Inquest Omitted in Youth's Death

Auto Tragedy "Careless Accident."

No inquest will be held into the death of James R. Hansen, 26, 3008 Pinkney street, who was instantly killed Saturday evening when his automobile overturned two miles east of Gretna on the D. L. D. highway, according to Coroner H. A. Collins of Sarpy county.

"It was a careless accident,' 'said the coroner. "The automobile, built as a racing car, was going 50 miles an hour and headlights were dim. It highway and knocked the steel railing at the top of the abutment 50 feet away. Hansen's death probably occurred instantly, for his neck and back were broken. The auto turned completely over on Hansen.

Michael Pierce, 21, 3010 Pinkney street, who was riding with Hansen, was unconscious when picked up by passing motorists. He regained consciousness when he reached Gretna and complained of a pain in his chest. He was put on the train and taken to St. Catherine's hospital, Omaha. His condition Monday morning was reported improved.

Hansen's body was brought to the Johnson & Swanson funeral home on

He was an employe of the E. P. Boyer Coal and Lumber company and is survived by his parents, two sisters, Mollie, 14, and Mrs. I. D. Sawyer of Hosford, Neb.; and a brother, William Hansen of Hosford.

COUNCIL DEFERS PARKING ACTION

City council committee of the whole Monday morning deferred action on a proposed amended automobile park ing ordinance on account of the ab sence of Police Commissioner Henry W. Dunn, who introduced the meas-minute restricted zone in each down town block and also recommends that automobiles be parked at an angle of 35 to 40 degrees and that sufficient space be left between wheels and the curb to permit the flow of flushing water and rubbish.

Clears Complexion

"Oh! how clear and beautiful your complexion is today, my dear!"

THERE IS a certain joy—a cer-tain pride—in knowing you are admired, whether it be from father, brother, husband or sweetheart! And back of that joy is the satisfaction of knowing all is well.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps, wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness which is not theirs. But why the wondering— the hoping—the praying for that craved for attractiveness—that clear skin—that beauty. A clear skin—is the barometer of one's condition. A healthy skin radiates beauty.
