

Strikers Found Entitled to Jury

U. S. Supreme Court Holds Shopmen Were Under Clayton Act.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Railroad employees who joined the shopmen's strike of 1922 were entitled to jury trial when charged with contempt of court, it was held today by the supreme court.

That part of the Clayton act which provided that employees may demand a trial by jury was declared by the court to be constitutional and valid. The relationship of employer and employee does not cease, the court held, when a workman goes on strike and the provisions of the Clayton act for protection of the employer therefore apply under such circumstances.

The question had been brought before the court by Sam Michaelson and others who had been employed by the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha Railway company and who claimed that under the Clayton act they were entitled to a trial by jury.

District Court Reversed.
The federal district court for western Wisconsin held and the seventh circuit court of appeals declared that part of the Clayton act which provided for trial by jury unconstitutional and found that the men had lost their standing as employees of the railroad when they went on strike and therefore were not within the provision of the Clayton act, which applied only to employees.

During the strike the federal district court for western Wisconsin issued a temporary injunction restricting picketing upon the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha railway to one representative of the strikers at each point of ingress and egress. Shortly thereafter the railroad complained that the terms of the injunction were not being observed by the strikers and sought to have them punished for contempt.

Jury Trials Denied.
Michaelson and his associates were brought into court, denied jury trial and sentenced for contempt. Another case of a workman arrested for contempt in connection with a strike was disposed of by the court.

S. C. Sandefer was convicted of contempt in a federal district court in Kentucky on the charge that he had violated its order with respect to the use and threats of violence in connection with the Canoe Creek Coal company. He demanded a trial by jury but it was refused.

The sixth circuit court of appeals asked instructions of the supreme court as to whether the Clayton act providing for jury trials in contempt cases imposed a validation upon the inherent judicial power of federal courts to punish for contempt. That question, the supreme court today answered in the affirmative.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Counsel for representatives of the railroad brotherhood chiefs today filed in United States district court a petition for dismissal of the railroad labor board's contempt charges against some of the brotherhood chiefs, in connection with their refusal to testify in the western railroad's wage hearing.

Donald R. Richberg, the attorney, filed the motion in the cases of President D. B. Robertson, chief of firemen, and J. McGuire, chairman of the engineers on the Chicago & North-western railroad.

Arguments on the petition were set for tomorrow before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

SEAPLANE USED IN SEARCH FOR BODY

Honolulu, Oct. 20.—Naval seaplanes were dispatched to Walaeo beach yesterday to search for the body of William T. Cardon, United States attorney for Hawaii, who was drowned while swimming with John C. Daly, Department of Justice agent from Washington. Daly saw his companion caught in the undertow and carried out to sea.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. (Adv.)

LUTHERANS TALK OF WAR, JAZZ AGE

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The question whether war is ever just, whether operatic music may be played in church or hymns of the "jazz age" sung there, and what to do about week-day religious education, will occupy much of the biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church in America, which opened here today.

It is anticipated that the convention will not endorse the reading of the Bible in the public schools, but that a different program, hitherto untried in this country, will be proposed.

This meeting, it was stated, would be held at Brussels October 27 instead of at Paris, as originally intended.

Slates Formed in School Race

36 Candidates File for Six Board Positions to Be Filled Nov. 4.

The $2,500,000 school district bond proposition to be submitted to the voters on November 4 and the prospect of an extensive school building program during the next few years has moved various interests to take a keen interest in the election of six members to the school board.

A group of architects is interested in the candidacies of Alfred C. Munger, Dr. P. T. Barber, Dr. H. von Schulte, Mary B. Levings and John U. Loomis. Another candidate will be added. Endorsement of these candidates will be proposed at a meeting of the local chapter of architects in Aquila Club Tuesday night.

The architects behind this group of candidates do not wish the idea to go out that this is an "architects' ticket," lest people might think that the architects had a thought of future business with the school board.

That is not the case, according to Harry Lawrie, architect, who explained: "We are just endeavoring to elect good men to the school board. I believe the dentists may support the same group of candidates."

The North Omaha Activities association is supporting Charles A. Granden, Guy D. Taylor and Louis Nelson. "The Economy Six" is the name of a slate comprising Charles S. Nye, Karl Kehm, Guy D. Taylor, Frank J. Riha, Dr. Fred W. Faulk and Hazel R. Dunbar. This is also known as the "improvement club slate."

THIRTY-TWO SEEK POSITIONS.

