

Cornhuskers Get Taste of Missouri Formations in Wednesday's Scrimmage

Doug Meyers May Not Start in Game With Fast Tigers

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Lincoln, Oct. 29.—Nebraska's varsity got a taste of Missouri formations Wednesday evening when Owen Franks, freshman coach, demonstrated "tiger" plays to advantage in scrimmage practice. The injured members of the first string were not permitted to take any chances and there is a doubt now whether Doug Meyers will be able to start, according to Dr. Oliver Everett, team physician.

Ristine was working Myers' position in the Wednesday practice with Mielenz at one half and Choppy Rhodes at the other. Al Bloodgood was at quarter.

Myers has a bad leg which may keep him out of the Missouri fray. Harold Hutchison, regular center, is champing on the bit considerably now that his broken collar bone has knitted. He wants another chance to play against Smith, Missouri center, who was captain of the 1923 "Tigers" and chosen almost unanimously for the pivot position by pickers of "All-Valley" teams last season.

It is hardly expected that he will be permitted to go against the Tigers but by the time the Notre Dame game rolls around two weeks from Saturday, Hutchison should be in fine fettle.

Captain Ed Weil was another regular who did not suit up Wednesday. Both Collins and Robertson were left at the wing stations for only a few plays. Gillan, a sophomore, who comes from York, was stationed at one wing.

Schoep, filling in for Ed Weil emulated the Husker captain's tactics when he broke through and blocked a freshman punt which resulted in a safety.

Arnold Oehlrich was the big show in the freshman backfield. He slipped through the line once and only the varsity safety was between him and a touchdown.

The frosh were also competing too many passes, Oehlrich heaving them and Jug Brown catching them. Jug missed at least two that were easy catches.

It is thought that the first string will be given another dose of scrimmage against the freshmen Thursday evening. That will make four scrimmages in as many practice periods this week.

Nebraska Wesleyan-Midland Game Feature of Homecoming at Fremont

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 29.—With Coach Preston's Coyotes coming to Fremont Friday, Midland followers are all set for a real homecoming battle that will bring together two of the strongest Nebraska colleges in their annual gridiron tilt. After the good showing made by the Wesleyan aggregation against North Dakota last Saturday, the Coyotes are shaking their heads rather doubtfully in trying to picture a Midland victory. Nevertheless, the Midlanders have a fairly good record behind them this season. Although defeated by Creighton and Haskell, the Fremont eleven, minus the necessary reserve strength, was not altogether disgraced.

The extra week of rest proved a blessing to the Midland squad which is getting back into condition after the terrible mauling suffered at the hands of the Haskell Indians.

Veterans Ready for Cage Practice

Grinnell, Ia., Oct. 29.—With four veterans ready to take up practice, basketball prospects at Grinnell college are considered "slightly above the average" by the local athletic authorities and sport followers.

Millard Gelvin of Marsh Blown, who has played at guard for the last two years, will be at hand, as will Leonard Winter of Hinton, a two-year guard; Harry Wing, Greenfield, a one-year guard, and George Critchett, Grinnell, a two-year forward.

Coach Charles T. Black will make up his team from these men and from the following promising new material he expects to have out for practice: D. Moran, Grinnell, forward; Alton Larson, Orange, center; George Duffing, Hastings, Minn., forward; and Elmer Chase, Paulina, forward.

Kansas, Missouri, Washington and Oklahoma, all Missouri Valley conference teams, are looked upon as Grinnell's strongest opponents this year.

Coach Black starts his career at Grinnell this year. He was an all-Missouri Valley guard for three years on the University of Kansas team.

The complete basketball schedule for Grinnell for the 1924-25 season is as follows:

Kansas at Grinnell, Jan. 10. Missouri at Grinnell, Jan. 16. Drake at Grinnell, Jan. 16. Ames at Grinnell, Jan. 23. Kansas Aggies at Grinnell, Feb. 1. Nebraska at Grinnell, Feb. 1. Oklahoma Aggies at Grinnell, Feb. 12. Oklahoma at Grinnell, Feb. 17. Arkansas at Grinnell, Feb. 21. Washington at Grinnell, Feb. 21. Oklahoma at Grinnell, Feb. 26. Washington at Grinnell, Mar. 2. Grinnell at Grinnell, Mar. 9. Drake at Grinnell, Mar. 9.

