

Churchill Guest at Flying Meet

Will Represent Newly-Formed Reserve Flying Club.

Major Lawrence S. Churchill, head of the Seventh corps area army service and advisory governor of Omaha's newly formed reserve officers' flying club, will represent that organization at the air carnival to be held at Pultizer field, north end of Florence boulevard, Saturday and Sunday. He will be the guest of Ray Page, head of the Lincoln Standard Aircraft corporation, who is staging the affair in the interests of commercial aviation. The major's visit will include a trip over Omaha in one of the five-passenger planes which will be on the field.

Members of the local flying club have been asked to attend the meet. Several of the pilots who are scheduled to perform stunt flying over Omaha Saturday and Sunday were with the United States army air squadron during the world war.

SCHOOL TEACHER DIES FROM ATTACK

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 17.—With the death tonight of Miss Molly Fleming, 23-year-old school teacher of Conkling, who died from injuries suffered when she was attacked and beaten over the head with an ax in a wood shed in the rear of her school house today, police have redoubled their efforts to locate Ebert "Happy" Dyke, an alleged rejected suitor, who is wanted in connection with the slaying.

TONG FIGHTERS TO PARLEY ON PEACE

Rev. Savidge Rides Airplane---Glad He's a Christian.

First bird's-eye view. A little farther on, he felt he must rise up to see if the pilot was still in his seat. "The Apostle Peter," he called Pete Hill, veteran pilot. Gradually the set took shape as the Rev. Charles W. Savidge peered from his face, and his old merry grin showed up. Then came a wink, and he other passengers knew that the Rev. Charles Savidge becomes a real "sky pilot." The other pilot is Pete Hill of Arkansas City, Kan., eight years in the game, civilian instructor in the army during the war. "Apostle Peter," says the Omaha preacher, "I will stay with you."

A glide, a slight bump, a swoop, and the feeling of the earth dropping away underneath and then—"I'm glad I'm a Christian," the Rev. Charles W. Savidge yelled to the other passengers in the L. S. 5, passenger plane going up on Pultizer field.

For the pastor took his first airplane ride Saturday afternoon. His becoming helmet fastened firmly under his chin, his hands clutching the sides of the seat until his knuckles were white, his moustache turning up at the ends with the thrill of it, he sailed over Omaha and saw his well known city from an entirely new point of view.

"I've seen the worm's eye view for 40 years," he said, "but this is my

Fred J. Sullivan Hits Back at Man Who Rapped Coolidge.

Fred J. Sullivan, former vice president of Omaha Typographical Union No. 190, has attacked an article appearing in a morning newspaper which was signed "Printer" and which ridiculed union men for aligning themselves with Coolidge and Dawes.

Mr. Sullivan's reply follows: "In a morning newspaper (October 15) a contributor signing himself 'Printer' attempts to ridicule the few members of his craft who align themselves with Coolidge and Dawes as the proper men to lead the greatest country in all the world! May I state why I wish to follow these, to my notion, god leaders?"

"On Tuesday, October 7, Victor Berger addressed a meeting at the Swedish auditorium in Omaha. In 1917 Victor Berger was elected a delegate to the printers' convention, held in Scranton, Pa. At that time, when the United States of America needed real men within its confines, we did not appeal to the advice or influence of such men as Victor Berger or La Follette or any of their ilk. I attended the Berger meeting out of curiosity more than anything else, but after hearing a man with a foreign accent ridicule the founders of the great American nation—I refer to his attack on Alexander Hamilton—and seeing a union printer passing the hat for the forthcoming meeting to be held by La Follette in Omaha, my blood started to boil. Victor Berger, a man whom the printer abhorred in 1917, now their savior! There may be only six union printers in the city of Omaha who are for Coolidge and Dawes (and this statement is as ridiculous as the person signing himself printer), but if such is the case the printers will have to relinquish the compliment paid to them in the not far distant past as 'the most intelligent union body on the North American continent'."

"How he to sign my name, and to be proud of the privilege. "FRED J. SULLIVAN, "Former Vice President of Omaha Typographical Union No. 190."

Woman Is Named Sheriff at Canterbury, England

Canterbury, Eng., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Lucy Wells, the wife of a Canterbury tailor, has the distinction of being the only woman in England to hold the ancient office of sheriff.

