

Rescue Plot for Prisoner Is Suspected

Defense Fund Being Raised;
Daring Escape From Kansas Jail Recalled by Authorities.

Harry H. Raymond, in jail at Council Bluffs on a charge of robbing the bank at Little Sioux, Ia., is no common yegg.

Chief Special Agent Young of the Wabash railroad declares he is a member of one of the most dangerous gangs in the country, well organized, ably directed and daringly bold.

"They will not hesitate to attempt to rescue him if there is the least chance," he said. "They might even ride up to a country jail with shot-guns and take him out of a cell."

Walks to Freedom

Under the name Pat Carroll he was in jail at Newton, Kan., in connection with a $140,000 robbery. Confederates slipped nitroglycerin to him. He placed the "soup" skillfully in his cell, touched it off, blew out a corner of the jail without injuring himself and walked to freedom.

Lincoln, Neb., reported that Carroll, alias Raymond, was sent to Leavenworth from there in 1909 for counterfeiting. Officers declare he also participated in robbing banks at Barnes, Gage county; Hallam, Lancaster county, and Staplehurst, Seward county.

Omahans Send Help

The prisoner will be well defended. Sheriff Walter Millman of Harrison county, in which Little Sioux is situated, said the man's "well-heeled" friends are already rallying with the funds.

Friday afternoon "Dick" Organ, former Council Bluffs lawyer, now of Missouri Valley, called at the jail and asked to see the prisoner. Sheriff Millman refused the request unless he showed credentials. Organ said friends of the man in Omaha had sent him.

Penalty Is 40 Years

Preliminary hearing will be at Logan next Wednesday afternoon. The charge against Raymond is "robbing a bank in the night with high explosives." The penalty on conviction is 40 years in the penitentiary.

Raymond's remarkable memory was demonstrated Friday when Sheriff Condit looked him over. Raymond regarded him intently.

"Your name is Condit," he finally said. "The astonished sheriff asked him how he knew."

"I saw you 35 years ago wrestling with a crazy man in a railroad yard. The crazy man was killed in the battle and you lost a foot."

Condit acknowledged the event but couldn't remember Raymond.

Men Arrested for Driving Car to Spring

S. H. Lantz, 533 South Twenty-fourth street, and H. J. Maxwell, 847 South Twenty-ninth street, were arrested Friday night on charges of drunkenness after they had nearly run down Special Officer Dork in Elmwood park.

The two men were riding in an automobile. Suddenly Lantz cranked the wheel of the car over and drove it down the steps to the spring. Dork was getting a drink at the time. The men drove the car down the incline but police had to call a first aid car to get it back.

Simple Application That Dissolves Blackheads

No more squeezing and pinching to get rid of those unsightly blemishes, blackheads. There is one simple, safe and sure way to get them out, and that is to dissolve them. Get about two cents of calomel powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub briskly over the blackheads for a few seconds—wash the parts and every blackhead will be gone.

Pinching and squeezing out blackheads make large pores and you cannot get all of the blackheads out this way—while this simple application of calomel powder and water dissolves every particle of them and leaves the skin and pores in their natural condition.

Unique Grotto for Worshippers at Lady of Lourdes Church Will Be Dedicated Sunday Afternoon

A grotto, the second one of its kind ever built in Omaha, is attracting the attention of passersby at Thirty-second and Francis streets, in the churchyard of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church. It has just been completed and will be dedicated at services to be held Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

Rev. Stephen L. Dowd, Rev. Joseph Berneuer, assistant priest, and a Paulist father from Chicago will conduct the services.

Novena to Be Observed.
A nine-day service, a novena, will commence at the 11 o'clock mass Sunday morning at Our Lady of Lourdes church. It will be held daily at 6:30, 7 and 8 a. m., and at 7:45 each evening. Water of Lourdes will be given out during the novena to those present and to those who have relatives at home who are too ill to attend.

Archbishop J. J. Hartley brought a small bottle of water of Lourdes, France to Rev. Father Dowd, priest of the church.

