

Soloist at symphony concert, Florence Van Hoven, dramatic soprano, will be the soloist at the first concert of the season by the Omaha Symphony orchestra at the Auditorium November 20.

Eleven little puppies all in a row. Of royal heritage are these Irish setter puppies belonging to M. F. Guilfoyle. Their mother is Mr. Guilfoyle's prize-winning Kildare's Queen, sired by Tyrone Paddy Whack out of the international champion, Tyrone Larry.

Dr. Albert B. Marshall, formerly head of the Omaha Theological seminary and now pastor of a church at Clarinda, Ia., took a ride in this street car on his visit to Skagway, Alaska, where he spent his vacation.

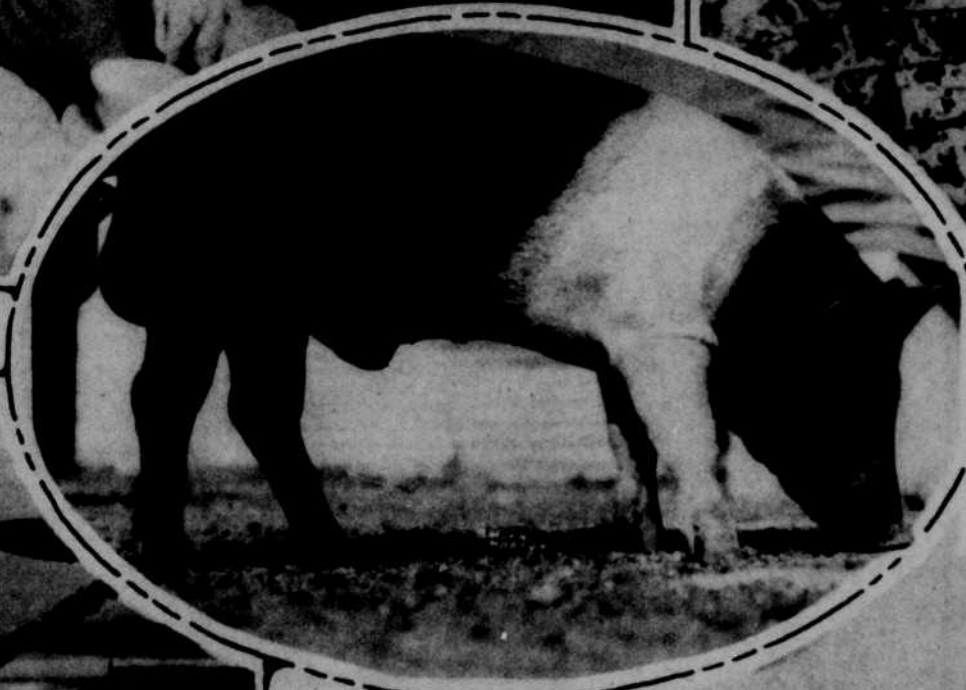

A giant ship of the night. A remarkable night photo of the Shenandoah.