Insures Police Football Players for $5,000 Each

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Apparently anticipating hard battles for the police football team Director of Public Safety Smedley D. Butler has had the life of each member of the squad insured for $5,000. A blanket policy, which covers the team, relieves the city of responsibility in case of accident during the games.

Spanish spotting interests

making efforts to match Jack Dempsey with the Franco-Spanish heavy-weight champion, Paulino Basque Woodman, for a bout at Bayonne, Spain, next August. The conditions guarantee Dempsey a minimum of $100,000.

Young Bob Fitzsimmons

who entered the ring in the hopes of following in his father's footsteps, is said to resemble dad in only one respect. He drinks coffee from his saucer.

Manager "Buckley" Harris

of the Washington Senators is on the lookout for a veteran receiver who can help "Muddy" Ruel with the receiving next season. Ruel, who caught practically every game for the Senators last season, showed signs of overwork near the end of the campaign.

Now that Tex Rickard has matched

Louis Angel Firpo, erstwhile wild bull of the Pampas, and Fred Fulton, who has great trouble maintaining an erect position against any kind of opponent, for a bout at Madison Square Garden, fans see an attempt to build up the bulk from South America for another big money match. Tex certainly made a careful selection, what ever his purpose.

When Earnie Ansterberg was killed

recently in a racing accident at Charlotte, N. C., he was victim 15 among the prominent drivers this season. Other prominent pilots who met with fatal mishaps are: Jimmy Murphy, Dario Resta, Joe Boyer, A. L. Mulford, Louis Jackson, Earl Grey, Jimmy Craft, Ray Lawman, Bernard J. McCall, Len Theurer, Horace Wallace, Joe Hoop, Wayne Hawkins and Stanley Brown.

LANDIS SUED BY FELSCH, JACKSON

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 29.—Commissioner K. M. Landis, high chief of the National Boxing association in a suit filed here for Oscar ("Happy") Felsch and Joe Jackson, members of the Chicago "Black Sox," for the recovery of the ousted ball players claim is due them as their share of the "second place" money of the 1920 season. Landis claims that Felsch and Jackson were "tricked and neglected" to pay the ousted outfielders the money which they say totals approximately $500 a piece.

South Dakota Teams Meet in Annual Game Saturday

Brookings, S. D., Oct. 29.—The eyes of sportsmen in the northwest are focused on the Hobo day game here on November 1. Whether the State College Jackrabbits or the University Coyotes will be champions of North Dakota is a question that will remain undecided in the Little Eight conference will be settled in this battle, which is the home-coming game for South Dakota State college.

Positions of Teams in Bike Race Unchanged

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Positions of the leaders in the six-day international bicycle race at the coliseum here were unchanged at the end of the 25th hour today. The teams of Horan and Walther, Georgetti and Stockely and Dewolf and Gosens, which have been tied since the early hours of the race were tied at 1076 miles and six laps. In the order named they had made 193, 135 and 51 points respectively.

Organizer of Golf and Tennis Clubs Dies

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Golfers and tennis players of the west today mourned the death of James P. Gardner of Chicago, organizer of pioneer golf and tennis clubs here and the first pitcher on the University of Chicago baseball team to throw a curve ball.

Plenty of Tickets for Iowa-Illinois Game

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 28.—Athletic Director George Huff of the University of Illinois tonight said that plenty of tickets still are available for the Iowa-Illinois football game.

Illinois Coach Not Pleased With Way Iowa Uses Illini Plays

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 29.—Persons who sat within earshot of Coach Robert Zuppke of Illinois at the Iowa-Minnesota game here Saturday are letting it become known that "Zup" was not exactly pleased with the way Coach Bert E. Ingwersen had appropriated Illinois plays to Iowa's profit.

Earshot happens. In this instance, to be quite a distance, they say, for Fighting Bob's terse epithets gushed forth like lava from Vesuvius.

At one stage of the game when Parkin had just completed a long dash along the sidelines that almost resulted in a touchdown, spectators declare Zuppke waxed exceedingly wrathful and beseeched the heavens to fall on such high handed robbery of Illinois tactics.

