The "Suckers' Money."
Hearing of Atom.
Mrs. Harding Dead.
The Voodoo Man.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE.

Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers says "30 or 40 big foreign loans will be made in the next year and a half. This will go on until they have drained all the gold from the country and got most of the suckers' money. Then we will have another period of depression."

The big loans are coming, but they won't take "most of the suckers' money" without the consent of those "suckers." Before you make up your mind to buy foreign bonds, ask the big bankers how many of those foreign bonds they have bought for themselves.

They handle the bonds, take the raffle, pass them on to you. Ask the banker that offers them to you if he will guarantee them at their face value or at three-quarters of their face value. He will say no.

Atoms of iron, so small that you wouldn't notice 10,000 of them in the corner of your eye, make a roaring noise as they rush to a magnet held near them.

Scientists of the General Electric company now have perfected a device that makes the roaring sound audible. If that's possible, may we not some day hear voices of our distant relatives on neighboring planets? It isn't impossible. Nothing is impossible that men can imagine.

Mrs. Harding died yesterday, 15 months after the death of President Harding. Mrs. Harding worked for her husband, lived for him, and had a great share in building up his success. Life did not interest her after he died.

The post office has stopped the trade of Prince Hough, a colored man who ran a prosperous mail-order business. He offered, quoting his letter, "To cure you and make you lucky, and never go broke, and get all the work you can do, borrow all the money you want, run any business you want, all that cost only $21."

It was all right to stop the proceeds of Prince Hough, the voodoo expert. Yet the mere promise, even without fulfillment, seems worth $21.

How many followers of heathen religions, Hindu, Mohammedan, Thibetan, Buddhist, Shintoist, pay several times $21 every year for promises worth no more than those of the Prince Hough?

Prof. Littan, who teaches history at Johns Hopkins, says it is an insult to Japan for our navy to organize big maneuvers to Hawaiian waters.

That's a new step in American timidity, in dealing with our friends in Asia. This country, just now at least, owns Hawaii. The Hawaiian waters are American waters. And the United States ought to have a reasonable interest in the Pacific ocean, which is pretty big.

Our friends in Europe, John Bull and others, and our good little brown friend in Japan, must have laughed yesterday to see Uncle Sam firing shells at the battleship Washington, endeavoring, vainly, to sink the great battleship by fire from the guns of the Texas.

You will read this morning in the news columns what luck the flying men had in sinking the big boat. The experiment of dropping bombs from flying machines will at least have some value. The big guns at the battleships are out-of-date toys and it is a disgrace to waste the people's money practicing with them.

It is also something of a disgrace to fire from American guns at a battleship named "Washington." This country ought to leave it to others to fire shells on that name. The authorities also ought to find some cheaper target than an unfinished battleship on which $35,000,000 of the people's money has been spent.

It would have been more polite to George Washington, and more pleasing to the taxpayers, and more Europe by destroying its finest ship, had saved the metal in it for "junk."

Since the big boom started on election day more than 30,000,000 shares of stock have been sold on New York's stock exchange. Yesterday was another "more than 2,000,000-share day." Some of the operators decided to take their profits. Generally speaking, that's wise. One of the most successful of the Rothschilds said: "I got rich by always selling too soon."

But beware how you sell such a crazy "market" short. When the people are buying more than 2,000,000 shares of stock every day, you can't tell what will happen.

It turns out, according to Krasin, just appointed bolshevik ambassador to France, that England lent $88,000,000 to Russia. Our best minds will deplore this subsidizing of bolshevism, and building up a government that almost at any moment threatens to haul down the Stars and Stripes and run up the red flag on the capitol at Washington.

The British are not as easily frightened as some American white rabbit statesmen. And, by the way, they will get back their $88,000,000. Don't worry about Great Britain. She has statesmen working for her.

Woman Loses Hand Because of Kindness
Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Bridgeport, Neb., Nov. 23.—Kindness toward animals may cost Mrs. Art O'Dell of Julesburg her right hand, or at least one or two fingers on that hand, which may have to be amputated as the result of injuries received while feeding a horse. The animal got her hand in his mouth and crushed it between his teeth so badly that amputation of some of the fingers may become necessary.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS HOLD CONVENTION

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Holdrege, Neb., Nov. 23.—The fifth district Royal Neighbors' convention held in Holdrege last Thursday was one of the most successful ever held, according to the members of the order. There were more than 150 delegates registered and during the evening an additional 50 attended the dinner.

