

Benson Society

Benson Woman's Club. At the regular meeting of the Benson Woman's club Thursday, November 20, at the home of Mrs. F. E. Young, Mrs. William Zimmerman gave an interesting review of Dorothy Canfield Fisher's book, "The Home-maker." Mrs. A. C. Dahl in her legislative report explained why club women are working so hard to have the child labor amendment passed at the coming session of the Nebraska legislature. She also stressed the fact that the United States is the only great nation without a department of education. As Thursday was illiteracy day, this statement made quite an impression on the club members. An assessment of 50 cents per capita was levied on the club membership to meet the general and state federation dues.

B. W. C. Music Department. Mesdames M. Feleman, R. Burford, G. Williams, A. H. Adams and W. O. Yale of the music department of the B. W. C., accompanied by Miss Roma Roth at the organ and Mrs. M. J. Hedlund at the piano, rendered a group of musical selections Sunday evening at the Methodist church. A prelude to the sermon rendered by the pastor, Rev. Arthur H. Adams.

Committee Meeting. E. L. Corbaley, chairman of the recreation and civic welfare committee of the Benson school association, and other committee members, met Friday evening in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. A pencil drawing of plans for the proposed annex to the Benson fire hall was submitted. This annex, when completed, will furnish space enough for a standard sized gymnasium at a very minimum expenditure, as some of the walls and the floor space of the old building can be utilized. As soon as the best methods of procedure are decided upon the committee will petition Commissioner Hummel to assist in putting this building project "over." Benson is sorely in need of a gymnasium as the Rose Hill gym, the only place in which the high school games could be played, has been fitted up for school room purposes.

Thanksgiving Festival. Members of the different departments of the Benson Presbyterian church have been working like "busy bees" during the month of November in order to have treasures to bring into God's store house Tuesday evening, November 25, when the annual Thanksgiving festival, will be celebrated. The work schedule was as follows: Sunday school conducted a paper sale, the junior Endeavorers sold candy, the ladies aid entertained at a luncheon and the Friendship circle a dinner. The intermediate department conducted a rummage sale. This active work program will be culminated in the church Tuesday evening when booths will be fitted up and homemade candy, pie, cake, doughnuts and pop-corn balls will be for sale. Coffee will be served free of charge. At 8 o'clock the senior C. E. members will put on a "Tuba Mistral." Members of the choir appearing in costume. Each department will give a detailed report when the thank offering is placed in the church treasury. The money will be used to pay for recent improvements on the church building.

Father and Son Banquet. The Baptist father and son banquet entertained Wednesday evening in the church dining parlors was a very decided success. Fred Nelson was toastmaster and Rev. Mr. Calhoun of Council Bluffs the principal speaker of the evening. Rev. C. L. Sharp, former pastor of the church, brought out many worth while and beautiful thoughts in his prayer of thanks. Rev. B. H. Marshall, present pastor, pronounced the benediction. Community singing was led by Toastmaster Nelson, with O. McGuire at the piano. A. Wallace gave a toast to "Our Fathers" and Eugene Pickard, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pickard, responded with the toast to "Our Sons."

Entertains for Los Angeles Guest. Mrs. R. D. Allen entertained at a luncheon Thursday at Burgess-Nash tea rooms complimentary to Mrs. Arthur Rose, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Goes. Mrs. Rose formerly resided in Omaha.

Thanksgiving Service. In the morning, Sunday, November 23, Rev. Arthur H. Adams, pastor of the Benson Methodist church, will deliver his annual Thanksgiving sermon and in the evening the regular Thanksgiving offering of canned food, jellies and provisions will be brought and laid at the altar. The church will be decorated with autumn leaves and harvest home decorations. The offering received will be donated to the Nebraska Methodist hospital Monday morning, November 24. Special Thanksgiving music will be rendered at both services. Evening sermon topic, "The Ministry of Healing."

Benson School Association. At the meeting of the Benson School association held Monday evening it was voted to put on an exciting Christmas program Monday evening, December 22. Mrs. F. E. Young, program chairman, will arrange for this entertainment.

