffy to be heard LODGE DENIES and eager to bring the fight to a speedy close. A night session was suggested and vetoed.

"All right then, Monday at 9," and Justice Stevens prepared to depart. Court was closed for the night, but

Monday is another day. Partial Settlement.

As the session drew to its close, that he is, had laid plans to secure tional," according to the statement additional placards and leaflets should Mutz be victorious. against Harrison can have finis written after it. Pending the decision Mutz still has the worry of the La Follette account book, which is included in the replevined property. "I've got to make a report to the secretary under the corrupt practices act," he said plaintively.

No one could answer that puzzle and Mutz pushed his soft black hat wearily onto the back of his head and Fairbury Youth Hurt walked up the street.

Omaha's Father Dies. held in El Paso, Ill.

G. HERB PALIN MA

World," He has sailed for England to "pep" up advertising there. His most famous slogans were "Ask the

on Irish Border Make Big Profits

Use "Unscheduled" Roads and Gain $3 a Hundred Pounds on Contraband.

Dublin, Oct. 18 .- The free state satisfaction, at least, that he is lord government is losing thousands of quarters in the Funke building here.

Mutz proved what every one already knew, that he was legally elect. smugglers operating on the Ulster- $100,000

Coffy, were in court to prove it again. Scores of young Irishmen with a are now endeavoring to create before and again. Witness after witness lust for adventure are engaged in the took the stand to tell the justice of illegal traffic, it is alleged, transport ham, chairman of the endowment Mutz's selection. Harrison's witness- ing sugar from Ulster-where the committee. es were yellow telegraph blanks with cost is approximately $3 per

It was all very dreary and must heavy free state tax. The smugglers little of the endowment to be paid have been disheartening to the few are able to sell their sugar to free in cash at the present time. La Follette supporters in court, who state dealers at a handsome profit, Personal notes or any other form winced as the soiled linen was wrung while the dealers are still able to of interest-bearing negotiable paper undersell their competitors who are will be accepted by the trustees as forced to pay the free state duty part of the school's endowment. The customs department has been > almost the entire population is able terest is all we want or expect from to buy tax-free sugar. the same way. A merchant in a have to invest it.

town across the border books the orders. A store, shop or house, just to give $10,000 to the University of inside the northern frontier, is secur- Omaha endowment fund, all he need from time to time the smugglers note would be payable." cross the border, driving motor Mutz' place at the Lincoln headquar- thus avoiding customs authorities. Omaha endowment is not up to the ager E. Flynn announced. ters, had grudgingly admitted that he Arriving at his destination, the smug. $300,000 mark required by the North "wasn't doing the work for his gler dumps his load of contraband Central Association of Colleges. into another clearing house, from C. S. Lawrence, little bald-headed which it is distributed to free state be made into a note, maturing at tion, removed in the period of de-

The court was shuffling uneasily. Then C. A. Sorenson, Harrison's at-Then C. A. Sorenson, Harrison's at- ed roads," on which customs depots torney, rested. So did Corry. The have been established, are offically ator Lodge, who submitted to an oper- here today. He intends to leave ation recently, would retire before Sloux Falls tomorrow for Omaha, the expiration of his term because of where he will deliver a speech at illness, was denied today by relatives. night. The senator will be in Washington in all probability late this autumn, ac-Mutz and Coffey agreed to allow Har- cording to relatives, although at presrison to use the replevined literature, ent, the date of a second operation, which has been in the custody of a said by physicians to be necessary, Island, Ill., Tuesday night and Sparta and Murphysbero. constable since Thursday afternoon, has not been determined. This will Peoria, Ill., Wednesday night. The

And now it's Monday before Mutz FARMERS LINE UP

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18.-Indications are that Coolidge will carry Gage county. On the street here today 12 men, most of whom were farmers, Argentine round the world flyer, tocast the following vote: Coolidge, 8; day announced his decision to con-"How can Davis, 3; La Follette, 1. Gage county tinue his flight despite the fact it I make it if I haven't that account will also give McMullen a huge vote, is the most dangerous season of the many democrats lining up for him.

in Automobile Crash

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18 .- A young man named Peterson, whose home is Martin Herr, father of Mrs. J. T. at Fairbury, was badly cut and

Shenandoah ORPHANS LOSE WILL CONT Soon Starts Return Trip

Giant Airship Unable to Land at Camp Lewis Till Helium Supply Is Lessened.

