city is in the center of the richest agricultural section of the country, and our crops this year are worth $150,000,000 more than last year and that means more purchasing power."

Nat Miester, Omaha insurance man, sees a great future for business now that the election is settled and the people are assured of a safe and honest administration.

Business Barometer Climbs.
"It appears to me after talking with various business men that they are well satisfied that business is on its way, that they are on the eve of real prosperity."

Meister stated that correspondence with eastern insurance companies express the same business prediction. At Scott is another Omahian who believes now that the election is a thing of the past that the barometer of business will climb. "With confidence now, more money will be put in circulation," said Mr. Scott. "There will not be the holdback by capital. I see a great year for business and we of today must go out and get it. I feel that business is bound to be great and continue for some time to come."

J. E. Davidson, vice president of the Nebraska Power company stated that the people of this nation have the fullest confidence in Coolidge and Dawes and by their election the citizens voted for men who will uphold the constitution.

"The improved prospects of foreign condition," said Mr. Davidson means real prosperity for the entire nation for years to come.
Prepare for Big Rush.
"The election of Calvin Coolidge means a long period of real prosperity," said A. Hospo, pioneer Omaha business man. "Every line of business will make good gains. The business will be there for the man who wants it."

"I honestly and sincerely believe that the people will never regret that Coolidge was elected. I want the world to know that if La Follette was elected, I would just as well dispose of my store."

"I also want to say that The Omaha Bee deserves a great deal of credit for the part it played in the great contest. Its pulling power was the work."

Coolidge Gains Strength With Later Returns

Final Figures Trickling in From Distant Precincts Swell Majority Given G. O. P. Nominee.

United States Senator Lawrence C. Phipps had a lead of more than 10,000 over his colleague, Senator Alva B. Adams, in the race for the full six-year term in the United States senate on the face of returns from 1,263 precincts. The vote: Adams, 112,086; Phipps, 122,626.

Colonel Rice W. Means, republican, and plan choice, had a majority of more than 14,000 over Morrison Shafroth, democrat, for the unexpired senate term. In 1,289 precincts the vote was: Means, 125,151; Shafroth, 111,132.

Judge Clarence J. Morley, also a republican, and plan endorse, continued to pile up his lead over Governor William E. Sweet, democrat, for governor. In 1,310 precincts the count stood: Morley, 150,249; Sweet, 131,170.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 5.—Washington yesterday cast what is estimated to have been the heaviest vote in its history when it gave its seven electoral votes to Coolidge and Dawes, and gave dominating leads to nearly every other republican candidate. With a registration of approximately 600,000, it is believed by republican leaders that between 450,000 and 500,000 votes were cast.

Incomplete returns from 1,570 of the 2,437 precincts in the state gave Coolidge 161,353; La Follette, 103,970, and Davis, 23,421. At republican state headquarters it was predicted that the president's plurality over Senator La Follette would exceed 50,000, but would not equal the Harding vote of 223,137 in 1920.

Roland H. Hartley, republican candidate for governor, had even a greater lead over his nearest opponent, Ben F. Hill, democrat. Returns from 1,503 precincts incomplete gave Hartley 136,097 and Hill 75,737.

In the fifth congressional district Representative Samuel B. Hill, democrat, and J. Edward Ferguson, republican, were fighting hard for the lead. Early returns placed Ferguson in the lead, which he held until today, when Hill took it. In 379 out of 516 precincts Hill had 26,571; Ferguson, 26,090. Washington's other four representatives, all republicans, seemed assured of re-election.

All initiative and referendum measures submitted to the voters were disapproved.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 5.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, continued to cut down the plurality of President Coolidge in North Dakota this afternoon and early tonight when returns from his strongholds in the western part of the state found their way to unofficial tabulation headquarters.

In the last 107 precincts to report, the Wisconsin senator trimmed the lead 1,540 votes while in the other reports that preceded these, Coolidge appeared to have reached his greatest vote momentum and the question to be determined was whether La Follette could erase the president's lead of 16,281 which prevailed at 6 p. m. today.

These returns from 1,135 of the state's 2,160 precincts largely from
