

Foods Advance as Winted Nears
Apples Plentiful at All Markets; Reindeer Meat New Delicacy.
 By MARKET BASKET.
 The market men say all foodstuffs are advancing, and suggest that now is a good time to put in the winter's requirements.

 The prices, this week, on fruits and vegetables, remain about the same. Tomatoes are of course very scarce and selling at 17 1/2 cents a pound. Spinach is higher, as the last crop is almost gone. Brussels sprouts are 25 cents a pound. Pumpkins range from 15 cents to 50 cents, according to size. There has lately been a good sale of these because of the nearness of Halloween.
 Table squash are 5 cents each.

Beets, fine for pickling, are selling at three large bunches for 19 cents. Parsley is 5 cents a bunch. Mexican sage, which is fine when used in dressing, is selling at three bunches for 25 cents.
 Celery cabbage is 15 and 20 cents a head. Cucumbers are high and selling at 25 and 50 cents each. Green onions are three bunches for 10 cents. Cauliflower is 15 cents a head. Winter radishes are 5 cents a pound. Mustard greens are 5 cents a bunch.
Apples Plentiful.
 Apples are plentiful in the markets because of the good crop this year. Delicia apples are 5 cents to 3 for 25 cents, according to size. Jonathans and Roman beauty apples are selling at six pounds for 25 cents.
 Howell pears are four for 25 cents and are very good eating. Keffler pears are 20 cents a basket. Bananas have taken a slight advance but grapefruit, lemons, limes and persimmons remain the same. Tokay grapes are still abundant and are being sold at the rate of two pounds for 25 cents. Bulk dates are 15 cents a pound. Quinces are 5 cents each. Small oranges are selling at 15 cents a dozen. Large oranges range in price from 30 cents to 75 cents, according to size.

 Best fresh eggs are 50 cents a dozen. Other prices range from 32 1/2 cents up to 50 cents. Eggs are on the upward grade. Butter prices are the same as the week previous, selling from 40 cents to 43 cents a pound.
Reindeer Meat.
 Reindeer meat is on the market. It is, of course, a delicacy and is higher than the more common meats. Reindeer steaks and chops are $1 per pound. Stew meat is 35 cents a pound and roasts are 50 cents a pound. Pork is down. Pork loin is 25 cents a pound. Pork chops are 30 cents a pound. Beef is about the same and the prices on veal and lamb are also the same.

 Hams and bacon are selling at 23 1/2 cents to 32 1/2 cents a pound. Bacon especially is high, selling from 22 1/2 cents to 37 1/2 cents a pound.
 Seven items in the canned goods line, namely peas, corn, tomatoes, sliced pineapple, pears, peaches and apricots, are being sold by local markets at less than it actually would cost to replace them.
 A New York jobber, the other day, offered to buy some canned goods from one of the local markets, and offered the market more money than the market is, at this time, receiving from its customers for canned goods. The market, of course, had to accept this offer in order to protect its business.

Note Reveals "Other Woman"
Construction Head Ordered to Pay Ex-Wife $2,500, Deed Home to Her.
 D. E. Wynn Jones, president of the Jones Construction company, was ordered to pay his wife, Alice Gertrude, $2,500 alimony, deed her their home at 3720 North Twentieth street and pay her attorneys $300 in a decree of divorce granted her by District Judge Day Friday.
 She alleged that another woman named Mabel occupied too much of his attention. Mrs. Jones testified that she once confronted her husband and the woman and begged him to come back to her, which he promised to do, she said.
 Their domestic sea began to get rough two months after their marriage in 1905 in Lincoln. Two years ago he left home and went to live at the Athletic club, she testified. Since that time he has not returned home, but has supported her.
 Mrs. Helen Ulrich, mother of Mrs. Jones, testified that she found a message torn up in a waste basket, pieced it together and thus found out about the alleged "other woman."

Menu to Serve Four, Cost $2.00.
 Bouillon in cups. Crackers. Olives. Salted nuts. Baked tomatoes with sweetbread rolls. Apple tarts with vanilla ice cream. Coffee.
Menu to Serve Six, Cost $3.45.
 Cream chicken sandwiches. Vegetable salad. Cocos with whipped cream. Pineapple ambrosia. Syrup Sponge Cake.
 Following are some of the recipes used in the menus:
 Soak a pair of sweetbreads in cold water for an hour and change the water several times, so that the blood will be extracted. Put over the fire in cold water and simmer for 20 minutes. Drain, plunge into boiling water and drain again. Remove all strings and fibers and chill on the ice. Cut in dice, mix with a highly seasoned brown sauce and turn into peeled tomatoes, that have been hollowed out and fitted into buttered individual shirring dishes. Cover the tops with crushed dried bread crumbs mixed with melted butter and cook in a moderate oven until the tomatoes are tender.
Cream Chicken Sandwiches.
 Grind through the meat grinder three-quarters of a cup of cooked fowl, one small boiled onion and a quarter of a cup of celery. Serve tablespoonful of butter, blend in three tablespoonful of flour and add gradually, one cup of rich milk and salt and paprika to taste. Bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly, and add the ground ingredients. Cook for three minutes and add a few drops of lemon juice and the stiffly whipped whites of two eggs. Turn into baking powder cans and chill in the ice. Use as the filling (cut in slices) between buttered rounds of whole wheat bread, with a crisp lettuce leaf, dipped in mayonnaise dressing.

About the House.
 A new style in floor lamps is especially adapted to small apartments. It is a lantern with a silk shirred shade. Bronze is a favored finish. The balloon shaped lamp is also good.
 For something choice in an "occasional" piece of furniture new French imported pieces of tulip wood, inlaid with satinwood and rosewood, with French bronze mountings and marble tops, are decidedly distinctive.
 Spanish lace is having such a vogue in every shade from champagne to black that it is used for pillow tops, bedspreads, curtains and handsome bureau scarfs.
 Gay Italian pottery in majolica style is much liked for dining room decoration, where the suite is simple cottage or peasant style.
 Among the most charming pieces of up-to-date glassware is the famous Lalique sculptured glass imported from France. Its unusual shapes are very admirable.