The convention was called to order by Mrs. Mary Chapman, district deputy, and after the invocation by Rev. Roy Larson, pastor of the Baptist church, an address of welcome was given by Frank A. Anderson. The response was made by Neighbor Ralston of Orleans.

Honors were paid the supreme officers in attendance when they were introduced by District Oracle Mrs. Selma Waller, and the camp songs were sung.

The afternoon session was called to order at 1:30 by the district oracle and the usual order of business was disposed of. I've camp of Holdrege officiated at the seating of the delegates. The class adoption ceremony was put on by Bertrand camp.

Mrs. Henrietta Owens, state supervisor, conducted an interesting school of instruction, after which Minden was selected as the meeting place of next year's convention. The election and installation of district officers followed.

At 6 a dinner was served the delegates at the Holdrege Business Girls' club rooms, more than 200 being seated. The tables were tastefully decorated in the colors of the order and during the dinner the Axtell orchestra played selections.

Following the dinner an evening meeting was held, at which a reading by Miss Mabel Manley, a fancy drill by the Loomis camp and an address by the state supervisor, Mrs. Owens, were enjoyable features.

Auto Overturns; Four Occupants Are Unhurt

Cozad, Neb., Nov. 23.—Four prominent business men of Cozad narrowly escaped death Friday when their automobile turned turtle on the Lincoln Highway here. The four men composed a party of Shriners on their way to the ceremonial at Hastings.

The party consisted of State Senator C. A. Allen, S. D. Ralston, president of the Stockmans State bank; Ralph L. Ford, president of the Ford Pharmacy company, and Robert Paris, a prominent farmer. Paris was at the wheel and driving his own Dodge sedan. He was driving east on the Lincoln Highway at a rapid rate of speed, when he met a machine coming west. Paris was traveling on the left side of the road and crossed to the right at too sharp an angle and lost control of his car.

Trying to regain control, he stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake and increased his speed, zig-zagging in the road until he struck a sand pocket and skidded into the ditch. The car rolled over on its top and was badly wrecked. The men escaped with only minor injuries.

Oberlies to Speak

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Broken Bow, Neb., Nov. 23.—The Public Service has formed a schedule for some very interesting meetings for the next two months. On December 4, L. C. Oberlies, president of the state board of control, will give an address on the state institutions. On December 16 the members will entertain at a banquet complimentary to their wives. Then will come the Christmas parties. The club is making a substantial addition to their membership list.

Gen. Duncan Urges Greater Care in Foreign Dealings

Richness and Influence of U. S. Has Increased Necessity for Skillful Diplomacy, He Says.

The United States is by far the richest and most influential country in the world, and for this reason the people in America should be more careful in their foreign dealings, according to Maj. Gen. George B. Duncan, who spoke Sunday afternoon to members of the Philosophical society at the Patterson block on "International Diplomacy."

"In 1914 the United States was regarded as a second rate power by Europe. During this year the great powers, including England, Japan, France and Russia, looked upon America as a go-between among the superior countries of the world."

"Today the United States exceeds all the other countries in commercial dealings. The United States ranks second only to Great Britain in merchant marine. In years to come it may be possible that America will be more advanced on the seas than England."

"Fully two-thirds of Great Britain's population is in India. Canada and Australia also tend to strengthen the British power. China, though more densely populated than any other country in the world, is at a loss, due to its inefficient leadership."

Osceola Celebrates Fire Prevention Day

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Osceola, Neb., Nov. 23.—Fire prevention day, observed in Osceola on Thursday, under the direction of the Community club, proved of general interest. The Community club secured the assistance of 40 representatives of these insurance companies and together with a committee from the fire department and the local organization of Boy Scouts, made a thorough canvass of the town, looking for fire hazards.

All residents and property owners were asked to lend assistance. A dinner was served by the Merry Workers society at noon and at 6 a banquet was given by the Community club. In the evening the picture auditorium was well filled by people who were present to listen to the talks and see the moving picture program prepared for the special occasion.

