Undefeated High School Teams Meet in Annual Contest in ' Lincoln.

High schools meet Saturday af ternoon in the tion of the week's nterscholastic football card in Nebraska pre paratory circles The game wil be played in the Lincoln High High school defeated team in suit this fall, while Tech has a veteran combination. The capital city eleven, however, has been win ning its games by good-sized margins and Lincoln fans are expecting a fast game Saturday.

Cambridge, undefeated this season meet Alma. Pawnee City is booked to meet Falls City.

Four of the high school teams dropped from the race last week--Fremont, Pender, Plainview viously held to a tie score, also was put out of the running when Kearey eliminated the Dawson county

Omaha Tech eliminated the Packers, 25 to 3. Norfolk took Fremont to a 18 to 7 cleaning, Te kamah handed Bender its first defeat, 6 to 0, and Ewing eliminated Plainview, 2 to 0.

Eight teams remain as active candidates for the high school title-Omaha, Tech, Lincoln, Crawford, Cambridge, Plainfield, Wilber, Bayard and Pawnee City. Two additional teams, according to available records, can present records clear of defeats, but whose schedules are said to hardly justify championship consideration, are South Sloux City and Wakefield.

In addition to the all-victorious elevens, there are five Nebraska high nools that have yet to meet defeat but which have been held to tie score -Ausley, Hartington, Verdigre, Falls City and Ashland.

In the important games last week Lincoln walloped Grand Island, 27 to 0; Crawford smothered the Scottstrounced the Curtis Aggles, 32 to 3; Pawnee City walked over Peru Prep, 11 to 0; Fairfield defeated Dexter, 83 over Havelock and Bayard turned back Kimball, 21 to 0.
