FOUR NEBRASKA STORES ROBBED
Lincoln, Oct. 24.—Four store robberies were carried out Thursday night in Exeter, Decatur and Crete, according to a report made by the Nebraska Federation of Retailers to the state law enforcement office here.
At Exeter the William Brown general store was entered after robbers had saved off the bars at one door and about $200 worth of silk apparel, shoes and sweaters taken.
The Richards hardware store was entered at Decatur and yeggmen blew open the safe and escaped with $40 or $50 in cash. Merchandise also was taken. Another store there was entered, but the loss was small.

At Crete a checkup in the Leabman clothing store revealed that the exact outfits of men's wearing apparel that a clerk had shown to a stranger yesterday were missing.
Beatrice—H. H. Miller was brought before County Judge Messmore on a no-fund check charge and pleaded guilty. The court sentenced him to 30 days in jail.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR FREIGHT
Effective October 6, present way freight service on Missouri Pacific Lincoln district was discontinued and locals will operate daily except Sunday and have through freight between Lincoln and Union.
Local freight will leave Lincoln at 8 a. m. daily and arrive at Union at 11:40 a. m.; leave Union at 12:10 p. m., arrive at Lincoln, 4 p. m.

This new schedule was caused by heavy run of business on the Lincoln branch.
Henry S. Raymond Dies.
Henry S. Raymond, 73, resident of Omaha for 37 years, died Friday morning at his home, 2854 Potter street. He was a farmer on the outskirts of Omaha. He is survived by five daughters and six sons.
