

Divorced Couple Plans Remarriage

William Gomer Obtains License to Wed Annetto Gomer at Bluffs.

William Gomer, 24, of Toledo, O., obtained a license in Council Bluffs Wednesday to remarry his former wife, Annetto Gomer, 22, stepdaughter of A. Hospe, Omaha music dealer. The Gomers were divorced in Toledo, O., in 1922, after being married for only a short time.

Mrs. Gomer was the daughter of the late eccentric, Dr. George W. Pangle, who was a large real estate holder of Council Bluffs. After his death Mrs. Pangle married Hospe. She died about two years ago.

Mrs. Gomer has been living in Omaha since obtaining her divorce. Her friends did not know Wednesday evening whether she and Gomer had been married.

Veteran Newspaper Men Feast Together and Talk Old Times

Thomas W. Blackburn was host to a lively party of more or less veteran newspaper men at luncheon Wednesday noon at the Elks club. Sixteen guests enjoyed the repast and exchanged reminiscences, which dated back to 1869, when Tom Fitzmorris started in as copy boy, and including the mere youths who did not break into the game in Omaha until about 1885 or 1890.

Alfred Sorenson was the dead of the party in point of service, having been since 1871, and keeping actively at it until a couple of months ago. Touching tributes were paid to the memory of some of the old timers who have passed from the stage of action. Sands F. Woodbridge and I. W. Miner divided honors with Senator Sorenson in point of service. Mr. Blackburn was heartily thanked for calling the old comrades together, and the several short talks were enjoyed. The guests were I. W. Miner, Alfred Sorenson, S. F. Woodbridge, J. B. Haynes, T. J. Fitzmorris, Judge A. C. Troup, W. R. Watson, Ballard Dunn, Joseph Polcar, H. E. Newbranch, F. A. Kennedy, Bruce McCulloch, Lew Haber, G. B. Eddy, Richard L. Metcalfe, Will M. Maupin.

the kind and Tom Fitzmorris intimated that he would be delighted to act as host at a similar gathering in the near future.

Columbus.—John Wittka and Roy Westbrook entered pleas of guilty to illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, in county court following raids by state officers. They were each assessed $100 and costs.

Turkey Gobbler Sings Swan Song to Guests at Club Dining Room

A live turkey gobbler strutted about the dining room of the Omaha Athletic club Wednesday. He wore a sign, "I'm Still Here." The same gobbler, and many of his brothers and sisters, will grace the club's dining room Thursday. But there won't be any strutting on the part of the bird. He will have gone to his reward by that time.

Honey Yield Best in Years.

Beatrice, Nov. 26.—Ira Gould, who operates a small apary at his place in West Beatrice, reports he has sold 4,000 pounds of honey this fall from 40 stands of bees. He says the honey yield in this section is one of the best in years.
