Some Politics.
Voting for Mellon.
Silk Stockings for the Workers.
Champion Pig Litter.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

John W. Davis believes that eight states will go to La Follette, and that he will get the south, of course, and the usual plurality in Tennessee.

All politicians, if they tell what they really think, say that Davis' remaining hope is to have the election thrown into the house. It may go there. La Follette's power and following are generally underestimated, in the east. Republican enthusiasts say that La Follette will carry only North Dakota and Wisconsin. Others admit that he has a fairly good chance in at least four other states.

Nine out of 10 well-informed politicians predict that Coolidge will be elected. And the bets of 5 to 1 that have been made on Coolidge indicate that there are facts back of the bets. Such odds are made, as a rule, only on reliable figures.

Uncle Joe Cannon says the nation's horse sense will re-elect Coolidge. "Apart from his own satisfactory, 'early American' character, the name of Secretary Mellon should get more votes for Coolidge among 'horse sense' people than any other. If Coolidge is elected, Mellon presumably will remain as secretary of the treasury, and continue paying off the United States debt, retiring bonds, reducing taxes."

Mellon has given to the people the ability and earnest hard work of one of the ablest business men in the United States. The people, if they can, ought to retain his services at least until he has paid off a few more of the billions of debt that our democratic friends, with the best of intentions probably, piled up so cheerfully in the war days.

Many citizens, in voting for Coolidge for president, will realize with satisfaction that they are also voting for Mellon for secretary of the treasury.

The "full dinner pail" is old-fashioned. "The Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks," etc., say they don't care so much about white collars for themselves, but they must have silk stockings for their wives.

President E. R. Fitzgerald says that women feel inferior when not well dressed, and every workingman's wife should have three pairs of silk stockings a year. So she should, and the railroads will probably arrange it, rather than have a strike.

You can get very good silk stockings for $2 a pair (see advertisements in this newspaper), so that would only amount to an increase of 2 cents a day in wages.

The interesting thing is that the workmen are now worrying about their wives' happiness, rather than about themselves. That's spiritual progress.

Nature's old-fashioned methods are creditable. Pennsylvania State college announces the champion litter of 15 pigs, 6 months old, weighing 3,461 pounds.

The mother of that litter is entitled to some kind of a monument. In six months she adds nearly two tons of pork to the world's food supply, and is doubtless busy with a brand new litter by this time. The name of the pig lady, a "pure-bred sow," is Petroleum Girl. Humble and plain, she's more important than the proud animal in the next paragraph.

Epinaud, great French race horse, hurt his foot, and goes back to France to devote the remainder of his life to the responsibilities of fatherhood, the production of other race horses.

His owner, Wertheimer, refused $300,000 for him after his injury. Horses have an advantage of men. When a race horse wins races, he is worth much money; when he can race no more, it is taken for granted that his children will win races.

When a man is successful in the race of life it is taken for granted that his children will be failures. The successful man leaves to his children what he earns and with that they ruin themselves.

If it were possible for Epinaud to leave the money that he has won on the race track to his colts, they would eat themselves to death in a few years and wouldn't be worth 10 cents apiece. The marvel is that any rich man's son even works.

Have you ever annoyed the llama in its enclosure, stirred up the fretful porcupine, or teased the blue-faced baboon?

If so, you have seen assorted kinds of anger and annoyance. If you want to see another, more highly developed kind, tell some riving financier that you consider La Follette a perfectly honest man, with good intentions. Compared with the face of a financier, upon hearing such a statement, the countenance of an angry blue-faced baboon is like a sleeping child.

DENTISTS HONOR DR. SHAW LITTLE

Grand Island, Oct. 21.—Dr. Shaw Little of Clark was named president of the Northwestern Nebraska Dental society, closing a two-day meeting here Tuesday noon. Hastings was chosen as meeting place for the 1925 convention.

Other officers elected were: Dr. C. J. Mopre of this city, vice president; Dr. E. O. Anderson of Gothenberg, secretary-treasurer.

The annual meet here included golfing on a local course, a visit at the St. Francis hospital, table lecture clinics, a banquet and viewing of an educational film at a local theater last evening.

Among those who addressed the dentists at the banquet was Dr. H. E. King of Omaha, secretary of the state society. He spoke on state activity of the profession.

Franklin.—At the monthly meeting of the Franklin Parent-Teachers' association Monday night a delightful program was presented. This association has been doing good work raising the standard of the Franklin schools by their co-operation.

See How Quickly You Can Banish

Gray Hair

This Clean, Colorless Liquid Will Quickly Restore the Former Color

Amazing results are reported by thousands of people who have seen their gray hair return to its original color under the touch of the remarkable preparation known as Kolor-Bak. Many report results in a week.

In this clean, colorless liquid we have a true substitute for the natural pigmentation, which the hair has lost because of age, illness, shock, scalp disease or some other cause. Remarkable as it may seem, Kolor-Bak not only banishes the grayness, but restores the actual former color to the hair, no matter what it was—black, brown, red, Auburn. And the color is uniform throughout—the hair does not appear streaked, faded or dyed.

Kolor-Bak is not sticky or messy. It is just as easy to use as clear water. It also cleanses the head of dandruff, scurf or scale, keeps the scalp in good condition, gives the hair a beautiful, silky appearance and prevents it from becoming brittle and falling out.

As long as your hair retains its youthful appearance, you get credit for being young—and to be

WED 3 MONTHS, WANTS TO QUIT

Three months of wedded life was enough for Freeman Turk, who filed suit in district court for a divorce from Marie Turk. They were married in Council Bluffs July 9, and he gave her a good home in Omaha, he says. Notwithstanding his attentions, she quarreled with him and finally deserted him, he asserts. He wants her to have her former name, Raynor.
