

Winter Wheat in Chase County Now in Splendid Shape

Prospects Excellent for Record Yield Throughout Southwestern Section of Nebraska.

Imperial, Nov. 25.—Chase county, and in fact all the southwestern part of Nebraska, has the finest prospect for the winter wheat crop it has ever had and the best to be found in the state. Many thousand acres of wheat were sown in all the southwestern counties and with a rain fall of from three to six inches in the past 60 days the wheat in every field now covers the ground like a vast green carpet, and there is plenty of moisture in the ground to insure its going through the winter in fine shape. With favorable conditions in the spring this section of the state will harvest the greatest wheat crop in its history.

Corn shucking is progressing rapidly in Chase county, and while the production is not as large as it was last year, most of the farmers are getting yields of from 20 to 40 bushels per acre, and the quality is fair.

There will not be as many cattle fed this winter as last, but nearly every farmer has a drove of thrifty hogs.

General business conditions in Chase county are good. Many farmers who were in financial straits following the depression after the war are either paying out in full or are reducing their indebtedness to a point where it is no longer burdensome. The banks report plenty of money on hand, and even much more than is needed for business requirements.

Some land has been changing hands recently in this vicinity at $65 to $100 per acre, the latter sum being recently paid for an unimproved farm three miles southeast of Imperial. The purchasers of this land are home people who are familiar with its value.

Youth, 19, Guilty of Robbery, Gets 25 Years in Prison

Admits Looting of Havelock Bank; Age Makes No Difference to Judge When Case Comes Up.

Lincoln, Nov. 25.—Charles Billups, 19, who was arrested in Topeka, Kan., for participation in the robbery of the Havelock State bank, was sentenced today to 25 years in the state penitentiary by Judge Stewart of the district court. This was the maximum penalty under the Nebraska law.

The young man, who, with another, entered the bank and lined up five persons and robbed the bank of $6,000 in cash and thousands more in negotiable securities, was arrested in Topeka for robbing an oil station. He is said to have confessed to the Havelock robbery when Nebraska officers returned him to Lincoln yesterday. He pleaded guilty to a charge of bank robbery.

AT THE THEATERS

Four of a kind is a particularly good hand to hold in a poker game and it is just as much a winner in vaudeville as in the other great American game. Four of a kind are the Dixie Four, a quartet of blackface comedians at the Orpheum this week. Of course, four of a kind are never exactly the same. They are of different suits, and so the men of the Dixie Four are all different, but they are alike inasmuch as each is a capable singer and dancer, and together they are winners. The Dixie Four are indeed a quartet of versatile boys. As songsters they are hard to beat and their dancing places them in a class by themselves.

Renee Noel of the act of Noel and Percival at the World has been featured with several Broadway productions and has also written several successful stage plays. He now has the contract to write a comedy-drama for one of the biggest New York producers and plans on making this his last vaudeville tour until the completion of the play. Four performances will be given tomorrow.

Four complete performances will be given tomorrow at the Empress theater, where the favorite Empress Players are offering the hilarious musical comedy "The Woman Hater." The show is enlivened with girls and musical numbers and makes one of the most popular entertainments in recent weeks. The Higgins Six, a family orchestra from Schuyler, Neb., is an added attraction Friday evening, at which time amateurs also will be presented.

Clark and McCullough have given "Monkey Shines," their popular new revue now at the Gayety theater, a genuine Broadway touch. This entertaining burlesque rivals in more points than one some of the nationally famous musical productions leaving the O. K. of the Great White Way. In the first place, they have departed from the usual one-act show, requiring as they do two 70-foot baggage cars to transport the vast volume of scenery and effects used in the production. And they have costumed it in a manner that bars all criticism, there being an array of exquisite gowns seldom seen in productions whose admission price is less than 25. The Thanksgiving day matinee starts at 3.

A star, always popular in this country, is appearing this week at the Brandeis in a new play with the most attractive title, "Something Tells Me." The play was written by the star, May Robson, and is being played by her and she has scored a new triumph, both for herself and her play. Miss Lillian Harmer is with Miss Robson again and her droll, farcical characterizations are screamingly funny.

An excellent cast supports Miss Robson. Regular matinee Saturday, and special 3 o'clock matinee Thanksgiving day.

A notable event in the American theater this season will be the introduction of Fritz Leiber, famous stage and screen star of the world renowned romance by Alexander Dumas' "The Three Musketeers." Mr. Leiber will open an engagement in this city of three nights at the Brandeis next Monday night.

Recalling for the playgoer something of "The Three Musketeers," it may be said to depict in colorful style court life in the closing years of the grand monarch, Louis XIII of France, and its romance revolves around a gay adventurer, D'Artagnan (played by Mr. Leiber). It is adroitly interlarded with the sprightly French humor of the times.

Mr. Leiber will appear in "Hamlet" Monday night, "Macbeth," Tuesday night, "Julius Caesar," Wednesday matinee, and "The Three Musketeers" Wednesday night.

Bridgeport.—Mrs. Fred Haver, 47, of Scottsbluff, a resident of the valley for several years, died at her home of pneumonia.

Life Is Worth While if old folks are well

To be well, avoid chronic constipation. The laxative for old people is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

It would be of great benefit to elderly people if they realized that all their complaints are aggravated by constipation, as constipation is a form of congestion that affects the brain, nervous and muscular systems.

Headaches develop, aches and pains become worse, and rheumatism more painful. If you keep your intestines free from poisons you will find yourself happier and without those disorders usually associated with advancing age.

It is a mistake for old people to take strong cathartic pills, as they are seldom necessary and their repeated use requires larger and larger doses. Like-wise the taking of "candy cathartics" is bad, as many of these contain a coal-tar drug that often causes skin eruptions; and if you have taken salt waters you know how dry and weak you felt afterwards.

The fact is elderly people need only a mild, simple laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is gentle in action and free from gripping, a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. Use it awhile and you will soon be able to dispense with medicines of all kinds.

More elderly people use Syrup Pepsin than any other laxative, and Mrs. Wesley Davis, 819 26th St., So. Bellingham, Wash., and Mr. A. R. MacLellan, 1209 Sixth St., N. E., Washington, D. C., believe it has added many healthy years to their lives. Get a bottle at a nearby drug store and try a spoonful the next time you feel constipated, have a headache, biliousness, flatulence, dyspepsia, night cramps, or in any other way feel out of sorts as a result of not having had proper elimination.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is not an experiment with old folks, as it has been on the market over 30 years and is today the largest selling laxative in the world, over 10 million bottles being sold annually. Buy it with the understanding that it will do as we state or your money will be promptly refunded.

No off-days for him —on account of sore throat

A PERFECT record of attendance! More than most little folks can say during the cold, blustery, sore-throat days of winter. Naturally, he's proud of that report card he brings home. And his mother is, too.

Both mother and son have a secret—which, after all, needn't be a secret at all. Simply let the children form the systematic habit of using Listerine, the safe antiseptic, as a mouth wash and gargle.

So often it will ward off a bad case of sore throat and the more serious ills that may follow. Sore throat is a nuisance—and, usually, it is the danger signal of other troubles that start with throat infections. Listerine, the safe antiseptic, will put you and your family on the safe side. So do not be without it. It has dozens of other uses—all described on the circular that comes wrapped around each bottle.—Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, Saint Louis, U. S. A.