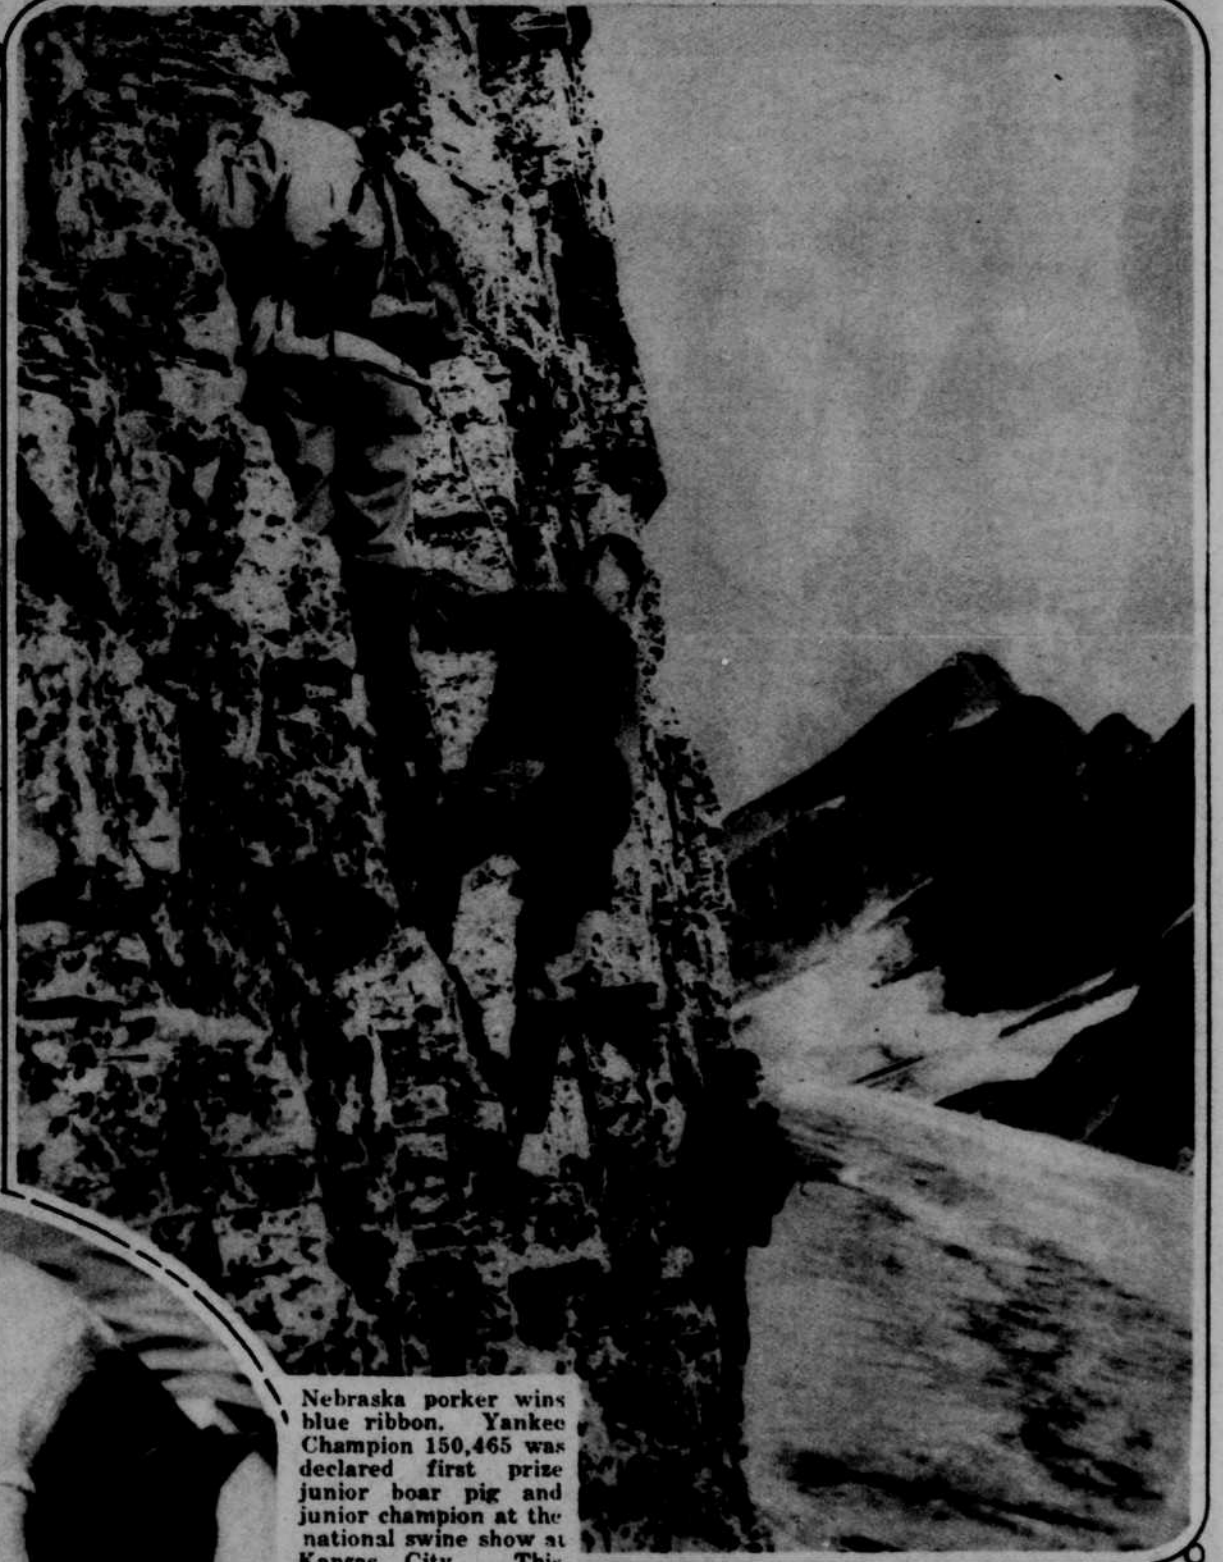

Where a slip means death. A ticklish moment during an ascent in the Canadian Rockies.

You buy your papers from these youngsters. Omaha Bee newsies at a banquet given for them at the Elks club.

Nebraska porker wins blue ribbon. Yankee Champion 150,465 was declared first prize junior boar pig and junior champion at the national swine show at Kansas City. This champion was shown by Chilcott brothers of Wisner, Neb., and then sold to Ed S. Rennie of Pilger, Neb.

All the spooks and goblins were there. At the costume dancing party given by Charlotte Todd. Back row, left to right: Anna Marie Waldman, Dorothy Meyers, Margaret Beardsley, Juli Hatterworth, Helen Clair Eck, Norma Williams, Mary Louise Burch, Charlotte Todd, Billy Pruner, Billy Reynolds, Charles Hansen, Clifford Montgomery, Dell Touda. Middle row, left to right: Hoxie Wright, Chauncey Abbott, Jerry Wang, Paul Weimer, Jane Shearer, Joe Anne Shearer, Mary George, Mary Pruner, Adeline Morrison, Sylvia Adams, Jane Colgrove. Front row, left to right: Billy Frazier, William Nelsen, Mary Jane Wagner, Mary Virginia Lewis, Katherine Kennedy, Harriet Todd, George Frazier, John Madden, Billy Deverall, Bobby Glover, George Veamer.

Sidney's corn palace. One of the interesting features of the annual fall festival of Cheyenne county, held at Sidney, Neb.