

Tech Grid Lineup Loses Provost as Result of Injury

First Year Man Who Earned Place as Tackle, Out of Game for Rest of Year.

The gloom which settled over the Tech camp with the defeat of the Maroon and White boys at the hands of St. Louis last Saturday took on a deeper hue yesterday, when it became known that Provost, regular tackle, will be missing from the Tech lineup during the rest of the season on account of an injured leg.

Although a first year man, Provost's place in the forward wall will be hard to fill. Maasdam, who has been used as a reserve tackle and end, will probably get the permanent assignment at tackle if Drummond does not unearth some other husky for the place.

The linemen got a lot of individual attention Tuesday evening. Drummond evidently net being satisfied with their showing in the Saturday encounter. Drilling in the fundamentals of line work, coupled with a stiff workout at the barrier, was the order of the day with the line candidates.

Scrimmaging was confined to a few minutes' workout against the second string, in which the regulars failed to show everything that could be desired of them. Drummond is evidently not hurrying his squad, but is beginning gradual preparation for the Lincoln battle which falls on November 8.

believe it or not

THIS is such a mean story that those who vouch for the story do not want the name used. However, the villain has white hair, works for an oil company and loves to shoot snipes.

Four Omaha hunters drove to Herman, Neb., after snipe and asked a farmer if they could shoot over his slough and pasture land. Permission was given and so the hunters got ready. Mr. White had come by and asked to join them.

All O. K. While the new member of the party got ready to do the snipe, Mr. White had paid no attention and then bang! He potted a snipe.

Enough said. The four hunters left him to his "sport."

First Notre Dame Football Team of 1887-88 Will See Rockne's Squad Play Georgia Tech

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 21.—The "grand old" football team of Notre Dame is going back to visit its alma mater.

The first team to represent the famous Catholic university of Indiana will return November 1 for the big homecoming game between Coach Knute Rockne's varsity and the "Golden Tornado" of Georgia Tech.

The "old boys" will be guests of honor at the homecoming banquet the night of the game.

It will be as turning back the laureled pages of Notre Dame's football history almost two score years. For the team of 1887-88 gave Notre Dame its baptism in football.

From far away inland Washington, down to Texas and east to Michigan, the "grand old team" will assemble at South Bend, Ind. Every player, but one, has been reached and has promised to attend the reunion.

Capitalists, judges, high army officials, physicians and business men are these Notre Dame men—successful in many lines of endeavor.

The personnel of the team is: Dr. H. B. Luhn, captain and halfback, physician and surgeon, Spokane, Wash.

Joseph E. Cusack, quarterback, colonel U. S. cavalry, El Paso, Tex.

George A. Houck, tackle, retired cattle man, Portland, Ore.

Joseph L. Hepburn, end, insurance business, Detroit, Mich.

Edward (Slim) Sawkins, guard—sanitary officer, Detroit, Mich.

Frank (Dutch) Fehr, center, capitalist, Louisville, Ky.

F. H. (Dad) Springer, end—Columbus, Ga.

Ed Prudhomme, fullback—member of the legislature, Bermuda, La.

Patrick J. Nelson, guard—judge of the district court of Iowa, Dubuque, Ia.

Eugene P. (Butch) Melady, tackle—meat packing business, Omaha, Neb.

H. M. (Hal) Jewett, halfback—president of the Paige Motor company, Detroit, Mich.

How many will be the reminiscences of these old teammates as they gather at the banquet table—some of them to meet for the first time since they fought for Notre Dame in 1887-88? And what a change they will see in comparing their old team with the brilliant Rockne eleven of today!

It has been suggested that a feature of the unique reunion and homecoming be a one-minute scrimmage between the "boys of '87" and the present varsity. Perhaps such an event will materialize, but Dr. Luhn of Spokane, Wash. says it would be "just one minute too long" for him.

The idea of the reunion of the old team germinated in the mind of Dr. Luhn. Ten months ago he wrote to his teammates, suggesting that they gather at South Bend this November 1. His response was most gratifying. He was able to reach every member of his team except "Dad" Springer of Columbus, Ga. Ten members of the original team will be present in addition to many other old grads of early Notre Dame days.

No squads of 49, 50 and 60 players in the days of '87-88. There were only 11 suits in the university and therefore only 11 men on the squad.

Dr. Luhn was captain and coach of the team. The first Notre Dame team played two games the spring of 1888. One was with the University of Michigan and Michigan won both, 24 to 6 and 4 to 0.

No padded pants, no shoulder pads or elbow guards were worn in those days. The suits were of canvas with buttoned jackets and pants similar to those worn by baseball players today. The game in those days, according to Dr. Luhn, was far more open than today. There were no mass formations or forward passes in the early days of the game. Kicking and end running were played very frequently.

Another far-western man who played on Notre Dame's first team will accompany Dr. Luhn back to South Bend. He is George A. Houck, of Portland, Ore. He states that the game in the old days was far rougher than as played today. The contests, he explained, were divided into 45-minute periods. A paid coach was unknown then and the players practiced against other students in school without knowing any of the rudiments of the game.

The Bluejays used straight football against Miami, Duquesne university and Morningstar, with only a sprinkling of passes to add dash to the attack.

None of the Notre Dame plays which were learned by Coach Wynne while a member of Knute Rockne's squad, have been displayed to the public, and with the precaution taken of barring spectators and possible scouts from the practice field, Wynne can drill his proteges in the famous double and triple shift plays.

The Hilltoppers had a light workout yesterday, their first since the Morningstar victory. The usual dose of calisthenics was followed by a long session of signal practice.