It is one of the historic privileges of Canterbury to appoint its own sheriff. Mrs. Wells, a member of the city council for some years, was elected to the position.

"My chief duty," she said, "is to appear with the mayor and councillors on special occasions wearing my purple robe, with the silver chain of office round my neck. "Nowadays the under-sheriff is responsible for most of the actual work connected with the office, but there are still certain functions I perform. If a Canterbury man had to be hanged, for instance, I believe I should have to sign the document certifying that the execution had been properly carried out."

Brandege Services.

New London, Conn., Oct. 17.—Funeral services for the late Senator Frank B. Brandege were held here following the arrival of the body from Washington accompanied by a congressional delegation.

Fairbury.—Forty Red Cross boxes will be filled by the pupils of the schools of Jefferson county for Christmas distribution to the children of foreign countries. The boxes will be shipped from New York no later than October 25.

Rev. Savidge was the guest of Ray Page, head of the Lincoln Standard Aircraft corporation, who is staging the air carnival.

Stunt Man Produces Thrills. The crowd was furnished another thrill when Ralph Parcutt successfully landed from a 40-foot rope slung from the gear of a flying plane.

Parcutt slid about 50 feet on his back after hitting the ground, while the plane swerved upward and away. Wing walking and stunt flying were among other attractions.

The carnival program will be presented again this afternoon at Pultizer field at the end of Florence boulevard. Passengers are taken over the city during the afternoon.

Rev. Savidge will preach at the People's church this morning on his flight into the air.

"And he rode upon the wings of the wind," is his text, from Psalms, 18:10.

"That means God took the first airplane ride," he explains, "and if God set the good example, why should I hesitate to follow it?"

SOME NEW SIGNS OF TRADE EXPANSION

New York, Oct. 17.—Dun's tomorrow will say: "Some new signs of expansion, both in domestic and overseas commerce, have appeared. Despite the handicap of price unsettlement, American consumption of exports and of that staple have attained the largest volumes in nine months. Similarly the value of general merchandise shipments has reached the highest point of the present year, while foreign trade prospects have been further strengthened by the successful placing of the German loan. Although a full response to constructive forces is still lacking the main trend is toward revival of business and all of the principal statistical measures show that the fall season has brought a definite improvement in conditions. Recent mild weather, following the low temperature of September, has temporarily checked retail demand but has been favorable to crop harvesting and the larger buying power in agricultural sections is reflected in the more optimistic reports from the west and northwest."

Weekly bank clearings $7,255,039,000.

SCHOOL REPORT UNFAIR, CLAIM

W. E. Reed, president of the Omaha board of education, declared last night that the report of a joint committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Real Estate board into conditions of the city schools was highly exaggerated.

He said that the committee looked into the schools during vacation time, when the buildings were closed, and that the report was unfair. He declined to comment further on the survey.

Man Faces Second Trial on Charge of Wife Slaying

Sigourney, Ia., Oct. 17.—L. O. Flory, convicted a year ago for the death of his wife, will come to trial a second time October 27.

Flory was arrested several weeks after the death of his wife in March, 1923. He entered a plea of not guilty but was convicted by a jury after a comparatively short trial.

An appeal was granted and the supreme court reversed the decision of the lower court and ordered a new trial.

The man is accused of having poisoned his wife to obtain a $5,000 insurance policy of which he was beneficiary.

Union Printer Boosts for G. O. P.

Join the Union Labor Coolidge-Dawes Club, His Plea.

Fred Sullivan, active in the printers' union and organized labor, issued a statement today in which he appealed to union men to join the Union Labor Coolidge-Dawes club.

It is the biggest republican Coolidge-Dawes club ever organized in Omaha and it is growing bigger every day," said Sullivan.

Mr. Sullivan, formerly a democrat, is the secretary of the club.

His signed statement follows: "I had a curiosity to hear Victor Berger when he spoke at the Swedish auditorium recently. In his speech he attacked Alexander Hamilton and was applauded by members of organized labor in attendance. It made my blood boil. On Friday evening, October 10, I was reading about the baseball game in the world series and in a little paragraph on the first page I saw an item stating there was to be a meeting of union men to organize a Coolidge-Dawes club. I said to my wife: 'Minnie, you must take me down to this meeting. I want to show Victor Berger what I think of his attack on one of the founders of our country by joining a Union Labor Coolidge-Dawes club.' Mrs. Sullivan was washing the supper dishes at the time and did not want to stop in her house work to take me anywhere, but finally consented to take me to the meeting."