Thirty-two candidates have filed at the election commissioner's office for the six memberships. The list follows:

C. V. Warfield, Louis Nelson and Dr. J. H. Wallace, now serving as members of the board; Frank Myers, Frank J. Riha, Charles A. Granden, Leo J. Crosby, Charles S. Nye, Alfred C. Munger, Alice A. Holtman, William A. Haberstoh, P. T. Barber, R. L. Beveridge, Percy E. Gwynne, Lawrence J. Helm, Russell Taylor, H. von W. Schulte, Hazel R. Dunbar, R. M. Switzer, John W. Lovgren, William C. Gardner, H. A. Foster, C. E. H. Timme, Guy D. Taylor, F. W. Faulk, Karl Kehm, Gorton Roth, David D. Gressler, John Albert Williams, Harlean C. Fetters, Mary B. Levings and John U. Loomis.

Butler Sure of Alliance Scheme

G. O. P. Chairman Charges Democrat-La Follette Combine in Some States.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Conferences with "some 150 state and district leaders" during the past week have convinced Chairman William M. Butler of the republican national committee of the "open alliance" between the democratic and third party leaders in certain states, Butler declared in a statement today.

"The open alliance," Butler's statement said, "of the democratic and third party leaders in certain states to throw the election into congress and thus deprive the voters of their right to elect a president at the polls, has stiffened the determination to block this plan by voting for Calvin Coolidge."

"The program of the third party for the destruction of the constitution, the virtual abolition of the supreme court, and the public ownership of railroads, has aroused the people to the gravity of this election and the importance particularly of their individual votes."

"The nation-wide confidence in Calvin Coolidge and the resultant determination to vote for him continues to be one of the most impressive features of this campaign. We have profited by the character of the issues which our opponents have introduced and the campaigning methods which they have employed."

"Our opponents are apparently not altogether happy over the situation. We already are experiencing their back fires and I anticipate that the next two weeks will find the air thick with charges, accusations and misrepresentations aimed to divert the public attention from the real issues."

"LENINGRAD" OFF SYMPHONY BILL

Boston, Oct. 30.—Complaints made to trustees of the Boston symphony orchestra over the use of the name Leningrad instead of St. Petersburg or Petrograd in programs of the orchestra will result in having the soviet name for the Russian capital of imperial days eliminated from orchestra printing, it is stated.

Serge Koussouzevitz, Russian director of the orchestra, today disclaimed responsibility for use of the name. "I would be the last to wish to honor Lenin and Trotsky," he said. "I have left my country because of them. I had a fortune of more than $1,000,000 in your money and it is gone. They took it from me. I could not understand why the capital city of my country should be called Leningrad in the programs of our orchestra."

Get Out and Vote!

THREE wards have already been practically completed by the Get-Out-the-Vote committee of women in the house-to-house canvass, it was reported Monday at headquarters in the court-house.

Effects are seen in the election commissioner's office where more than 1,100 registered Saturday. "One hundred Per Cent Registered" cards will be ready Tuesday to be placed in the windows of firms and homes where all the men and women are registered to vote. Thompson-Belden Co. and Thomas Kilpatrick Co. are the first two large firms to qualify for these cards.

The election commissioner's office, main floor of the courthouse, will be open daily from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. up to and including next Friday which is the last day on which registrations can be made for the coming election. Early in the morning is the best time to register to avoid the crowds.

Heart Balm Suit Asks for $25,000

Union Pacific Clerk Says John C. Pollock Broke Plighted Troth.

John C. Pollock, formerly of Omaha, now chief clerk in the Union Pacific passenger department office, Chicago, was sued for $25,000 for breach of promise of marriage by Carrie Y. Miller, 30, a Union Pacific clerk.

The suit, filed in district court Monday, charges that when both were clerks in the Union Pacific headquarters in 1915 they began going together and that on November 6, 1918, he proposed and she accepted. It was agreed, she says, that they would not marry as long as his aged mother lived.

She says he gave her an engagement ring in 1922. A year ago he was promoted to the Chicago position. His mother died last March. And on July 5, she says, he notified her that he would not marry her. She says she has become sick, nervous and miserable because of his alleged actions.

Campaign Query Goes to Capital

Borah Committee to Investigate Butler Statement on La Follette Fund.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Because of the inability of Joseph R. Grundy and other witnesses from Philadelphia to reach Washington until Wednesday, the special senate investigating committee will take up tomorrow campaign expenditures by the democratic national committee.

Clem L. Shaver, chairman, and James W. Gerard, treasurer, of the democratic committee, have been asked to be present when the hearings, begun at Chicago last week, are resumed here tomorrow. They will be expected to present figures covering the period from the inception of the campaign to about the middle of this month, and will be requested to make further reports later as of October 20, October 25 and November 1. A promise to furnish similar reports have been made by officials of the republican and independent organizations.

Taking cognizance of the statement issued last night by Chairman Butler of the republican national committee that the La Follette supporters in Wisconsin are undertaking to raise a fund of $500,000 in that state, Senator Borah said he would telegraph Governor Blaine for a statement of the facts. If the republican national committee officers insist that this question be taken up through witnesses the committee very likely will summon a number of persons from Wisconsin.