Sun Prevents Descent

Oct 18.—(By Wireless to Associated Press via Camp Lewis, Wash.)—The lirigible Shenadoah is to remain until o'clock this afternoon in the vicinty of her mooring mast at Camp ewis and to start south tomorro

By International News Service. Camp Lewis, Wash., Oct. 18 .- Un neated the helium with which she is filled to such an extent that she could Shenandoah, at the end of her trans continental voyage, was hovering over the army reservation this after According to radio messages from the airship, her commander be ieves that the sun will be low enough by 4 p. m. for her to make fast at the giant mooring mast erected for

Notes, Payable at Death, to Form Endowment Fund

There Are as Good as Cash, Say Men Raising $100,000 for U. of O.-Donors to Pay Interest.

will make up a major portion of the Thomas; trustees of the University of Omaha signed by John M. Nelson, La Fol- the free state- across the border George Platner, Cuthbert Vincent and and avoiding the payment of the W. A. Gordon, say they expect very

"We would just as soon have bombarded with complaints from re- man's interest-bearing note, payable spectable dealers throughout county at death, as we would the money. and the thrust was aimed at Harri- Monaghan, on the border, where Mr. Graham said, "because the inan endowment fund. If we got the The smugglers usually proceed in money instead of the note we would to do is to pay the interest on $10,000 The sugar is deposited here, and until his death, at which time his death, was agreed upon by the en-There is no interference by the downent committee Saturday at the

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 18 .- Determined to devote the last two weeks branches. of the campaign to a swing through instead of making a trip to the Pa- of the Omaha payroll by about cific coast, Senator Robert M. La $168,000 annually. HE WILL RETIRE Follette, independent presidential candidate, with no speaking engage ment scheduled for tonight, rested BRYAN LEAVES

FOR COOLIDGE ZANNI SAYS HE

By International News Service. Toklo, Oct. 18 .- Major Zanni, year. He is chartering steamers to patrol his flight across the seas and plans to hop off as soon as his plans to hop off as soon as his Hernica Sweet Indianapolis.

Patrolling arrangements are comLacey Louisa Neison Omaha

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE SAYS: I do not favor a corporation Gov- William Oscar Johnston, Omsha Paulina Dycus, Omaha 2924 North Fifty-eighth bruised in an auto accident west of ernment, a bank Government, a farm Pickard, 2924 North Fifty-eighth bruised in an auto accident west of eriment, a bank Government, a farm Clyde L. Gebild. University Place. Neb. day. Mrs. Pickard is accompanying whe nhis machine crashed into anthe body east. The funeral will be other car. He was brought to a hosement by all the people according to Hazel Arlons Glover Omaha.

it was learned here today.

Four daughter, one of whom is the daughters were cut off with bu

Heads Plan Drive

tablished as Means of Reducing Accidents.

mercial vehicle drivers will be held, starting November 3, and each Monday night until December 8, in the ity hall council chamber H. A. Adams, president, and the bright end.

xecutive committee of the council ittee chairmen are:

Leon O. Smith; parochial schools, Rev. plies. Thomas C. B. Healy; junior safety ouncils, T. B. Coleman. Publicity-Charles R. Docherty

Traffie Planning-I. Shuler

Speakers and Sophus Neble, jr.

ings, H. G. Venemann; industrial safety schools, K. R. MacKinnon,

Membership-The executive com-

BURLINGTON ADDS

Trustees say students of the school men to the mechanical department R. S. Lewis, secretary of the state trucks, load up and sneak back into are frequently embarrassed in getting of the Omaha and South Omaha central committee who has taken the free state by little-used roads, positions because the University of terminals Saturday, General Man-Ten days ago this road also added

A form of pledge card which can mechanic and his entire organiza-"Our business in the terminals is

> Mr. Flynn. "Grain loading is running about 350 cars a day in Ne braska and we are hauling two full trains of grain into Omaha daily. "Stock business has been very from the sndhill country and from

"Roughly figuring, the increased the middle west and eastern states, force mentioned means an increase

Lincoln, Oct. 18 .- Governor Charles W. Bryan, democratic vice presiden From Omaha instead of swinging tial candidate left for southern Illi-Bryan will go first to St. Louis, Farnam streets.

one speech a day during the final Illinois. He will not touch his nature of two weeks of the campaign.

