Better Homes for Turtles Latest Charity Slogan

The latest amateur charity case work deals with winter housing conditions for turtles.

So piteous is the plight of the aquatic visitors brought here last summer from an Illinois farm to paddle energetically around Aquila Court pool, or expressed in kindness. You glow and The "Get-Away Plans" Madge Care- smudgy footprints upon the veranda doze contentedly under its lily pads, that Omaha housewives are making an effort to give them, if not bigger, at least better and warmer homes.

Mrs. Arthur Loomis is saving one turtle from an icy end by taking it home to amuse her little daughter, Nancy, as it paddles about a tin tub this winter.

Mrs. Lee Ross Newkirk, who has two little sons to keep entertained, has taken two, and is constructing an aquarium for them in the basement.