Auxiliary Bazar. The woman's auxiliary to Lee Forby camp, Spanish-American War Veterans, will hold their annual bazar sale Saturday, November 29, at the Eagles hall, Seventeenth and Cass streets. All kinds of fancy work will be for sale. Dinner will be served beginning at 5:30. Everyone welcome.

Heads U. P. Chorus. O. Arthur Melcher was chosen director of the Union Pacific male chorus which was recently organized. Over 50 enrolled as charter members. G. W. Uhler was made associate director and Einar Andreesen of Benson and also organizer at the First Christian church was made the accompanist. Carl Gray will provide the funds until after the first concert has been put on.

Attend Council at Lincoln. A delegation from the auxiliary of the Spanish-American War Veterans of Omaha attended the council meeting of the executive officials of the department of Nebraska Saturday, November 22. Mrs. Rosebella Whitehead of Omaha is president of the Nebraska women's department.

A Contrast in Winter Silhouettes

By ELEANOR GUNN

When doctors disagree, it goes hard with the patient—and when dressmakers disagree, woman is thrown on her own judgment for the important decision as to what her shadow will make. It may take any of the traditions shown, yet in them all is a deference to the short skirt and a tendency toward sleeve fullness and in three, at least, a similar tendency as related to the skirt. The princess type of dress—regal and lovely for women who have the lines to support it with a series of trains to one side—may be included in one's list of worth while things, while, of course, the bouffant picture type is a classic. In the original Collet, the black velvet discs were rimmed with pearls and the bow was a cyclamone pink faille. One may look askance at a bow in so unusual a position, but nevertheless, so it is placed by many of the dress designers. It leaves one in doubt as to the waistline, and in this frame of mind, many of them unquestionably are. Most of us, accustomed to the freedom of either no sleeves at all, or at least those which do not interfere, are a bit sorry to see the fullness which unquestionably is intruding, and perhaps we may rebel against high collars and skirts which not only cut into more material, but must be deftly hung, yet such is the decree of the style dictators of Paris, and the woman who would be considered smart these days, will do well to obey. (Copyright, 1924.)

of B. S. chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will be put on Monday, November 24, at the Old People's Home. Hostesses: Mesdames C. A. Tracy, A. C. Nerness and D. M. Wyckoff.

Bazars. The ladies of St. Bernard will hold their annual bazaar in the Benson city hall three evenings beginning Monday November 24. The Danish sisterhood will conduct its annual bazar Saturday evening, November 29. All kinds of fancy work will be for sale. Lunch will be served during the afternoon.

Drama Section B. W. C. Mrs. Mervin Ross, 2606 North Sixtieth street, will be hostess Tuesday to the members of the drama section of the B. W. C. The playlet, "How the Story Grew," will be put on. Miss Ruby Jensen of the Benson High school will give a short talk on the development of the English drama.

Personals. Richard Martin is spending a few days with relatives near Irvington. Dr. W. H. Loehner returned home Tuesday from the Nebraska Methodist hospital. Miss Mabel Johnson of Chicago is a guest of her sister, Mrs. James Main, and Mr. Main.

Mrs. James Main and baby daughter, Helen, returned Tuesday from the Methodist hospital. Mrs. F. A. Thellen and daughter, Helen, of South Dakota are guests at the home of Mrs. Thellen's sister, Mrs. O. C. Kindig, and Mr. Kindig.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Burford and daughter, Eloise, left Friday for Lutesville, Mo., to spend the Thanksgiving season with Mr. Burford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burford.

Winter of Furs. Fur coats are three-quarter length. They are enveloping, with immensely high collars, and with linings often of lame or brocade. Astrakhan came last autumn, and now furriers cannot get enough of it. Astrakhan is not used alone, however, but the collars are generally of kolinski, akunk, ermine or otter. Otter is a new fur—otter and the fur that so closely resembles it, nubia.

Imported chinchilla-rabbit and chinchilla-rat, which come from Brazil. The little animal is larger than the chinchilla, but bears a close resemblance, and is really beautiful. Fashionable skins are mostly flat, and the rabbit has been so cut and shingled, then rolled flat, that it looks like soft satin or plush.

Butter—1 pound cuts into 22 squares of 1 tablespoonful each, an average serving. If creamed, 1 pound will spread 7 dozen rolls.