The final Illinois. He will not touch his nature of the campaign.

The final Illinois of the campaign of the campaign.

The final Illinois of the campaign of the camp tive town of Salem. Tuesday also will find Governor Bryan in Illinois, speeches being Big Crowd Hears Mrs.

scheduled for Benton, Fairfield and Married in Council Bluffs.

valued at $30,000, the bulk of wnich vas left to the Lutheran Orphanage in Fremont, and one son, was set aside in the county court at Neligh

Mrs. O. B. Wilson of Fremont, contested the will after most of the estate was left to the orphanage and the son die without leaving dependents, the balance of the son's share should go to the orphanage. The court found that the father was incompetent at the time of making the

Safety Council to Raise $10.000

ble to moor because the sunlight School for Motorists to Be Es-we announced the appointment of ne standing committees and chair. When the road from Omaha to nan of the organization. The com-Statistics-J. W. Hughes, chairman. Children's Activities-Public schools, portation of air mail and army sup-

Personal notes, payable at death. Hughes; posters and bulletins, M. E.

motion pictures, Harry Motor Transportation - Howard cratic candidate for president, de-Goulding; operations, R. A. Leussler; clared that "unless all the signs of

Steam Railroads-N. C. Allen. Women's Committees-Mrs. Philip

Churches-Rev. E. B. Whitcomb. Fire Prevention-E. Sterling Free-

20 men and restored the master went on record as favoring the con- ernor promised would be total exoffice pending the consideration of a was a candidate two years ago. The for him to approve all quarterly estiremonstrance now before that body. present law dealing with raising mates where no funds existed or, as end and clipped off eight increasing by leaps and bounds," said three-day hearing on the legality of for collection of only $5,000,000 names on the remenstrating petition son, county chairman, was in charge resulted in the near deadlock in the of the meeting, which was held in tempting to distort the facts, any taxarguments over the validity of the Hartington's new and commodious payer can verify these statements by until he was safely on the faheavy, a considerable part coming names of signers. Farmers opposed want the matter to go before the paign in the First congressional dis-whether or not the petition of remon-

FOR ILLINOIS TOUR VICTIM OF CRASH

Clarence Kenny brought suit in weeks.

Grinstead and Howell M. Wilneim, direction, and others. aver City, Neb., Oct. 18.-Mcs. Wednesday and Thursday will be Minnle J. Grinstead of Liberal, Kan., devoted to Ohio and Frie and Sat and Senator R. B. Howell addressed ALUMNI GATHER

urday will also be spent in a tour of a large meeting in the city park this afternoon. The attendance was made up of many farmers and women. Mrs. Grinstead, who seconded the nomination of President Coolidge at ing homecoming day, hundreds of Cleveland, spoke of him as safe and graduates of the University of Ne sound. She sald that La Follette braska were in town. The Colgate should be opposed by all good citi- Nebraska game was one of the atzens Senutor Howell made a plea tractions. Sorority and fraternity for agriculture. Mr. Howell said he houses were gally decorated with red 64 is sme that Coolidge, McMullen and and white bunting and ribbon, corn-Norris will carry the state.

Wed by Savidge-Rev. Charles W. signs. Savidge officiated at the marriage of Miss Pauline Dyous and William car Johnston Saturday morning in Council Bluffs. They were accompanied by Mrs. Edith Humes.

Gravel Road to Fort Crook to Be Ready in December

Makes Address

Roads and Capitol Building Important Problems to Be Solved.

A good roads program.

to Railroad Men

new Bellevue-Fort Crook ad, is shown, center, at his transit in the first stens for setting grade stakes for the gravel road which will ection of the road last week, and two large tractors, at right, are in operation to hasten the work before old weather.

the road are Will Gow of Bellevue left, and Charles Whetstone, right with surveyor's rod. First half mile of the new road will be of brick and the remainder of deep. Adam McMullen pleted by December 10. The road has been closed to traffic at the Al The road from Bellevue to Fort Crook has already been graveled. Bellevue is completed there will be a gravel road from Omaha to Fort