Has But One Opening.
The grotto in the churchyard has but one opening, the doorway. The grotto in the yard at St. Joseph hospital is open. The new Lady of Our Loures grotto is to be used for those desiring to worship in privacy. In the interior of the grotto is a prayer bench, statue of the Virgin Mary and a tiny statue of a little French girl worshipping at her feet.

The grotto was built entirely by the plan and work of Joe Miller, mason. Granite paving blocks were used for the walls, roof and cross at the top and these were covered with white stucco and marble dust. A statue of Our Lady of Lourdes that has just been placed but a few steps from the new grotto is of Bedford granite. It was carved at the Kaletta studio at St. Louis. The statue was to have been placed in a niche near the roof of the church at the front of the building but its size prevented it. So a brick pedestal was built for it in the yard.

Loss of Teeth Is Deafness Cause.
Loss of teeth is often the cause of deafness, according to experiments conducted in Sioux City in the last 10 years by Dr. H. F. McCrane, graduate of Creighton Dental college. Intimate connection between the jaw muscles and ear canals is responsible for this failure of hearing when the teeth are removed, he found. He told about it before dentists gathered here from a dozen states for the Creighton homecoming clinic.

The feature of clinics held at the annual meeting of the association was a paper read by Dr. H. F. McCrane, dental specialist from Sioux City, Ia., on Traumatic deafness as caused by intrusion Condyle head upon the auditory canal.

The men arrested were Baldassare Urso and Sam Sculle, charged with unlawful sale and possession of intoxicating liquor; Charles Lewis, State hotel; Edward Buford, 5320 North Twenty-fifth avenue, and Brown Nelson, 1108 South Ninth street, charged with drunkenness.

J. G. Maher Backs Political Opinion With Greenbacks

Puts $500 Each on the Noses of Coolidge, Norris and Adam Mc-Mullen.

Col. John G. Maher of Lincoln came to Omaha Saturday from an extensive business trip through the state, enthusiastic over the outlook for Coolidge, Norris and McMullen.

"I'm out of politics, but I am sure these three will win in Nebraska," he said.

Nor was this idle talk. For the colonel let it be known far and wide that he has $500 to bet that Coolidge will carry Nebraska, another $500 that McMullen will be the next governor and still another $500 that Senator Norris will win.

That Colonel Maher knows the situation is evident from what he did two years ago. Then he breezed in to Omaha from a tour of the state and bet $1,000 that R. B. Howell, republican, would be elected senator and $500 that Charles Bryan, democrat, would be elected governor.

Of course, he won both of the bets. "Adam McMullen deserves to win," he said. "He has made a success of his own business and that's the kind of man who can be expected to make a success of the state's business."

Colonel Maher was depot quartermaster here during the early months of the war and then was sent to France as disbursing officer. He occupied part of the Elysees palace in which Gen. Charles G. Dawes also was located as purchasing officer. The two are good friends.

HELPMATES, 60,
IN DIVORCE SUIT
Harry Hollander and his wife, Rose, both 60, and with six grown children, can't get along.

A few days ago she sued him for separate maintenance. Saturday he filed an answer in district court and asked a divorce.

Though they live in the same house at 1514 North Eighteenth street, she hasn't spoken a word to him for six years, he alleges.

They occupy separate rooms and he has cooked his own meals during that time. In the winter time, he charges, she has shut off the heat from his part of the dwelling.

Yet he states he has contributed $15 a week for her support.

They were married in 1887.

SLAYER HOLDS TO SUPERSTITION
Clyde Finan is taking no chances. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary for the murder of William Smith, street car man, in 1921.

Today County Attorney Beal went to see him about testifying against Ernest Clark for perjury in the case. "No," said Finan, "I won't. They don't like men in the penitentiary who twig on other men."

"That so?" said Beal.
"You know what happened to Ray Asher," said Finan.
Asher died in the Kansas penitentiary. He told Beal before his death about the murder.
