The University of Nebraska Corn huskers will hurl themselves in the undefeated foot ball team, tomorrow afternoon

The two teams will meet in the Memorial stadium 1925, in what promises to be the feature urday afternoon Missouri valley

The Missouri Tigers started the season with a 3 to 0 victory over the University of Chicago at Stagg field and this fall have never lowered their colors in defeat. The Cornhuskers, after losing to Illinois and Okla homa, showed a reversal of form and defeated Colgate university of Hamilton, N. Y., and Kansas university in successive weeks. The Missouri university squad, headed by Coach "Vie" Henry, arrived in Lincoln this morning, the Tigers staging an afternoon workout on the stadium sod. A special train, carrying a large delegation of Columbia rooters, is expected early tomorrow morning.

Coach Fred T. Dawson is expecting a hard game with the Bengal aggregation and has allowed the Cornhuskers no rest from scrimmage throughout the week, driving squad hard in a series of gruelling workouts.

"Bear" stories emanated from each camp on the eve of the game. Missouri suffered the loss of Swofbroken leg in the Kansas Aggle game, but will be strengthened by the addition of Halfback Faurot, who was declared eligible this week. Nebraska has been handicapped in practice this week by the absence of Captain Ed Weir and Myers, who have been nursing injuries.

Comparative weight statistics of be outweighed about four pounds to the man. The Cornhuskers, however over weight handicaps, as they have met heavier foes in every game this

Tomorrow will be "Dad's day" on the University of Nebraska campus and a special section will be reserved at the stadium for students and their fathers. A luncheon in honor of the "Dads" will be served in the university armory tomorrow noon,

'STRANGLER' LEWIS

Chicago, Oct. 31 .- Ed (Strangler) Lewis was still wearing the heavyweight wrestling crown today, efforts of Pat McGill of Nebraska to jar the two camps show Nebraska will it from his head here last night having failed to even slightly tilt it. Me Gill won only the first fall. He pinned the champion's shoulders down with a wing lock in 43:09. Lewis took the second fall with a toehold in 30:37, and the third with another toe ock in 8:04.

McGill started the bout in aggressive fashion and in the first tilt showed the stuff of which champions are made. The first fall was a severe test for both men and the speed had both obviously fatigued at the final

Lewis came back strong, however, for the second fall and showed un to much better advantage. In pinning McGill to the mat, he gave the Nebraskan's leg a sharp twist which brought the challenger into the ring for the final tilt with a visible limp. The injury made his resistance nore passive in the third fall and there was never any question during his as to the ultimate outcome.

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 31 .- Both teams fighting fiercely for every inch of ground, Midland and Wesleyan repeated last year's contest between the kick from the 20-yard line failed. A large home-coming crowd wit- bilt's grey colt. nessed the game.

After fighting on even terms for more than three quarters, a break finally came when Wesleyan recovered a Midland fumble on its own 45-yard line. The Midland line again held and forced the Coyotes to punt. Midland attempted to punt in return but a bad pass from center put the home team in action close to its own goal line. The second call for a punt was good. Alabaster, Coyote quarter, Al C.