Tommy Milto Enters Big Race

Los Angeles, Oct. 29.—Tommy Milto, racing pilot 1922 national champion and the only driver to win the 500-mile Indianapolis classic twice has entered two cars in the 250-mile Thanksgiving race to be held on the Culver City speedway, near here, November 27, it was announced today by A. M. Young, president and manager of the speedway organization of Los Angeles. One of the cars will be driven by Milton while Bob Donogh will be at the wheel of the other.

LITTLE SERIES GAME OFF AGAIN

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—An extremely heavy rainstorm accompanied by a high wind today caused the third postponement of the second game of the "little series" between Seattle and St. Paul. A meeting of the commission in charge of the series is expected to definitely call off the remainder of the schedule.

MARROW MAY PLAY AGAINST IOWANS

These words seemed to be installed into the throats of the Central High school students. Two years ago the Purple journeyed to Sioux City only to be jumped off by the Packers. This year the students are angling for revenge.

Schmidt sent his charges through a stiff workout Tuesday night. The team as a whole has shown a better fighting spirit, according to Schmidt. The backfield looked fairly good. Hamilton, Solomon, and Muxen were at the backfield positions.

Wally Marrow, one of the shiftiest players in the Purple camp, once more donned a uniform. Marrow, it is hoped, might be able to get into the Sioux City tangle. With Marrow back in harness against the Sioux, the boys on the Dodge street hill will have a better chance against the Iowans.

Syracuse university has 11 grid

games booked this year including University of South California at Los Angeles, December 6.

"Oh, yes, there is!" said Hashberger, "I see a flock of pin tails up river coming this way. They're flying high and fast but I guess I can tell them in."

RAIN AGAIN STOPS LITTLE SERIES GAME

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—A fourth postponement of the "little series" between Seattle of the Coast league, and St. Paul, of the American association, seemed probable today following another night of hard rain accompanied by high winds. But one game of the series has been played to date.

Kassel and Mellwin Out of Illini Lineup

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 28.—With Kassel and Mellwin out of the practice, Coach Zuppke began to exhale sadness again over the chances of the Illini against Iowa. Kassel, accompanied by Leonard, sub halfback, went to Terre Haute, Ind., today to consult a physician. Kassel is still bothered with the shoulder injured before the Michigan game and Leonard has a sprained ankle. Mellwin was on the sidelines as a result of a smashup in scrimmage last night.

Do you know that

MILLER HUGGINS was paid the handsome sum of $4 a day for his first baseball, making his start with the Cincinnati Shamrocks, a semi-pro outfit. His father wanted him to become a lawyer and opposed baseball as a profession, so Miller played under the name of Proctor. The sports editor of a Cincinnati paper discovered him and boosted him and boosted him so much that he got a job with the Mansfield, O. club at $80 a month. He studied law while playing ball and was admitted to the bar. His rise in baseball has been rapid. He keeps his salary as manager of the Yankees private, but he is working for a rich club and is in strong with the boss.

WILL FILE SUIT AGAINST LANDIS

New York, Oct. 29.—Papers in the proposed suit against Commissioner Kenneth M. Landis to force him to pay "Coco" Dolan a share of the New York Giants' world series money will be filed in federal court this week. It was said here today by William J. Fallon, attorney for the former coach. Dolan was banished from the Giants club following charges by Jimmy O'Connell, outfielder, that Dolan sent him to Heine Sande, Philadelphia shortstop, with an offer to throw a game to the Giants.

Hersch and Doyle Draw

New York, Oct. 28.—Vic Hersch of Detroit and Paul Doyle of New York drew in a slow 10-round welterweight light tonight. Hersch substituted for Sailor Friedman of Chicago.

FIGHT DOPE

To Play Colorado.

Buzeman, Mont., Oct. 29.—Coach Ot Romney of the Montana state college football team announced today acceptance of an offer to play the University of Colorado on Thanksgiving day at the latter's new stadium in Boulder. Both schools are members of the Rocky Mountain conference, but neither had scheduled a game for Thanksgiving. Colorado is last year's conference champion. Neither eleven has been defeated this season.

Goldstein to Fight.

New York, Oct. 29.—Abe Goldstein has signed articles to defend the bantamweight championship of the world against Cannon Ball Eddie Martin in a 15-round battle at Madison Square Garden on December 12. It became known yesterday. Martin has not yet signed a contract.