"Uninvited, I broke in, as it were. My name was the 69th on the roll. I am informed that this is the largest union labor republican club ever organized in Omaha. Union men have been joining every day since it was organized. We now have headquarters at Sixteenth and Capitol avenue, in the Crouse block. All union men and women who are affiliated with the republican party, or who desire to become affiliated with it, are hereby tendered an invitation to join the Coolidge-Dawes Republican club, thereby aiding all workers to maintain the present wage and working conditions in Nebraska and the United States. Come in and sign up. Each name will add to the influence and prestige of the club. Join the largest union labor republican club ever organized in Omaha."

FRED J. SULLIVAN, Secretary, Sixteenth and Capitol avenue.

JUDGE RULES ON CHINESE BRIDES

Boston, May 17.—Chinese wives of American citizens have the right to enter the United States, Judge James A. Lowell ruled in United States district court late today in vacating a detention and deportation order issued against the Chinese bride brought to America by Sig Lim, a merchant in Norwich, Conn.

Lim, born in the United States, recently went to China and brought back Chiu Shea as his wife. Lim was admitted at once upon arrival, but the young wife was detained and later ordered deported.

Judge Lowell held that the new immigration act of 1924, under which the authorities here barred the woman, does not bar the wife of any American citizen, just because that citizen is of Chinese extraction. Mrs. Lim was accordingly ordered admitted.

The decision, it was said, will effect thousands of citizens in the United States.

BOYS ARRESTED IN RAIL YARDS

Clifton Lewis, 20, 1329 Avenue L; George Pruett, 18, 1510 Avenue N; and George Fales, 18, 1608 Avenue L, were all arraigned in municipal court this morning. There was no charge against the boys. G. A. Robinson, special agent for the Chicago & Northwestern railway, had arrested them as an example to others who have been loitering in the railroad yards.

After lecturing the boys Judge J. L. Blanchard dismissed them.

War on Speeders Brings Charges

Chicago, Oct. 18.—An automobile speed of 32 miles an hour is not unreasonable, according to Chief Justice Harry Olsen of the municipal court, whose stand is in conflict with the view of Chief Morgan Collins that the law provides a limit of 20 miles.

Judge Olsen contends it is the duty of judges to discharge those going more than 20 miles if it is shown the speed was not unreasonable. The police chief, whose campaign against speeders is resulting in average daily arrests of 250, charges the judiciary with playing politics in discharging prisoners or imposing small fines. The average speed of those arrested is about 33 miles an hour, he says.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Francis Cien, chemical plant employe here, is a staunch democrat. His wife is an ardent republican.

Newspaper May Get Sraver Prize

Democratic Organ Reveals Suppressed Facts on Boston Cops' Strike.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The Boston Post, a democratic newspaper which is supporting President Coolidge, has made a claim for the $1,000 reward offered by Chairman Shaver of the democratic national committee "to anyone who will prove one material fact was suppressed in the democratic committee version of Calvin Coolidge's action in the Boston police strike."

The Post was quoted in a statement today by the republican national committee as offering to prove that "the democratic statement suppressed not one, but several material facts."

One of those facts, it was added was the day before the police went out, Governor Coolidge called Mayor Peters into conference and "was willing to assume authority, but the mayor was not willing to allow it to pass from him."

BOOZE SHIPMENT IS CONFISCATED

A large shipment of alcohol was intercepted by Robert Samardick, federal prohibition agent, and Vanous Friday night at the Union station.

The alcohol was consigned by the Universal Car Loading and Distributing company of Chicago to several fictitious addresses in Omaha.

The shipment was composed of 12 barrels of 50 gallons each. Each barrel was crated and labeled "auto accessories."

No arrests were made. Shortly after confiscating the alcohol the officers found Tony Sesto, 4555 North Thirty-sixth avenue, driving an automobile containing 40 gallons of liquor. Tony was arrested on a charge of illegal possession and transportation of liquor. He was near Thirteenth and Leavenworth streets at the time of his arrest.
