Clarinda, Ia., Oct. 29.—Forty young journalists, who are preparing for publication volume 2 of the Junior Cardinal, newspaper issued semi-annually by the Junior High school, 7

A class, were taken by their instructors, Miss Edith Whiting and Miss Mary Wilson, to the office of the Clarinda Herald, and shown the necessary quirks and squirms of a live editor and his staff on the date of publication. They chose the busiest hour for the expedition, while the big presses with attached folders were rapidly turning out the edition; saw the papers stamped, thrown to the assembling rack, rapidly placed by the six carrier boys, and whisked away by the bicycle brigade. Paul B. Woolson, editor, and Herbert Blaktsle, business manager, took time to explain the "how and why"

of everything, the "ups and downs" and "ins and outs" of the monster linotypes. The editorial staff of the Junior Cardinal will be chosen early in November. See Want Ads are the best business boosters.