Crook that will aid in the rapid trans-

Urges Business Legislature-DEMOCRATS NOW UNITED, SAYS DAVIS

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18 .- In East St. school for drivers, A. T. Hupp; pothe times are playing false, there is ed his week of campaigning with a lice committee, Capt. George Allen. no possibility of the election this year speech at South Sioux City, Neb., to of a republican congress and a republa group of railroad men. During the

"And if there were," he said, "you len and Ponca, would find repeated in both those In his speeches today, Mr. McMui-Potter; playgrounds, Mrs. W. E. Bolin. cial, the same sorry spectacle of party the legislature. He stressed the fact Johnson's letter. "Governor Bryan's Huskers were on his back. Industrial—W. J. Brazell; managers' division and party impotence that has meetings, E. E. Judd; plant service, rendered this country rudderless and important questions would be those committee claimed that the federal leaderless for the last three and one of business and not political conduct.

half years. "I suggest to the American people." ernment acting in harmony, in uni- legislature, as outlined by Mr. Mc formity and in unison. There is but Mullen, follow: one party today that stands for the American people harmonious and un-

TO SHOP FORCE BOARD UPHOLDS

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 17.—The Dodge Bryan new admits will cost $7,000,000 code law, section 7282 relating to chalked up a pair of touchdowns in county board of supervisors virtually instead of $5,000,000, which the gov-quarterly estimates. tinuance of the county farm agent's penditures for this activity when he create a deficit it has been necessary downs in the fourth period, scored

The presence of many women's duced Mr. McMullen. Elmer Robin-voters at the coming election. trict. On Thursday he will be joined The supervisors must decide by Senator R. B. Howell.

strance bears the legal number of GOOD ROADS MEET IS PLANNED HERE should be made to a Tentative plans were made Satur-

westward as he had planned, he will nois, where on Monday he will open district court Saturday morning for W. H. Blakeman of Norfolk, presi-turn eastward under a decision an- his campaign east of the Mississippi $10,000 for injuries received recently dent of the Nebraska Good Roads asturn eastward under a decision and his campaign east of the Mississippi stood to the Mississippi Sixteenth street between Harney and ference with Assistant Commissioner late in August, and were married, the field. Before Colgate knew what constable since Thursday afternoon, has not been determined. This will go first to St. Louis, and others here. It is planned to the following morning and the Market phone exchange, where had happened the "fastest human" in the following morning and store at 714 Pierce street, which is have a public meeting at which a she is an overator and following morning and store at 714 Pierce street, which is be a minor matter, it is said. Sens remainder of the itinerary was not arriving there Sunday morning and the Lodge's doctors say "his progress made public but it was said the Wis- leaving the following morning on a store at 714 Pierce street, which is have a public meeting at which a she is an operator, and for more than behind his own goal line. The Husktor Lodge's doctors say his progress made public but it was said the will leaving the following morning on a state at the said the will be sai

Next week Mr. McMullen will cam-

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 18 .- Today be-stalks for the "Cornhuskers" and with "Hello Colgate" and "Welcome Grads"

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE SAYS: If knowledge be wrongly used, civi-

Easterners Completely Outplayed

Nebraska Wrecks Aerial At tack of Visitors; Only Four of Their 20 Passes Are Completed.

Locke Makes Prize Play

By RALPH WAGNER.

two in the game of football here of Nebraska Cornhuskers walloped the Colgate gridsters from Hamilton N. Y., by the score of 33 to 7 A large crowd, although not as large as the one that attended the Nebraska-Illinois contest, saw the came from the stands, and was well epaid. The Huskers, still smarting inder the defeat handed them by the their spite out on Colgate. Nebraska was master of the situaion from the start. The easterners threw a scare into the Huskers soon after the fourth quarter started, but was a short-lived affair, although t did result in the lone touchdown

Passes Feature Game.

Forward passing played the major part in Nebraska's big intersectional Five Husker touchdowns were the results of passing, either on the part of the Nebraskans or Colgate. The Cornhuskers, who appeared woefully weak against Illinois here wo weeks ago, presented a new front in the aerial defense game and grounded pass after pass of the Former State Engineer De-Nebraska scored two touchdowns and a safety in the second quarter, and right then and there sewed up the victory. The first Husker touch. down came when the lanky Collins, left wing man, stuck his hands in the air and intercepted a pass from Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 18 .- George E. Morgan that was supposed to go to Johnson of Lincoln, former secretary Tryon and raced 60 yards for touchdown. The kick failed. A lit-Sloux City, Ia., Oct. 18 .- Adam Mc- of the state highway department, an-Mullen, candidate for governor, end- swering Governor Charles Bryan's re. the later Wostoupal, Nebraska husky day he spoke at Coleridge, Dixon, Allen and Ponca deficit in the road fund, had he so and Wostoupal bounced upon the bodies as soon as they were called len urged Nebraska voters to send work on these contracts after he took. Tryon recovered the ball, but before into session, either regular or spe- business men, and not politicians, to office, January 1, 1923," says Mr. he could regain his feet, a squad of Rhodes Plows Through, government would not allow a change other pass, Bloodgood to "Choppy"