Cattle Sale Nets $3,101

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, York, Neb., Nov. 23.—York county sale of Polled Shorthorns and other Shorthorns was held Thursday at the County Fair Agricultural building. The 41 head of cattle sold brought $3,101.50. Bulls averaged $91, the highest price for one being $125. One cow brought $150. Polled Shorthorns seem to be leading in favor in this vicinity, bringing higher prices than other cattle. Arthur Thompson of Lincoln, cried the sale, which was largely attended.

Park Board Planned

Columbia, Neb., Nov. 23.—The creation of a board of park commissioners to take over the management and development of the city's system of public parks is contemplated in an ordinance to that effect which has passed first reading in the city council.

Boys in Conference

Aurora, Neb., Nov. 23.—Secretary W. C. Eloe of the Y. M. C. A. will be at the state "Older Boys conference" at Columbus, November 28 and 29, with a delegation of 10 of his boys. He also expects delegations of boys from Marquette, Hampton and Stockham to accompany him.

Education Week Is Observed at Cozad

Cozad, Neb., Nov. 23.—Everybody in Cozad observed national education week. The business and professional men have great placards in their windows advertising some phase of the school's work. The Local had several papers covering the question and importance of the week.

W. O. Harlow Dead

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Table Rock, Neb., Nov. 23.—O. Y. Harlow, a prominent citizen of Du Bois, who suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days ago, died at his home in Du Bois. He had been a prominent figure in the affairs of Pawnee and Richardson counties for a great many years. He was a brother of R. C. Harlow of Table Rock.

Women Scramble for Turkey Tuesday

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Audubon, Ia., Nov. 23.—Twenty-five turkeys, besides a number of ducks and geese, will be given away free to those who catch them on Audubon's third annual turkey day next Tuesday. Some of the birds must be scrambled for by the women only. One turkey each will be given to the family coming the greatest distance, the largest family present, the newest married couple and the couple present that has been married the longest time. Coffee and doughnuts will be served free to visitors in the city that day.

WIN BITTERLY CONTESTED SUIT

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Aurora, Neb., Nov. 23.—The jury in the case of Alex A. Campbell and Mel F. Campbell, guardians of Samuel Campbell, against Daniel T. Gallentine, after being out all night, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for $5,684.97. The case was bitterly contested and once before resulted in a mistrial because of disagreement of the jury. F. E. Edgerton tried the case for the plaintiffs, while the defendant was represented by J. H. Grosvenor of Aurora and J. L. Cleary of Grand Island.

The action arose as a suit for damages for breach of warranty in a deed given by Gallentine to Campbell in 1902. The title failed because of the Baker deed act, which was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, thereby invalidating all titles secured under that act. Owners of the paramount title came in and sued Campbell and secured a decree holding that they owned the fee title. Campbell's family then bought out the people who then owned the paramount title.

After Gallentine sold the land to Campbell, he moved to Kansas and lived there until 1920. As soon as he moved back into Nebraska he was sued by the guardians of Samuel Campbell, claiming that the statute of limitations had not run because of the insanity of their father, Samuel Campbell. By their verdict, the jury held that Campbell was insane from March 12, 1910, the date when the Campbells purchased the outstanding paramount title.

MELCHIORI'S PLANT WELL EQUIPPED

P. Melchioris & Son, 413-15-17 South Thirteenth street, are said to have the most up-to-date shop in the city, equipped to handle any kind of general machine work, power plant overhauling, auto repair and overhauling. Melchioris employ a force of machinists who are capable of undertaking the repair or building of any kind of machinery. The shop is also equipped to do a general line of blacksmith work.

The automobile department has the service and repair station for the popular and well known Eisenhart magneto and Rayfield carburetor. A man direct from the factory is in charge of this work.

SCIENCE FOUND IN LAUNDRY METHODS

"Not many years ago it was a common sight in some parts of the country to see the women washing their clothing on the banks of a pond or running stream, beating the clothing with a stick and dipping them in the water to drive out the dirt.

"This generation has the most modern and sanitary methods known to science," says Mr. Harmon, proprietor of the American Wet Wash laundry, 2808 Cuming street. The American Wet Wash laundry is equipped with the latest machinery for the laundering of wearing apparel, using soft water exclusively. A feature of the firm's service is the fact that all washing receives five rinsings before it is returned to the housewife. This has met with much popularity, as it assures a clean and free appearance to the clothing and eliminates all traces of soap.