He pointed to three important legis in the contracts. An assistant engi- Rhodes, that traveled 12 yards, lative subjects with which the legis-neer of construction for the federal turned into a touchdown when the he said, "that there is but one avenue lature must deal this winter, each of government stated before the com- latter plowed his way through the through which you may secure for which, he declared, required business mittee that the federal highway de entire Colgate eleven for a score, gothe next quadrennial period, a gov judgment. The problems facing the partment would not object to such ing 35 yards for the six points. Again the kick failed. "The essential facts are that Gov- The third Nebraska score came

> Decision on handling the problem which is less than 7 per cent of his order to make a tentative showing touchdown, concerning continuation of building claim of a $4,000,000 deficit, Governor early in the final quarter and scored Coignte showed a flash of speed of new state house, which Governor Bryan has been forced to violate the a touchdown. The Huskers also Colgate, after reeling off five first money for the state house provides both governor and secretary of the a score. He kicked his or three-day hearing on the legality of for collection of only $5,000,000.

names on petitions submitted and a Last night a mass meeting was held proceeded with work without the approceeded with work without the approximation of the second state of the proving quarterly estimates; either of ball and ran 71 yards for a which is in violation of the code law. down. The Husker ran a prett > the code in the 1922 compiled statutes.

SUES FOR $10,000 day for a good roads rally to be HONEYMOON TRIP

secret.

Complete arrangements for the week by Ellis, F. L. Nesbit and C. their friends, however, when they do with them when they presented M. Wilhelm, directors of the associa- left for Chicago Friday evening. and Mrs. Carl Dorman, 3713 South in weight, but Colgate lacked the for-Twenty-eighth street.

The Weather

Relative humidity, percentage: 7 a. m ..

Oklahoma Sooners last week, took scored by the "shaving soap" ma

Johnson Asserts

leather, but the ball slipped out from ernor Bryan made false statements soon after the third quarter started Decision as to how road building to the legislature and since that time when Bloodgood went over for a should be paid for, whether by a gaso has done everything he possibly could touchdown, after returning a punt

Just before the period ended an-to bring about a condition that would 25 yards. The easterners broke the farm and other property for this tend to prove these statements. In through and blocked the try after the last quarter.

> examining the proposal section of of the goal line, Captain any road contract in his county kicked the goal, the first and o clerk's office and by reading section one the Huskers were successful in 7282 and the preceding sections of kicking all afterno Locke Also Here. The fifth Nebraska touchdown be-"I will say that the governor has longs to Roland Locke. It was the violated the laws of the state and prize play of the day, and was one should be made to answer to the pub- of the many instances when the west showed the east a thing or two in football. Locke intercepted a pass from Tryon and for a minute stood

REVEALS WEDDING The umpire had called Colgate off side, but Captain Weir of Nebraska C. Miller and Miss E. Dorman refused the penalty and then Locke Ellis of the Chamber of Commerce Mrs. Miller returned to her work at had happened the "fastest human" in

The couple were no longer able to Nebraska got the "breaks" of the good roads meeting will be made this keep their marriage a secret from game, but the Huskers knew what to themselves. Colgate didn't. The east-Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. erners and Huskers were about even ward wall that could stop the plowing The Millers will be at home at 2546 Nebraska backs. Many times the South Ninth street, after November 1. Cornhusker backs broke through for gains.

To Eddie Tryon, Colgate backfield player, belongs the credit due Colgate. He proved without a doubt today that larger score. It was this Courate player who was in most every play. He gained the most ground for his team, and when given the defense he got his punts off for long rides through the ozone.

Nebraska looked much better s against Colgate than it did against (Turn to Page Two, Section The.)